JOHNSON AVALANCHE; MURPHY WINS

Rep. Clausen Wins; Backed In County

With a big boost from Marin County, Republican Congressman Donald H. Clausen of Crescent City defeated Democrat George E. McCabe of Santa Rosa yesterday, getting nearly 59 per cent of the vote.

Unofficial totals, not including absentee ballots, gave Clausen 138,684 votes to McCabe's 97,274, sending Clausen back to Washington for a second two-year term representing the six counties which make up California's First Congressional District.

Marin voters gave Clausen 42,877 votes and McCabe 26,967 votes.

McCabe, a member of the faculty at Sonoma State College, sent Clausen this telegram at 1:30 a.m. today:

"Congratulations on your reelection and my best personal wishes to you and your family. See you in 1966."

With the text of the wire, McCabe released a statement congratulating Clausen "on having conducted a shrewd campaign."

DONALD H. CLAUSEN
Wins 59-to-41

He attributed his defeat "to the concern of the people of this district that the two-party system not be destroyed by a one-party landslide, but added that "it is due in part to my inability to get across to the people the extent to which Mr. Clausen's views and voting record are almost identical to those which have been repudiated at the presidential level."

McCabe said Clausen's and nis views "are still in diametric opposition," and concluded, "We shall probably see him again in 1966."

Clausen, who spent election night in Crescent City, was unavailable today for a formal statement. Last night, however, as the trend in his favor became evident, he thanked the voters for ticket-splitting and commented:

"I'm so pleased I could bust my buttons. The voters apparently have given me a big majority at a time when my political party, at the top, suffered substantial defeat. So it appears

Salinger Says He Will Quit

COMBINED AP & UPI

Political freshman George Murphy rode to a U.S. Senate victory today on a surge of Southern California votes in a stunning reversal of President Lyndon B. Johnson's landslide trend.

The former movie star, now a successful businessman, snuffed out Democrat Pierre Salinger's hopes of landing a full six-year term in the Senate.

PRESS SECRETARY

Salinger, 39, press secretary to two presidents, trailed nightlong in the tabulations from yesterday's general election—but the margin was slender.

Murphy was winning Los Angeles County, with 38 per cent of the state's voters, by more than 200,000 votes to balance Salinger's edge in strongly Democratic areas, particularly in the north.

Later today, Los Angeles was to start counting more than 90,000 absentee ballots, which normally run heavily Republican.

2-TO-1 AHEAD

The only significant numbers of votes left to be tallied were in Los Angeles County, Orange, where Murphy was running almost 2 to 1 ahead; and San Diego, which gave him a steady 200,000-vote edge.

Returns from 27,479 of 31,498 precincts gave Murphy 3,079,720, Salinger 2,890,282.

Salinger conceded defeat to Murphy at 9 a.m. today in San Francisco, charging that the carpetbagger issue was his Republican opponent's most effective campaign weapon in winning.

HELP OFFER

Salinger read a telegram of congratulations he had sent to Murphy in Los Angeles.

"I congratulate you on your victory," Salinger wrote: "I want to assist you in any way that I can. My office and staff are available to you immediately and I wish you luck."

Asked whether he might con-

LBJ Calls For Unity Of Nation

COMBINED AP & UPI

Lyndon B. Johnson scored history's greatest presidential victory today and proclaimed his determination "to make this nation whole again" after one of the bitterest campaigns of modern times.

His avalanche of votes buried the hopes of Republican Sen. Barry M. Goldwater of Arizona that Americans were ripe this year for a return to conservatism.

DEMO CONGRESS

Johnson carried with him into power an overwhelmingly Democratic congress. In a victory statement issued some nine hours before Goldwater formally conceded defeat, Johnson interpreted the election results as "a mandate for unity" and a command "to move forward toward peace and a better life for all of our people."

Johnson said he looked on his election as an opportunity to heal the nation's wounds.

At Johnson City, Tex., Johnson, now chief executive in his own right, said today that the greatest popular mandate in American politics must have one purpose: "to bind up our wounds, to heal our history and to make this nation whole."

First, there was to be relaxation, after the grueling and often harsh campaign, which to Johnson meant a Texas-style barbecue on the banks of the Pedernales river at noon today for Vice President-elect Hubert H. Humphrey, and the White House Press Corps.

VOTE TALLY

At the time Goldwater conceded, late tabulations had counted a total of more than 65 million votes. This was divided 40,597,687 for Johnson and 25,636,878 for Goldwater.

The one state listed as doubtful was Arizona, Goldwater's home state. He was leading in the reported vote.

Johnson had won 44 states and the District of Columbia for a total of 486 electoral votes. He needed 270 to win. Goldwater had five states — Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia

Barry Concedes But Sees GOP's Role As Opposition

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater wired his congratulations today to President Lyndon S. Johnson, landslide victor in the presidential race. Despite his overwhelming loss, the beaten Republican nominee made clear he intended to remain at the helm of the Republican party.

The Arizona senator said he will have plenty of time to devote to leading and strengthening the party, "being unemployed as of Jan. 3."

And that, Goldwater said, is what he intends to do.

"I don't feel that the conservative cause has been hurt," he said.

Goldwater said 1968 is a long time off. But "as of now, I would think they would probably pick another man to run."

"But as of now, that would be fine with me."

But he said the traditional role of the national ticket, even a beaten one, is to strive, lead and strengthen the party.

"I have no bitterness, no rancor at all," Goldwater said after he strolled to the rostrum of the plush desert motel, smiling despite his overwhelming defeat.

In his telegram to Johnson, Goldwater said:

"Congratulations on your victory. I will help you in any way I can toward achieving a growing and better America and a secure and dignified peace.

"The role of the Republican party will remain in that temper, but it also remains in the

Big Win For Proposition 14 —Lottery Out

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—California voters, in a major civil rights test, approved a constitutional amendment yesterday wiping out the state's laws against housing discrimination.

Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown, a leading foe of the measure to assure property owners absolute discretion in sales and rentals, called the initiative measure unconstitutional and pledged to carry on the fight.

"I do not regard the election as the end of California's fight against discrimination and segregation in housing," said Brown, who earlier had promised a quick federal court test of the amendment's constitutionality.

In approving Proposition 14, the state's voters rejected pleas from leaders of both political parties, labor unions and churches to defeat it.

With returns from 16,651 of 31,498 precincts, Proposition 14 was winning by 1,544,350 yes votes to 807,752 no.

Brown called on the California Real Estate Assn., which championed the initiative, to "come forward now with suggestions and programs for solving the discrimination which it professes to abhor and which it claims can be eliminated with voluntary efforts.

The initiative nullifies the state's controversial Rumford

Fusselman, Ludy Suffer Defeat

As the dust cleared from hard-fought scuffles for three seats on the Marin County Board of Supervisors today, it showed two incumbents defeated while a third retained his seat only by a narrow margin. (See photos, pages 10, 14.)

In the Fourth District (West Marin), George H. Ludy was defeated in his bid for a second four-year term by attorney Thomas T. Storer of Inverness Park. The vote, not counting absentees, was 1,536 for Storer and 1,347 for Ludy.

There reportedly are not enough absentees in the district to change that outcome.

William D. Fusselman of San Anselmo, seeking his seventh term as representative of the Second District (Ross Valley) was decisively beaten by Ernest N. Kettenhofen, who polled 13,344 votes to Fusselman's 8,271. The defeat will end Fusselman's 22-year career as a supervisor.

In the First District (San Rafael area) incumbent Byron W. Leydecker apparently cinched a victory over San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis. The vote was 9,800 for Leydecker to 9,453 for McInnis.

Leydecker appeared to be far enough ahead to stave off any upset from the counting of about 5,000 absentee votes.

ROUNDUP

How Marin Voted In Election

Marin County voters yesterday rejected Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, voting about 5-to-3 in favor of President Lyndon B. Johnson.

But in the U.S. Senate, Congressional and State Senate and Assembly contests, Marin County ran true to form, voting for Republicans.

Down the line on the national and state offices, Marin majorities backed the winners.

A total of 72,386 voters (out of a total registration of 86,002) went to the polls yesterday, for a turnout of about 84 per cent. The percentage will range between 85 and 90 per cent after all the absentee votes are counted. This fell short of the record 92.4 per cent turnout in the 1960 general elections.

A near-perfect turnout was

Barry Gets Home State's Support

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — Sen. Barry Goldwater today carried his home state, narrowly edging President Lyndon B. Johnson.

With 701 of the state's 741 precincts reporting, Goldwater had 213,427 to the president's 207,872. Whether his home state would join the five southern states that gave him their electoral vote had remained in doubt through today.

Republican Gov. Paul Fannin was elected to succeed Goldwater in the Senate seat.

Unification Move Passes

It took four elections, but voters of Novato Unified and San Jose school districts finally approved unification of the two districts.

However, the race for the seven man board of trustees was so close that its final outcome will not be known until all absentee votes are counted.

The unofficial complete returns on unification, except the absentee ballots, was: yes, 5,317; no, 1,539.

Bagley In Easy Win In Assembly Race

William T. Bagley of San Rafael won his third two-year State Assembly term with no difficulty in yesterday's voting (Cee photo, page 14.)

Republican Bagley defeated his Democratic opponent, James E. Pockrus of Rohnert Park, by wide margins in both counties of the Seventh Assembly District.

In his home county of Marin, Bagley polled 45,680 votes to 22,496 for Pockrus, with nearly 5,000 absentee ballots not yet included because counting of them was recessed this morning.

In Sonoma County, the totals, with all ballots counted, were 41,803 for Bagley and 27,276 for Pockrus. This gave Bagley a district total of 87,483 to 49,772, or almost two-to-one.

Bagley today expressed gratification for his support and great pleasure with the outcome generally in California.

Despite the Johnson landslide, he said, "we (the Republicans) are picking up at least three and maybe four seats in the State Assembly, some of them in districts that are up to 65 per cent Democratic. It is the greatest piece of ticket-splitting in recent history."

Bagley went on to comment that, "In every instance, our newly elected Republican assemblymen are of moderate viewpoint and so campaigned for election."

Bagley, partner in the legal firm of Bagley, Berndt and Bianchi in San Rafael, was born in Woodacre and has resided throughout his 35 years in Marin County. He was an honor graduate of University of California and its law school.

McCarthy Wins Fifth Senate Term

His district, composed solely of Marin County, gave him 42,869 votes to 27,321 for his Democratic challenger, former county supervisor Vera L. Schultz of Mill Valley, with absentee ballots yet to be counted.

McCarthy, vice president and general manager of Robert McCarthy Co., a San Rafael construction firm, took the lead as the first votes were tabulated and was never in danger throughout the counting.

"I want to express my deepest appreciation to the people of Marin County for their graciousness and confidence in my ability to serve them for the next four years," he said in a victory statement today.

McCarthy was first elected to the State Senate in 1950 to fill out the term of Thomas F. Keating, on Keating's appointment as superior court judge. He was re-elected in 1952, 1956, 1960 and yesterday.

McCarthy and his wife, Ursula, and children live at 21 Pepper Way in San Rafael.

Voters Turn Down Novato Annex Proposal

By a four-to-one majority, voters in Loma Verde and Ignacio yesterday turned down annexation to the City of Novato.

The vote, minus the absentee ballots, was: Yes, 122; No, 480.

Annexation of the areas was opposed by a "committee to continue county services," headed by Mrs. Gordon Berg. That committee put out a fact sheet and made personal calls throughout the area.

Those favoring annexation carried on a much more active campaign, putting out several fact sheets and other literature.

"Now Ignacio can remain Ignacio," said Frank Galli, the "mayor of Ignacio."

TALLY OF MARIN BALLOTING

Here is how Marin County voted, with the vote complete from all 377 precincts except for absentee ballots, as tabulated semi-officially under direction of County Clerk George H. Gnoss.

Counting of about 4,500 absentee ballots was to be completed this afternoon.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Boy Arrested In LBJ Bomb Scare

MODESTO (AP)—A 17-year-old boy was arrested in a telephone booth here last night after telling the Dallas, Tex., police he had heard there was a bomb in President Lyndon B. Johnson's house.

Dallas police said they contacted Modesto police during the course of the Modesto boy's 20 minute long-distance conversation. Modesto police, who turned the youth over to the Secret Service, declined to identify him.

Chou To Go To Moscow Summit

TOKYO (UPI)—Communist China announced today that Premier Chou En-lai will go to Moscow this week at the head of a high-level Peking delegation. He was expected to attend a Communist world summit conference in the Soviet capital.

The official Peking New China News Agency said Chou was travelling to Moscow to attend celebrations of the 47th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution beginning Saturday.

Chou will join other leaders of the world's communist nations for the anniversary celebrations.

Mars Spacecraft Shot Postponed

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—A problem with an electrical relay system in the booster rocket today forced a one-day postponement of an attempt to launch the Mariner 3 spacecraft to Mars.

The launching was rescheduled for tomorrow.

Eight Die In Fire

CHICAGO (UPI)—Eight persons, five of them members of one family, died today in a fire that swept through a four-story apartment hotel building. About 20 other persons, including two firemen, were injured in the blaze that started in a hall on the first floor and billowed smoke up to the other floors before it was brought under control.

Run Over By Truck

CASTAIC (AP) — An 18-year-old Newhall boy was killed yesterday when he was run over by a truck after his car collided with it and threw him out. William J. Conry drove across U.S. Highway 99 in front of a truck driven by Charles Raymond Combs, 50, of Stockton, police said. Combs' truck hit the right hand door of Conry's car.

Youths Charged With Attacks

OAKLAND (UPI) — Four Oakland youths were formally charged yesterday with the strongarm robberies of a 61-year-old man and a 60-year-old woman in separate attacks last Thursday.

Police identified the suspects as Reginald Williams, 18; his brother, Albert, 19; John Lee Stevenson, 18, and Darwin Weatheks, 17.

Authorities said Stanley Collins, a railroad engineer, and Mrs. Edna Jacobson, both of Oakland, were jumped by the youths just a half-hour apart. Police traced the youths from a car registration slip dropped at the scene of the Collins attack.

Child Death Cause Given

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Asphyxiation has been given as the apparent cause of death of Janet Yakushi, 3, of San Mateo.

Anthony Rohfes, investigating officer, said the mother, Chyo, informed him yesterday the child had been scalded several hours earlier when she apparently turned on the hot water while in the tub.

The coroner's office said the child apparently had suffered a stomach upset and choked.

Crash Kills Boys

RIVERTON (UPI) — Two Bay Area youths were fatally injured yesterday when their car collided head-on with another auto near here. The victims were identified as Robert J. O'Brien, 16, of Hillsborough, and John P. O'Brien, about 15, San Francisco. The California Highway Patrol said it did not know whether the two were related.

Satellite Launched

VANDENBERG AFB (AP) — A Thor-Agena satellite rocket was launched from this base yesterday. The Air Force gave no details.

State Keeps Party Ratio In Congress

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4 (UPI) — Neither democratic hopes nor republican fears came true in California today as a heavy democratic tide broke almost harmlessly on the golden state's shores.

Only one incumbent republican congressman — Rep. Pat Minor Martin — was swept out of office.

And that GOP loss was canceled out by victory for Ed Reinecke, a 40-year-old conservative businessman from the San Fernando valley.

Martin, serving his first term in congress, was knocked out by John V. Tunney, Riverside attorney and son of former heavyweight champion Gene Tunney.

As the congressional count neared the end, it appeared that a 23-15 margin for the democrats in the house delegation would remain unchanged as Ken W. Dyal, San Bernardino, held a lead in the 33rd district on the basis of slow returns.

Water District Expenses Up

Operation expenses and cost of water per customer in the North Marin County Water District have gone up over the previous fiscal year, according to a report given directors last night on the 1963-64 fiscal year.

Expenses, not including $77,465 to purchase Russian River Water, rose by $155,647. Cost to customer went from an average $27.44 a year to $28 per year.

Total revenue for the district climbed from $399,813 to $462,621 and the number of customers climed 12.6 per cent. District Manager Jerome B. Gilbert drew his figures from an audit prepared by Dalton, Graupner and Barber.

President Of Bolivia Is Ousted

Flees Country After Military Revolt Spreads

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — President Victor Paz Estonssoro was overthrown today and apparently fled the country.

He left the government palace at 8:45 a.m. with his principal aides for an unknown destination after a spreading military revolt against his regime.

There was speculation he had gone to Chile or Peru.

REVOLT LEADER

The revolt was led by Vice President Rene Barrientos, who broke with Paz Estenssoro last month after the president cracked down on antigovernment students and a revolt of tin miners in the interior.

An air force general, Barrientos led the uprising from Cochabamba, 350 miles south of La Paz. A military revolt broke out in La Paz yesterday and army units in various parts of the country rallied to the vice president.

A communique signed by the army commander, Gen. Hugo Suarez Guzma, called on the nation to remain calm.

TWO COLONELS

After Paz left, two colonels entered the government palace and said they were taking it over in the name of Gen. Alfredo Obando Candia, commander in chief of the armed forces.

Obando had called for unity of the armed forces yesterday and entered negotiations with the rebels in Cochabamba.

A final blow to the president was the rebellion of the national police in La Paz. With the president's own militia, the police had helped quell the uprising of a regiment and some air force units in the capital Tuesday.

ECONOMIC SLIDE

Military circles for several weeks had been discussing the necessity of a takeover to halt the downward economic slide of the nation and to quiet unrest.

Apparently, Paz Estenssoro had overstayed his welcome, because it was he who rammed through a constitutional amendment to permit him to run for a second successive term last May. Political opponents boycotted the election.

His election was followed by a teachers' strike for higher pay, which drew the sympathy of the students. The strike was settled but the students continued their agitation.

Leftist-led miners took up the banner of rebellion last month drawing the support of students. In a series of clashes, 17 persons were killed.

Honor Code Urged At U.C.

BERKELEY (UPI) — An honor code designed to eliminate proctoring during examinations may be in use this spring on the University of California's campus here.

Alex Sherriffs, vice counsellor in charge of student affairs, said yesterday that the adoption of such a system will be left entirely to the faculty and students.

He announced yesterday that a report on the subject will soon be released after three years of study. It will recommend that all deans and department heads be urged to promote the honor code idea.

act, passed narrowly in the closing minutes of the 1963 legislature, which outlawed racial discrimination in about 70 per cent of the housing in the state.

Going beyond simple repeal, it also assures owners "absolute discretion" to refuse to rent, lease or sell property to any person for any reason, and bars future housing discrimination statutes by either the state or local governments.

A plan for a privately operated California lottery was smashed in yesterday's election.

Proposition 16, which would have given the American Sweepstakes Corp. a state license to run a lottery was losing by better than 2-1.

At the same time the voters approved Proposition 13, which prohibits an initiative measure naming a private company to perform a public function. The measure—aimed at the lottery—held a favorable margin.

Three state bond issues totaling 790 million dollars all were approved. They included a 150-million-dollar park and recreation issue which was defeated in the first attempt two years ago. The others were a 300-million-dollar issue for colleges, prisons, mental hospitals and other state construction and 260 million dollars for state school building aid to needy local districts.

Pay-television in California went down the drain in a heavy tide of votes in favor of Proposition 15, which declares pay-TV to be against public policy.

The railroads were given a clear track to begin eliminating the third man from the cabs of diesel freight locomotives as voters approved Proposition 17, the so-called "anti-featherbedding" initiative. Ultimately it will eliminate 2,100 firemen.

In returns from 9,053 of California's 31,498 precincts, here was the vote:

Proposition 1, park bonds, 835,306 yes, 476,285 no.

Proposition 2, state construction bonds, 859,246 yes, 436,563 no.

Proposition 3, school bonds, 917,015 yes, 381,387 no.

Returns from 12,118 precincts:

Proposition 13, anti-lottery, 949,173 yes, 479,466 no.

Returns from 7,756 precincts:

Proposition 15, anti-pay television, 995,191 yes, 436,450 no.

Returns from 11,861 precincts:

Proposition 16, lottery, 465,615 yes, 1,097,735 no.

Laughlin E. Waters, chairman of Californians Against the Private Lottery Scheme, attributed defeat of the lottery in large part to the news media.

"This well-deserved defeat was accomplished largely through the marshaling of the opposition of responsible individuals and organizations who were determined that California should not become the private hunting ground of a few individuals," he said.

Here is a rundown on the other propositions, including the housing initiative:

Proposition 4, limiting the $1,000 veterans' property tax exemption to those who entered the service from California or who now have the exemption, winning by a wide margin.

Proposition 5, increasing from $5,000 to $10,000 the value of property a veteran's widow may own and still get the exemption, winning by a narrow margin.

Proposition 6, permitting California to levy a retaliatory insurance tax against firms in states which discriminate against California in taxes, winning by better than 3-1.

Proposition 7, authorizing investment of a portion of public retirement funds in common stocks, losing narrowly.

Proposition 8, declaring unopposed superior court judges automatically re-elected in large counties, losing in a close vote.

Proposition 9, requiring all counties except San Francisco to follow uniform state law in reapportioning county supervisorial districts every 10 years, winning by better than 3-1.

Proposition 10, abolishing the state school land fund, leading by a narrow margin after trailing in early returns.

Proposition 11, authorizing county officers to take over the same job for a city within the county without a vote of the people, winning by a wide margin.

Proposition 12, allowing tax relief for property owners in specified disaster areas, winning by a fairly wide margin.

Viet Rangers Overpower, Kills 56 Reds

CA MAU, South Vietnam (AP)—Fighting their way from foxhole to foxhole, 80 Vietnamese Rangers overpowered a force of Communist guerrilas yesterday and killed 56.

"This is an election day present for LBJ," said one U.S. adviser.

Ranger casualties were only one killed and 16 wounded in the three-hour assault, which apparently caught the entrenched guerrillas off guard in the hamlet of Khai Quang, 15 miles north of Ca Mau.

"Our boys wiped out 15 foxholes one by one and there were Viet Cong in all of them," said Lt. Robert F. Herrick of Alton, Ill.

The Communists attacked Khai Quang outpost Monday night and appeared to be waiting yesterday to ambush government reinforcements. But the reinforcements arrived by helicopter and not by road as the guerrillas were expecting.

Fire In Hotel

BOSTON (UPI) — A small fire broke out today in a service elevator shaft of the Somerset Hotel in the Back Bay. The hotel was crowded with election workers. Hotel officials said none of the guests was evacuated.

Police On Alert For Escapees

Marin County and other North Bay police have been alerted on two Sonoma County prison camp escapees who yesterday overpowered a sheep rancher, tied him up, took his money, some clothes, guns and faded red flatbed truck, and headed south.

The rancher, Warner Sam Brown of Cazadero, struggled free from his bonds and phoned police from a nearby ranch. The kidnaping and robbery in addition to escape, cut Brown's phone lines before they left the ranch, about a mile from the Russian River near Goat Rock.

The convicts, Harry Thais and James Howard, both 30, told Brown who they were and he later identified them from photos. They were both inmates of the San Quentin Prison Conservation Camp north of Cazadero, Thais for auto theft and narcotics possession, and Howard for first degree burglary.

They hid in Brown's barn while he was feeding some sheep, and grabbed him when he returned. They took the time to shave and eat a meal, cooked by Brown at the point of his own .20 - .30 caliber rifle and shotgun

A witness told Sonoma County sheriff's deputies he saw the men heading south on Highway 1 at about noon yesterday. Both escapees are from Southern California. The truck was still missing today.

It's No Mystery

DENVER (AP)—Detectives had no difficulty in solving a burglary. The thief had dropped an automobile payment receipt giving his name and address.

State GOP Fortunes Better Than Expected

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Running stronger than expected, Republicans today foiled a Democratic bid for a two-thirds majority in the State Assembly that would have given them control over legislative money bills.

GOP candidates knocked off two Democratic incumbent assemblymen, and Republicans appeared likely to increase the 28 seats they now hold in the lower chamber.

Veteran Democratic Assemblyman Byron Frew of Dinuba bowed to Hanford Mayor Gordon W. Duffy, while Republican Ray E. Johnson of Chico unseated Democratic incumbent Harold Booth of Orland.

All 19 state senators up for election won, and Assemblyman Gordon Cologne, Indio Republican, moved up to the vacant Senate seat. That put the upper house lineup for the session starting next Jan. 4 at 27 Democrats and 13 Republicans.

That retains two-thirds control for Democrats in the Senate.

Democrats went into the election in charge of the lower house 50-28 with two vacancies. That's four short of the majority required for approval of the budget and other appropriation bills.

They tried hard for four more seats, working to avoid the need to bargain with Republicans for budget votes and an annual partisan fight over finances.

But Republican incumbents held firm throughout the state, including several the Democrats had picked out as special targets.

Among these were Robert T. Monagan of Stockton, a leader in the Assembly Republican economy bloc.

Another was Richard Donavan, a youthful Chula Vista legislator who has criticized Democratic Governor Brown's law enforcement policies. Don Mulford of Oakland, GOP Assembly caucus chairman, also survived a Democratic challenge.

San Francisco added a Negro to its Assembly delegation, electing Democrat Willie Brown, an attorney.

Johnson Facing Tough Road Ahead

By LOUIS CASSELS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Now that he has won a four-year term in his own right, President Lyndon B. Johnson can be expected to pursue three major goals.

He will try, first of all, to maintain world peace—which he calls "the most important of all things in this nuclear age." His foreign policy will be based on the conviction that war can be avoided through patience, firmness and "steady vigilance."

His domestic programs will be aimed at realizing his vision of the "great society"—a society in which, he says, poverty and racial injustice will be eliminated, children will receive an adequate education, and old people will be assured of medical care.

Finally, he will be concerned with winning a place in history for Lyndon Baines Johnson—not as a "wheeler-dealer" politician but as a great and strong president in the tradition of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Few presidents in American history have entered upon a term of office with more impressive assets than Johnson can count today. These include 30 years of experience in public life, including 23 years in Congress; an unsurpassed mastery of the art of getting things done in a Democratic government of checks and balances, where every victory involves skillful compromise, and the popular mandate of a tremendous election victory.

But Johnson also begins his first full term with certain heavy liabilities. Foremost among them is the fact—abundantly evident during the campaign—that many Americans have misgivings about his ethical standards and moral sensitivity. These misgivings were exploited by his opponent, but they did not originate with the election campaign. They have to do with the fortune his family amassed from television and other business interests while he was holding public office. They also involve his relationships with former Senate Democratic secretary Robert G. (Bobby) Baker and other free-wheeling operators.

Another liability is that Johnson looks, talks and acts exactly as the public expects a politician to do. This is a handicap because millions of Americans instinctively distrust politicians and doubt their sincerity. Politicians who win the affection and trust of the people are usually those—like Abraham Lincoln and Dwight D. Eisenhower — whom no one ever thinks of as a politician.

How far Johnson will succeed in living down his liabilities and achieving his ambition to be a great president is the future's secret. But no one who has seen him in action during the past year, since an assassin's bullet catapulted him into the presidency, can doubt that he will address himself to the tasks ahead with incredible energy and determination.

Tunney Son Wins In Bid For House

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Democrat John V. Tunney, 30-year-old son of the former heavyweight boxing champion, was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives today.

Tunney defeated first-term Republican Rep. Patrick Minor Martin in Imperial and Riverside counties.

Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin defeated Republican Dick Wilson, making his second try for the seat.

Assemblyman Tom Bane (D-North Hollywood) was beaten by Ed Reinecke, a Tujunga Republican.

Analysis Shows Broadness Of LBJ's Appeal To All Classes

NEW YORK (AP) — Americans of all races, ethnic groups and economic levels joined to hand Lyndon B. Johnson one of the most lopsided presidential victories in history. Only the Deep South stood aside.

A study of election returns in selected precincts by NBC's Electronic Vote Analysis showed three major factors in Johnson's landslide win:

1. The so-called white backlash among ethnic groups and others upset by desegragation troubles had no significant effect.

2. As expected Johnson won 88 per cent of the Negro vote, almost 20 per cent better than the Democratic total in 1960.

3. Well-to-do persons normally found in the Republican camp voted for Johnson by the thousands. This "frontlash" of Republicans turning away from Sen. Barry Goldwater was a key factor as a Democratic presidential candidate carried large numbers of major suburban communities for the first time.

Johnson piled up increased margins over the 1960 vote for the late President John F. Kennedy in every area—and with almost every group of voters—in his unparalleled sweep of New England, the middle Atlantic states and the industrial Midwest.

He ran about 12 per cent higher than Kennedy in the big cities of these Northern areas and 16 to 17 per cent better elsewhere.

Here are some samples of his votes in the normally Republican suburban areas: in the New York City suburbs, Johnson received 59 per cent of the vote in selected precincts; in Buffalo, 66 per cent; in Pittsburgh 70 per cent; in Philadelphia 56 per cent; in Denver, 60 per cent.

His support ran strongest in the low—and middle—income segments but also sharply trimming Republican totals among high-income voters.

Even among ethnic groups, where Goldwater strategists expected a backlash to develop, Johnson showed slight gains.

A check of selected precincts showed 79 per cent of Slavic voters going Democratic, Irish voters by 85 per cent and Italian voters by 74 per cent—all up one per cent over 1960.

Doctor Campion, Roth Get Hospital Seats

Attorney Hadden W. Roth of Mill Valley and Dr. Gwendolyn Campion of San Rafael were elected yesterday over six other candidates for two seats on the Marin General Hospital District board.

Dr. Campion polled 40,835 votes and Roth, 19,546 votes. They will take office Jan. 1, 1965, replacing Charles A. Rowe and Herman Hale who did not seek re-election.

Other totals in the district election were: Forrest N. Johnson, 13,110; Charles T. Lund, 7,569; George E. Croke, 6,057; A. Bruce McKenzie, 5,222; Thomas K. Procter, 4,171, and Robert Parker, 3,871.

Dr. Campion, who has retired from medical practice, is a native of Ontario, Canada. She is a graduate of University of Toronto. She was secretary to the medical staff and head of the department of asethesiology in two San Francisco hospitals before moving to Marin.

She and her husband, Dr. Edward Campion, live at 49 Twin Oaks Avenue, San Rafael.

Roth, who served as a deputy district attorney in Marin from 1959 to 1962, is former assistant city attorney for San Rafael, Mill Valley and Sausalito. He is a partner in the firm of Bagshaw, Martinelli, Weissich and Jordan in San Rafael.

He is a native of Oakland, a graduate of University of California, Berkeley, and Hastings College of Law, San Francisco.

He and his wife, Sally, and their three children live at 10 Lyon Place, Mill Valley.

ROUNDUP

recorded in some precincts. For example, in precinct 1101 (Church of Christ in San Rafael), only five eligible voters failed to show up.

Hollywood executive George Murphy beat Sen. Pierre Salinger by a comfortable margin, and Congressman Don H. Clausen, State Sen. John F. McCarthy, and Assemblyman William T. Bagley trounced their Democratic opponents.

Marin County voters went heavily Republican, except in the presidential race.

All three state bond issues, for state parks, higher education, and school buildings, carried easily in Marin.

Despite the well-organized "No on 14" campaign in Marin, the controversial housing amendment carried by about 3,000 votes.

The lottery measure took a sound beating, by more than 30,000 votes.

Marin voters gave majorities to the three bond measures—for park lands, state building, and district schools, and to the anti-pay TV constitutional amendment.

Marin voted heavily in favor of eliminating the so-called railroad "featherbedding" practice.

In the local races, Ernest N. Kettenhofen ousted veteran William D. Fusselman as supervisor of District 2 (Ross Valley), and Thomas T. Storer pulled a surprising upset over Supervisor George H. Ludy.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker, who was nosed out in the primary by about 50 votes, came back to pull out a close victory over Mayor John F. McInnis. The count was close enough that the decision could possibly hinge on the absentee ballots.

Dr. Gwendolyn M. Campion polled more than 40,000 votes to breeze into the Marin General Hospital board, with attorney Hadden W. Roth as the second new board member.

Both countywide measures — low rent housing for elderly and the Marin Transit District — won a resounding "yes."

The annexation of Loma Verde to Novato was turned down, but the Novato-San Jose School District unification was approved handily.

Two school finance measures in Fairfax won about 3-to-1. Similar proposals had previously been turned down repeatedly.

Final Respects Paid To Astronaut Trainee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Air Force Captain Theodore C. Freeman, 24, astronaut trainee who was killed in a jet crash Sunday, was buried following graveside military services in Arlington National Cemetery today.

Marine Corps Col. John Glenn, first man to orbit the Earth, and other astronauts joined officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the Air Force in paying last respects.

False Crime Report Leads To Arrest

San Rafael police arrested Richard A. Carpenter, 19, of 260 Canal Street, Apt. 124, yesterday on charges of filing a false crime report.

Carpenter told police Monday that more than $1,000 worth of household items were stolen from his apartment and the storage room of the building where he lived. He gave them a two-page list of the items, including a tape recorder, hi-fi set, suits, shirts, four guns, luggage, a radio, a typewriter, musical instruments, skis, a chain hoist and tools.

Police Inspector Thomas Cheetham said it would have taken a truck to move the goods. He became more suspicious when Carpenter appeared to be sure of the exact location of each item before it was stolen.

After questioning neighbors, Cheetham decided that the items reported stolen may not have existed and returned to Carpenter for more intensive questioning. He eventually took a statement from the youth and booked him at county jail.

Carpenter was later released on $550 bond.

Marin's Election Quietly Routine

San Rafael police reported a quiet election except for two minor incidents yesterday.

A "Leydecker for Supervisor" sign was found on a car within 100 feet of precinct 1111 at 19 Ridgewood Drive. The car turned out to belong to Mrs. Mary Troutman of 103 Ridgewood Drive, an election official at the precinct, who quickly moved the car.

After the polls closed, the Republicans for Johnson committee headquarters at 1317 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, called police to report that someone had dumped garbage on the sidewalk and street in front of the headquarters.

San Rafael Woman Is Suing Pharmacy

A $50,000 general damage suit was filed yesterday in Marin Superior Court against Campion-Ward Prescription Pharmacy, 1350 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

The plaintiff, Vina Allen, of 230 Fairhills Drive, San Rafael, alleges that on Nov. 29, 1963, the pharmacy negligently filled a prescription with a drug called "equinal" instead of "serpisil." A a result, she alleges, she suffered aggrevation of a pre-existing high blood pressure condition which caused a serious and permanent injury.

County Housing Aid Tells Federal Pledge

Federal assistance in the development of 200 units for Marin's elderly has been promised, Omar E. McNally, chairman of the Marin County Housing Authority, told the commission yesterday.

McNally reported that, while in Washington, D.C. recently, he was informed by Commissioner Marie McGuire of the Public Housing Administration that federal assistance would be given as per 1964 approval of additional public housing units.

debtedness of the two districts failed to get the required two-thirds majority in each district. Total vote was: Yes, 4,461; No, 2,671.

In three previous elections, in which unification had to pass in each district, it lost twice in San Jose and once in Novato. In this election, a simple majority of the combined vote was all that was required because of a change in state law.

In the race for the seven-member board of trustees, only the 10 board members from the two districts were running.

It appeared today that the board will be composed of three members from the San Jose District and four from the Novato District. However, the standings were so close that the absentee ballots, especially in the San Jose District, which includes Hamilton Air Force Base, could change the membership.

Here are the standings, except the absentee votes: Daniel H. Barber (San Jose), 5,028; Mrs. Jean Ansley (San Jose), 4,669; Mrs. Leonora Dougherty (Novato), 4,611; William Vandergriff (San Jose), 4,586; Gordon M. Leathers (Novato), 4,189; Marett B. Boissevain (Novato), 4,158; William H. Kirk (Novato), 4,082; William G. Schneeflock (Novato), 4,064; James Swenson (San Jose), 3,984, and Alan M. Swabacker (San Jose) 3,984.

Three of the seven board members elected will have to run again next April, it developed today.

It had been supposed that the four receiving the highest number of votes would serve four-year terms, and the other three successful candidates would serve two-year terms.

However, E. L. Blackmore, coordinator of elementary and secondary education for the county, said a re-reading of the law and check with the county counsel showed this is not so. The top four will serve until June 30, 1937, but the next three must stand for election again next April, he said.

The board will take office and begin functioning in preparation for next school year as soon as the county superintendent of schools certifies the election results.

University Puts Century-Old Loan To Use

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Capital University has begun payment on a 113-year-old debt to Jenny Lind, the famed "Swedish Nightingale" contralto of the 19th Century.

When she came to Columbus for two concerts in November, 1851, William Reynolds, Capital's first president, persuaded her to contribute $1,500 for endowment of a Scandinavian theological professorship. Interest was to be for the benefit of needy Scandinavian students.

Board minutes indicate that $1,300 was loaned to the Seminary, which decided to appropriate the loan toward payment of $1,600 advanced to the president's salary. Now, at this late date, Capital officials feel a once-every-four-years scholarship to an entering woman vocal student would be the best way to set things straight.

Clergymen Still Fight Housing Proposition

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco religious leaders refused today to accept as final the passage of Prop. 14 that nullified the Rumford housing act.

A meeting was scheduled for Thursday by an interfaith group of clergymen to map a neighborhood drive to urge church members to rent or sell to minorities who can afford the price. The group is the Conference on Religion and Race.

that independent thinking has endorsed my efforts and my plans for the people."

The 41-year-old congressman is an insurance man, also owning a flying service in Crescent City. A native of Ferndale, Humboldt County, he was a Del Norte County supervisor for seven years.

He was first elected to Congress in a special vote in January, 1963, after the November, 1962, election resulted in a victory for Democrat Clem Miller, although he had been killed in a plane crash two weeks before the balloting.

These were the unofficial totals in the five other counties (with Clausen's vote first in each case): Sonoma, 40,889 to 31,378; Mendocino, 10,258 to 7,979; Humboldt, 23,043 to 15,613; Del Norte, 3,693 to 2,082; Napa, 17,924 to 13,255.

Median Barrier Wins State Favor

SACRAMENTO (CNS) -- The State division of highways plans to "trade property damage for lives" by increasing the use of median barriers on highways throughout California.

James E. Wilson, division traffic engineer, said today that close examination of results achieved by barriers in preventing spectacular and usually fatal head-on crashes has convinced the division of their usefulness.

Chief Owen Opens Poplar Street Span

Poplar Street Bridge, which Fire Chief Herbert Owen heroically blocked off Oct. 5 to attempt to keep easy passage for fire trucks across Tamalpais Valley, was reopened yesterday to traffic.

It was opened by Freethy Construction Co., which demolished the bridge, despite Owen's stand, to proceed with work on the Coyote Creek flood control project.

Chief Owen said today he closed the district's third fire station, which was set up Oct. 6 in an apartment house at 396 Pine Hill Road. The fireman detached from Station 1 for the 22-day period has been reunited with the department at Station 1.

Freethy opened the Main Street bridge, one block from Poplar, on Oct. 27.

Major work on the project to be done is backfill and placing a canal under Maple Street. About 3,200 yards of concrete have been placed in the channel so far. Despite three or four days' holdup by rain, "we are on schedule and hope to complete work by mid-December," said Lynn Ourso, Freethy superintendent.

In Synanon

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Richard Conte will appear in "Synanon," joining Eartha Kitt and Stella Stevens in a starring role.

Pollsters Close To Calling Percentage

NEW YORK (AP)—Political pollsters grinned broadly today as they compared their forecasts with President Lyndon B. Johnson's smashing defeat of Republican Barry Goldwater.

With 90 per cent of the nation's voting units reporting, Johnson had obtained more than 61 per cent of the popular vote, biggest popular vote margin in a presidential election since 1900 and approaching the poll forecasts.

Both the Gallup and Harris nationwide polls had predicted that Johnson would get 64 per cent; Goldwater 36 per cent.

Johnson beat the records set by Warren G. Harding in 1920 and Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1936. Harding won 60.4 per cent of the popular vote and Roosevelt 60.8 per cent.

The pollsters' success was a far cry from 1948 when President Harry Truman defeated Gov. Thomas E. Dewey with 50 per cent of the vote against Dewey's 45.6 per cent.

That year Gallup forecast that Dewey would get 49.6 per cent and Truman would get 44.6; the Crossley Poll gave Dewey 49.9 and Truman 44.9; and the Roper Poll gave Dewey 52.2 and Truman 37.3.

He Votes For First Time At 84

SAN JOSE (UPI)— Eighty-four-year-old Joseph F. Davis voted for the first time yesterday.

Until two years ago, Davis lived in Washington, D.C., where residents only received the right to vote in 1961.

Davis's first vote went to President Lyndon B. Johnson "because I think he's a nice fellow who knows what he's talking about."

Two Japanese-Americans Elected To House In Hawaii

HONOLULU (AP) — Hawaii voters chose two Americans of Japanese ancestry—one a woman—to represent them in the U.S. House of Representatives.

They are incumbent Spark Matsunaga, 47-year-old Hawaii-born lawyer, and State Sen. Patsy Takemoto Mink, the first woman of Japanese ancestry to be licensed to practice law in Hawaii and the first Nisei woman ever elected to the Hawaii legislature.

Both are Democrats.

The Harvard-educated Matsunaga, a member of the famed 100th Infantry Battalion during World War II, was re-elected without difficulty.

Mrs. Mink, 37, is the mother of a 12-year-old daughter. Her husband, John F. Mink, is a hydrologist-geologist.

Freshman Elected

Terry Craig Bower, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chet Bower, 17 Venus Court, Tiburon, has been elected freshman class president at Bob Jones University, Greenville, S.C., where he is a business administration major.

Murphy Girl Plan Wedding

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The 21-year-old daughter of former actor George Murphy picked the night of her father's tight fight with Sen. Pierre Salinger at the polls to announce her engagement to Robert William Ellis, 21, a student at the University of Colorado.

Missy Murphy and Ellis crowded into the throng gathered at her father's campaign headquarters last night to make her announcement.

Missy said she and Ellis would be married sometime in the spring.

D.C. Gets Chance To Vote —Backs Johnson By 5-To-1

WASHINGTON (AP) — It took Washington voters 164 years to get a chance to back a winner in a presidential election and they did so with a bang, giving Lyndon B. Johnson the district's three electoral votes by a better than 5-1 margin.

The president carried every one of the city's 91 precincts, besting Barry M. Goldwater by an unofficial tally of 163,746 to 27,627.

The last time residents of Washington voted in a presidential election was in 1800 when there was no District of Columbia and the city was part of Maryland. Washington's vote then went to John Adams who lost to Thomas Jefferson.

The 23rd Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, ratified in 1961, gave the presidential vote to district residents.

REPUBLICAN FRONT-RUNNER

Michigan's Gov. George Romney happily hugs his wife, Lenore, in his Detroit election headquarters last night, after handily defeating the gubernatorial bid of Congressman Neil Stabler, a long-time power in Michigan Democratic circles. Romney's win against the current of Barry Goldwater's defeat seems sure to make him a leader in reorganizing the national Republican effort, analysts agreed today. (AP Wirephoto)

LBJ Foreign Policy Handed A Mandate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Lyndon B. Johnson's victory today assured continuation of a foreign policy which seeks tension-easing agreements with communists wherever possible but remains alert against possible trickery.

It erased the fears of those Americans and foreigners who, rightly or wrongly, had felt that a Republican victory would mean a more aggressive and adventurous policy with increased peril of nuclear war.

The Democrats now have won the right to try to deal with the new challenges posed by the ouster of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and Red China's explosion of its first nuclear device.

Johnson's victory means the United States will proceed with the program of flexibility combined with firmness and military preparedness. The Democrats contend this has weakened ties within the communist camp while maintaining western strength.

The defeated Republican candidate, Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, condemned this policy as one of drift and weakness. He said it allowed the United States to be "used" by the Kremlin while Russia tried to solve its economic and political difficulties.

The president's sweeping victory gives him an unusually clear-cut mandate to continue the administration's foreign policy—the single subject on which the opposing views were most sharply drawn during the campaign.

Whatever befalls, including a political decision to widen the conflict in Vietnam, the Pentagon is ready with contingency plans and forces to carry them out.

Another politico-military problem on the immediate horizon is the European desire for wider sharing of control over nuclear weapons and the U.S. advocacy of a seaborne missile force.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara has scheduled meetings with European defense ministers on the matter.

Military May Have To Work With Tighter Purse Strings

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Johnson administration will tighten the vise on military spending, which accounts for more than half of the federal budget. But it will make no major changes in U.S. defense policies.

That was the post-election forecast today of officials already hard at work on military budget proposals for submission to Congress in January. They said there will be no loosening up on Pentagon spending. The present spending rate is 49.8 billion dollars a year and the trend is down.

But they also emphasized that there will be more than ample flexibility to meet any tough new communist moves.

More likely in the near future are new challenges in Vietnam or elsewhere in southeast Asia.

Completes Training

Pvt. Gary S. Parraga, son of Anondo O. Parraga, 5 Golden Hind Passage, Corte Madera, has completed eight weeks of military police training at the Army Training Center at Fort Gordon, Ga.

as a man thinks...

We're just beginning to realize how true it is that a man's thinking determines his life. Yet it was many years ago when the Bible proverb was written, "As he thinketh in his heart, so is he." This is one reason why prayer is so important. Prayer helps to bring our thoughts under the controlling power of God — to give us "the mind of Christ." You're invited to hear a one-hour public lecture on this subject by William Milford Correll of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. Title: "Your Thinking Determines Your Experience." Everyone is welcome.

Kennedy Brothers Both Big Winners

NEW YORK (UPI) — The familiar and apparently magic name of Kennedy was back in the forefront of Democratic Party politics today as Robert F. Kennedy celebrated a smashing victory in his first bid for elective office.

Although he was unable even to vote for himself, Kennedy convinced an overwhelming number of New York State voters that he was the right man for them—and not just a "carpetbagger" or political opportunist.

With nearly all of the state's record number of votes counted, the 38-year-old Kennedy appeared headed for a 600,000 vote plurality over his Republican opponent, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating. This would give him a greater victory in the state than that registered in 1960 by his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy, who won by 384,000.

Despite his victory, Kennedy ran far behind President Lyndon B. Johnson's record-breaking pace in the Empire State. More than one million voters in the state split their ballots to vote for Johnson and then crossed to the Republican column to vote for Senator Keating.

When Congress convenes in January there will be two Kennedys in the Senate. Robert will join his brother, Sen. Edward M. (Ted) Kennedy, who easily won re-election in Massachusetts although he was unable to campaign because of a back injury suffered in a plane accident, last June. He defeated Howard Whitmore Jr. Kennedy received 1.3 million votes to Whitmore's 459,000.

Most Of Old Cabinet Expected To Stay

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Lyndon B. Johnson may make a few changes in his cabinet, but he is expected to keep intact most of the top-level team he inherited from the late President John F. Kennedy.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon are virtually certain to stay.

Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall, Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman and Commerce Secretary Luther H. Hodges also are good bets to continue in office.

Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz could remain where he is, or he might be shifted to attorney general, a post vacated when Robert F. Kennedy resigned in August to run for the Senate in New York.

Other possibilities for attorney general include Nicholas Katzenbach, who is now acting attorney general; Abe Fortas, a Washington attorney and former assistant secretary of interior who is one of Johnson's most trusted confidantes; and Leon Jaworski, a Houston, Tex., attorney whom Johnson admires.

Should Wirtz be shifted, his replacement as labor secretary might well be William Dougherty, former head of the Letter Carriers Union and AFL-CIO vice president, who is now ambassador to Jamaica.

Dougherty also has been mentioned as a possible replacement for Postmaster General John A. Gronouski. But Gronouski did Herculean work in the campaign, trying to offset the "white backlash" among Polish-Americans and other ethnic groups.

Anthony J. Celebrezze is known to be unhappy in his job as secretary of health, education and welfare. He campaigned extensively for Johnson during the final month of the campaign but it would surprise few in the capital if he departs from the cabinet.

Among those mentioned as possible successors are a Negro —Whitney M. Young Jr., executive secretary of the National Urban League—and a woman— Mrs. Esther Peterson, now assistant secretary of labor and Johnson's special adviser on consumer affairs.

Bartenders Had To Be Patient

HAVERHILL, Mass. (UPI)—Tipplers of the 18th Century must have been a rugged breed. A 1749 cookbook owned by Miss A. C. Haynes contains this recipe for a concoction bearing the harmless name "Cinnamon Water":

"In two gallons of extraordinary brandy, steep a pound of good cinnamon bruised. Then let it lie for three or four days. Then put it into your limbeck with two quarters of cold plantain water. Draw off as much as you put in and boil up two pounds and a half of double refined sugar. When it is cold, mix all together for your use. It is a noble drink."

Pierre's Woes: Carpet-Bagging And 14

PIERRE SALINGER
Senate career short,

COMBINED AP & UPI

Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown and State Senate Leader Hugh Burns believe Sen. Pierre Salinger's campaign was hurt by the carpet-bagger issue and his stand on Proposition 14.

Salinger had been appointed by Brown to fill out the unexpired term of the late Sen. Clair Engle.

"After Bob Kennedy entered the New York race, it started talk about an outside power play and that the carpet-bagger issue was raised once again," Brown said last night.

He added that Salinger's strong stand against Proposition 14 to nullify the Rumford Housing Act which prohibited discrimination in housing hurt the Democrat at the polls yesterday.

Murphy did not make a stand on Proposition 14.

Asked whether Salinger's primary battle with Controller Alan Cranston had hurt the former White House aide's chances, Brown said, "It certainly didn't do us any good. Anytime you have a fight it hurts."

"Murphy ran a very good campaign," Brown continued. "California is a funny state. The people don't vote the parties, they vote the man."

Sen. Burns (D-Fresno), agreed last night that Kennedy's entry into the New York race may have prevented Salinger from winning.

He said almost exactly the same thing as Brown about other factors of the Senate race.

Burns, president pro tem of the State Senate and Salinger's campaign co-chairman, said he was very surprised by Republican Murphy's apparent victory and found it immensely difficult to understand in view of President Johnson's large California majority.

Horses In Comfort —$65,000 Worth

DEVON, Alta. (AP)—Tom Budd has spent $65,000 to surround his horses in comfort at his stables.

He has a mechanical barn cleaner that carries manure to a pit outside on a conveyor, water bowls which fill themselves and hay that drops directly from the loft into the stalls. He also has music piped into the barn to soothe the animals.

South Is Sending Two GOP Men To Congress

COMBINED AP & UPI

Two Southern states sent Republicans to Congress for the first time since Reconstruction days, yesterday.

They were Prentiss Walker of Mississippi and Howard (Bo) Callaway of Georgia.

Walker, 46, of Mize, beat incumbent Rep. Arthur Winstead, who has been in Congress since 1942. Walker was the lone Republican seeking office in the general election.

Callaway, 37-year-old son of a Pine Mountain textile millionaire, says one of his aims is repeal of the Civil Rights Act.

Married and the father of four, Callaway is a segregationist who made repeal of the new civil rights law a winning issue in Georgia's Third District. He defeated Democrat Garland Byrd by a margin of 9,000 votes with 115 of 160 precincts reporting.

Callaway issued a statement promising to work "for the development of a strong two-party system in Georgia."

Callaway followed the Goldwater line all the way as he stumped the West Central Georgia area.

Police Find License Plates Do Not Match

Corte Madera Police Officer Charles Brobeck last night stopped a car to check faulty taillights, and then was puzzled to find that the front license plate did not match that on the rear of the car.

The driver, Arleigh Krug, 19, of 3 Hillcrest Avenue, said he had borrowed the car from a San Rafael gas station, where he works. He said the plates on cars are often changed there because the correct plates do not have 1964 stickers, Brobeck reported.

Krug was released to his home, when it was found, for sure, that the car was not stolen, itself, but was impounded, pending an investigation of the license switches.

Magnetic Ink Pens Ire Voters

SANTA ANA (UPI)—Complaints by voters about magnetic ink pens not marking ballots stemmed "from the fact some voters did not understand how to use them," according to the district attorney's office.

"The pens were okay, it was just that the ballots were green and the magnetic ink was green," said Dist. Atty. Kenneth Williams yesterday, following receipt of the complaints.

"Some voters couldn't see the mark they made on their blalots and thought the pens were broken," he added. "But everybody who used the pen cast his vote."

Sheriff's deputies and Orange County newspapers reported their telephone switchboards were flooded with calls from voters who complained the pens were not working properly.

"The only votes that were not cast were those from anyone who might have left the polls without casting a ballot—thinking the pens were broken," Williams said.

Lillian Angle, registrar of voters, said there were "only some slight problems with the marking pens, and some running out of ink. Some of them were making dim marks."

Vandals Set Fire To Auto In San Anselmo

Vandals apparently deliberately set a fire early today in a car owned by Kenneth L. Wilson of 1045 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, but it was put out before firemen arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were watching the election results at about 1:30 a.m. when they heard screeching tires and the roar of exhaust from a car on San Anselmo Avenue. Neighbors heard the noise, too, and when they saw the car on fire, rushed to put it out with a chemical powder.

Fire Capt. John Ball identified the fluid used to set the blaze as a petroleum oil, probably a motor oil for automobiles. Police said Wilson could give them no suspects. Damage was entirely to the interior of the car, estimated at about $75 to $100.

This Lad's Logic Was Too, Too Good

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — When Danny Gibson, 9, spotted a hole in a tree, he stuck his hand inside.

"I thought there might be a squirrel in there," he told police later. He was right.

The youngster was treated for bites on his hand.

Strawberry Rec Directors Voted

A door-to-door campaign by William H. McDonough paid off yesterday in gaining him the top vote total in the Strawberry Recreation District race to elect two directors.

Voters also approved annexation of some lands in the district.

McDonough, with 462 votes, and George C. Lopes, with 384, were winners of directorships which they will take over in January.

Mrs. William R. Heick drew 357 votes, and Mrs. Charles P. Drolla, 339. The totals do not include absentee ballots.

The annexation was approved by a marginn of 807 to 248. A simple majority was needed, with residents both of the district and of the area to be annexed eligible to vote.

The annexed area includes De Silva Island, South Knoll Road and Knoll land and portions of Reed Boulevard and Belvedere Drive.

The directors elected will replace William D. Fraser, recently appointed by county supervisors to fill out the term of L. J. Smith, who moved from the district in August, and Russ R. Lloyd, who is retiring from the board.

Clinic Helps Adolescents

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Children's Hospital has a special Clinic for Adolescents which treats emotional problems as well as physical ills.

The present director, Dr. Francis Eberly, says a broken romance or bad case of acne can cause a teen-age stomach ache that is just as real as one caused by green apples or an over-age hamburger.

"They really hurt, you see," he says, "but we have no magic medicine or pill to cure them. We talk to them, explain there is nothing seriously wrong, then try to get at the root of the trouble."

The clinic has its own staff plus consulting specialists and is the largest of its kind in the Midwest.

Two Assured Seats On Park, Rec Board

A short-time incumbent and a pastor won seats on the Terra Linda Recreation and Parks District board and a second incumbent was an apparent winner in yesterday's election.

The three led the field in a seven-man race for three seats on the board.

Norman Gurin, a 42-year-old soils engineer who was appointed to the board in August, and Rev. James C. Upshaw, pastor of Christ Presbyterian Church, tied for top spot in the balloting with 777 votes each.

Herman Moss Jr., a 39-year-old transportation supervisor who was appointed to the board in August, was an apparent winner with 606 votes. This gave Moss a 75-vote lead over Martin J. Finerty, 43-year-old accountant and former controller of the district, but the absentee ballots have not been tabulated.

Mrs. Cleo D. Murray, district secretary, said she did not know how many absentee ballots were cast in the district so it could not be determined if there were enough for Finerty to overtake Moss.

Other runnersup were: Robert Clark, 42-year-old employee relations specialist, 336; Jerome H. Raube, a 33-year-old financial analyst, 249; Bernard J. Kerns, 39, sales manager for a real estate firm, 239.

The newly elected directors will begin four-year terms Jan. 1 when incumbent Gordon C. Young, who did not seek re-election, will end his term.

Robber Has Right Idea

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—A self-confessed bank robber was being questioned during his trial at Johannesburg's criminal sessions:

Prosecutor: And what did you intend doing with the money you stole?

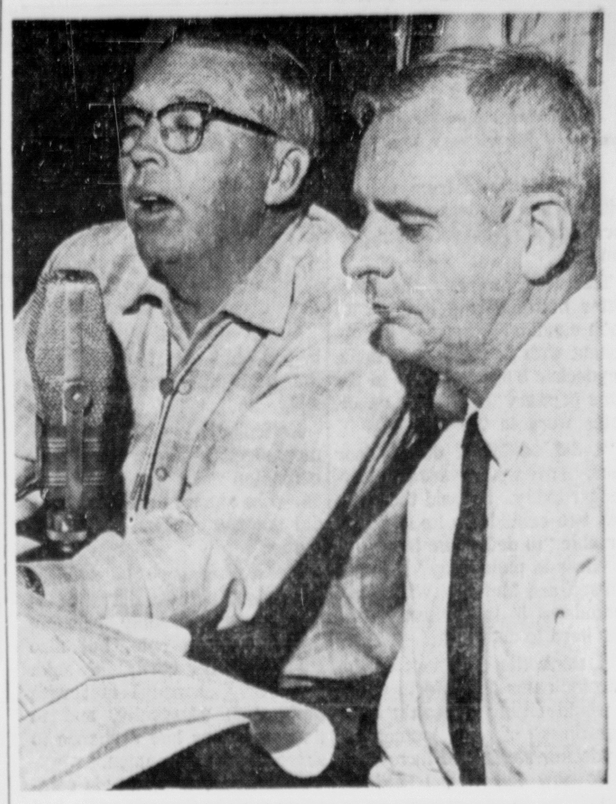

Robber: I was going to put it in a safe-deposit box.

Prosecutor: In a bank?

Robber: Yes, I thought it would be safe there.

FAIRFAX SCHOOL ISSUES VOTED

Overwhelming Approval For $500,000 Bonds And Equal Amount In State Loan Request

Fairfax voters yesterday overwhelmingly approved a $500,000 bond issue and $500,000 state loan request asked by the Fairfax School District, paving the way for relief of double sessions and purchase of a junior high school site.

The million-dollar combination passed by a vote of more than 4-1, far greater than the needed two-thirds majority. Unofficial totals (not including absentee ballots) showed the bond measure got 2,622 yes votes and only 593 no votes, while the loan passed by a 2,314 to 569 vote.

District officials immediately began working on plans for putting the money to work. Supt. Homer Sisk said the board will meet Tuesday to discuss buying four or five portable classrooms so as to end double sessions now attended by some 250 first and second graders.

They also are expected soon to authorize purchase of a 21-acre site in the area west of Oak Manor Drive and north of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

The site, which once held the old Smith Ranch dairy bar, will be earmarked first for the junior high school, but a separate elementary school is planned there also.

Two previous bond issue proposals were turned down. Sisk gave part of the credit for this election's outcome to the heavy turnout, in which more than 3,200 of the district's 3,500 registered voters cast ballots.

Another factor which aided the district was the prospect that failure of the two measures would lead to a tax hike of up to 13 cents per $100 assessed valuation in the district. This was so because the district would have contemplated turning to other means for raising funds to meet the classroom squeeze.

Sisk said he and district trustees took turns keeping track of returns at the district office until after midnight, when totals from more than half the precincts assured them of victory.

"We feel pretty good about it," he said today. "This means we can now buy this land and proceed with an orderly building program as school enrollment justifies."

Auto Stopped As Fence Hit

The Independent-Journal erred in a detail of an accident on Highway 101 near the H. H. Koch and Sons luggage factory in Corte Madera Oct. 29.

The I-J said that a car driven by Mrs. Irene Hall, 37, of House 121, Marin City, bounced back into the center lane of the southbound side of the highway after hitting the divider fence.

Police records show that Mrs. Hall's car stopped when it struck the fence, with part of its body protruding into the left lane of the highway. It was there that the two cars struck Mrs. Hall's car, not in the center lane.

No Legion Meeting

Bolinas Bay Post 572 of the American Legion did not meet last night because of the election but will meet next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the community center, according to Adjutant A. C. Pfefferkorn.

Auto Manslaughter Final Arguments Due

Prosecution and defense attorneys were to give final arguments this afternoon at the preliminary hearing of auto manslaughter and felony drunk driving charges against Thomas J. Barfield, Bolinas attorney.

Barfield, of Lauff Ranch Road, Bolinas, pleaded innocent to the charges in Santa Rosa Municipal Court Oct. 13. Highway patrol alleges he was driving the wrong way in the southbound lane of Highway 101 near Petaluma, when his car and another collided Sept. 27. A 45-year-old Santa Rosa woman was killed by the crash.

In the 1960 presidential election national level committees working for the presidential candidates reported spending more than 25 million dollars.

Two Supervisors Out; Leydecker Keeps Seat

with 168 and Leydecker with 134, for a gain of 34 votes for McInnis.

This was probably the most bitter battle of the three, with each candidate charging his opponent with lies and distortions. Leydecker trailed slightly in the June primary when three candidates were in the race.

"I did a lot of door-to-door work in my weaker areas," Leydecker today. He said that with just two candidates he was better able "to define the basic differences in philosophy" between himself and McInnis. With three candidates in the primary, this was hard to do, he said.

"I think the closeness of the vote indicates that Marin County would not have been the loser regardless of the outcome," Leydecker said. "If I have won, as it now appears, I will do everything in my power, as in the past, to provide the best possible representation."

Leydecker was appointed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown on the death of Walter R. Castro, to serve until the next election. His election yesterday is for the two years remaining of the term.

Storer declared today that hard door-to-door work throughout the vast district did much to swing the election in his favor. He said he presented a positive program. He called Ludy's campaign "negative."

Storer thanked all who had helped, and said: "I shall give the best representation I possibly can."

Kettenhofen, who won the most decisive victory, said his campaign was successful because he stuck to the issues and did not get involved in personalities.

"It was a very hard-fought campaign, but we did stick to the issues, not only bringing them to the people, but also studying them hard," he said. "At every chance I met with the people personally, and in that way, they had a chance to share in the campaign."

Fusselman, who ran his campaign mainly through radio and newspaper advertisements, did not come close to the number of public appearances made by Kettenhofen.

The two defeated supervisors will continue to serve until the end of the year. Storer and Kettenhofen will be sworn into office early in January.

At that time, the board will have another change. Salary for Marin County supervisors will go up from the present $6,000 a year to $9,600.

Pasture Area In Tiburon Is Purchased

A portion of what is called the "swayback horse pasture" in Tiburon has been bought by real estate agent Edward P. Ward of Tiburon.

The land was sold by San Rafael attorney A. E. Bagshaw and consists of .397 of an acre in a triangular shape near the State Division of Highway's building just off Tiburon boulevard.

Ward said today that, according to state highway plans, the parcel in the future would be surrounded by a four-lane highway on two sides and a two-lane road on the third side. It is zoned for agricultural use.

The entire five acres of the pasture is being considered as a school site by the Reed School district. The Reedlands Property Owners Assn. is backing a drive to buy the land to keep it for non-commercial use if the school district does not purchase it.

Ward and Bagshaw declined to say the price for which the land was sold. Ward declined to say whether he had bought the parcel for himself or for a client.

The deal was handled through Donald Geddes Realty.

U.S. Still Wants A Space Station

HOUSTON (UPI)—The U.S. Air Force, undismayed by Russia's three-man spaceship success, said today it is going ahead with plans to launch two astronauts into orbit aboard a nine-ton space station within three years.

The so-called Manned Orbital Laboratory (MOL) "is our first real opportunity to determine just where man will be most effective in the future military space role," said Air Force Col. Donald H. Heaton at the opening session of the three-day third manned space flight meeting of the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics.

Lottery Backer Blames Nevada

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rejection by California voters of Proposition 16, the proposal for a statewide lottery, drew this comment today from sponsor Robert W. Wilson:

"Just say we were beaten on this thing by the will of the people and the grasping gambling landlords of the state of Nevada."

U.S.-France Talks Sought

PARIS (UPI)—President Charles de Gaulle was reported today to be seeking top-level consultation with the United States—perhaps with President Lyndon B. Johnson—before a final decision on a multi-lateral nuclear force.

Responsible French sources said such talks also should touch on all aspects of NATO, on which the United States and France are increasingly at odds.

French officials said Johnson's landslide election victory appears to have cleared the way for the controversial U.S. proposed Multilateral-Nuclear Force. That issue is poisoning U.S.-French relations more than any other at the moment.

Jordan Proposes Reagan For GOP Governor Race

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Secretary of State Frank Jordan today suggested that actor Ronald Reagan run for California governor in 1966.

"I'd like to see Reagan run," said the 76-year-old Jordan, California's only Republican state constitutional officer.

"He makes a good appearance and talks well. I certainly don't know who else we've got. We're certainly short on talent."

Reagan helped spearhead Goldwater's presidential campaign in California.

Jordan said "Personally I can't see" Republican Sen. Thomas Kuchel running for governor in 1966. "He hasn't identified himself too closely with the republican party."

The first natural gas well was drilled in the United States in 1821 by William A. Hart at Fredonia, N.Y. The well was only 27 feet deep but it supplied the people of the town with enough gas to light their homes and businesses.

County Clerk Reports Few Vote Challenges In Marin

Marin County Clerk George H. Gnoss said today that despite a brief rash of voter challeges in Marin City's Manzanita School precinct in yesterday's general election, his office received "less than a dozen" county-wide complaints of illegal ballot-casting.

This, he said, was actually fewer than expected.

Gnoss said first such problem arose when a Mill Valley area precinct official called about 6:55 a.m. yesterday, just before opening of the polls, and said a list of several voter names had been presented for challenge.

Gnoss read the official a portion of election law provisions from the state attorney general's office stating that challenges must be supported by a "satisfactory showing" of probable cause to believe the individual is not entitled to vote.

All challenges that occurred, Gnoss said, must have been resolved at precinct level, since no "kick" was received by his office from any challenged voter.

Republican challengers appeared at the Manzanita School precinct, according to roving election inspector Hugh A. Lawrence, but at noon yesterday only three of 73 persons arriving to vote were challenged. He declined to say if these three were allowed to cast their ballots.

There were also some protests from voters who were asked to initial IBM cards at the same time they signed the voter roster.

Gnoss said he had planned to have this done to save about three weeks of work when it comes time to purge the roster of those who did not vote in yesterday's election.

However, the plan was abandoned when it was decided it would take too much time in the voting process. Some precincts went ahead and asked voters to initial the cards anyway. Since voters could not understand what they were signing, this brought some complaints, Gnoss said.

If the idea had been pursued, he estimated it would have saved about $5,000 in clerical work in purging registration lists.

Deodorizer Foe Lands In Hospital

REDWOOD CITY (UPI) — Dr. Nancy Jewell Cross, who objects to the use of chemical deodorizers in public rest rooms, was transferred yesterday from county jail to the psychiatric ward of the county hospital.

Dr. Cross, 44, a consulting chemist from Menlo Park, objects to the deodorizers on grounds that they are dangerous to health. She has been crusading against them for more than a year, during which she has been sentenced to jail several times.

The latest sentence came Monday, when she was fined $276 and ordered to spend five days in jail for disconnecting a deodorizer at the county hall of records.

Yesterday, Dr. Cross went on a hunger strike and refused to get out of her bed at the jail, authorities said.

Murphy Rides To Senate Victory Over Salinger

sider an early resignaiton from the Senate so Murphy might be appointed to the remainder of the vacant term and thus gain seniority, Salinger replied:

"I will consider an early resignation" from his brief term to give Murphy prized seniority over others elected to the Senate yesterday.

Salinger was appointed to the Senate after the death of Sen. Claire Engle last summer.

He said he will remain in California and, like all defeated candidates, will seek gainful employment.

Salinger attempted to analyze some of the factors that were decisive in his defeat. He said: "Murphy waged a very effective campaign, particularly with regard to the carpetbagger issue. As spurious as the charge was, it seemed to be his most effective issue."

The carpetbagger reference was brought up by Murphy as he criticized Salinger, a registered voter in iVrginia, for seeking office in California, where he couldn't vote for himself.

He said he also was hurt by his stand on Proposition 14. Salinger had opposed the measure, which won at the polls and will nullify California's legislation on antidiscriminating in housing

The senator also said he felt that many traditionally Republican voters cast ballots for President Johnson but felt some duty to support the Republican senatorial candidate.

He said there had been no change in his political position from the start of the campaign to its conclusion.

"What I stand for is very clear," he said. "I waged my campaign on the things I believe in."

Salinger was asked about a statement by State Sen. Hugh Burns (D-Fresno), claiming that Robert F. Kennedy's candidacy in New York might have been injurious to his campaign against Murphy.

The senator said he did not believe the carpetbagger issue in New York affected his California campaign.

In discussing the Senate race, senator-elect Murphy said he felt voters resented the "intrusion" of Salinger who had been absent from his native California for some years.

He also said that Gov. Edmund G. Brown appointment of Salinger to fill the seat left vacant by the death of Engle, "back-fired" on Salinger.

Brown generally agreed with Murphy's analysis.

"After Bob Kennedy entered the New York race, it started talk about an outside power play and that the carpetbagger issue was raised once again," Brown said last night.

He added that Salinger's strong stand against Proposition 14 to nullify the Rumford Act Housing Act which prohibited discrimination in housing hurt the Democrat at the polls yesterday.

Murphy did not make a stand on Proposition 14, which was overwhelmingly approved.

A former actor, Murphy disclosed that he received a telephone call Tuesday night from Richard M. Nixon and that he plans to go to New York and seek the former vice president's advice if his election is confirmed.

He said he would also consult with other Republican friends such as Sen. Everett Dirksen, (R-Ill.), and Sen. Karl Mundt, (R-S.D.).

Newsmen questioned Murphy about President Johnson's defeat of Sen. Barry Goldwater and he said:

"I'm extremely sorry about that," said Murphy. "Sen. Goldwater put on a great campaign but there was too much power in the present administration. I have the greatest regard and respect for Sen. Goldwater. He is a great American."

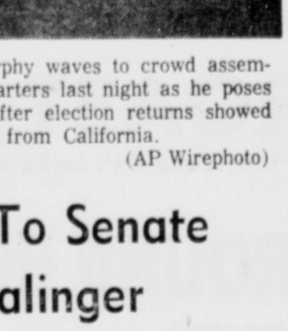

Murphy conceded he did not campaign on Goldwater's platform. "I said I would run my own campaign and I did," he explained.

In answer to a question about his political philosophy, he smiled and said, "I'm a dynamic conservative—whatever that is."

Get Dean Burch Out, GOP Leader Declares

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan Republican National Committeeman John Martin declared today that Dean Burch should resign as GOP national chairman in the wake of "the near-disaster we have just been through."

Asked who should take the lead in bringing the party back after President Lyndon B. Johnson's overwhelming defeat of Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, Martin said:

"We should start by asking Senator Goldwater to urge Dean Burch, who was chosen as chairman of the national committee at the senator's request, to resign.

"This would permit the national committee to select its own chairman who will not represent to the country the policies and programs which have been so overwhelmingly defeated in the election just completed.

Martin was reminded that it took the GOP 20 years to come back from the 1932 landslide which carried the late Franklin D. Roosevelt into office. He was asked: How formidable is the task ahead?

"The job ahead is very formidable," he replied. "We should not delude ourselves on this, but it can be done and done in the next four years if the fact is faced that a terrible mistake was made in San Francisco in departing from the principles of the 1960 platform."

He added that meetings probably would be held on state, regional and national levels to get a consensus on how to avoid "a repetition of the near-disaster we have just been through."

Martin is a staunch supporter of Michigan Gov. George Romney, who succeeded in his bid for re-election to a second term in massive vote splitting which also carried the state for President Johnson.

Romney refused to endorse the candidacy of Goldwater.

Worker Has Very Bad Day

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — "I never had a day like this one," Lawrence Jackson told his boss after returning to the city garage.

Jackson was driving an asphalt roller down a steep hill and tried to shift into a lower gear. Nothing happened.

The roller picked up speed, split a fire plug—spouting a 20-foot gusher—and sheered off a utility pole.

Later, a city truck was towing the eight-ton roller back up the hill, with Jackson again in the driver's seat. The cable snapped and the roller began moving again. Jackson finally stopped the vehicle by guiding it into a tree.

Transit District, Elderly Housing Measures Passed

Both County Proposals Get Big 'Yes' Votes In Election

Marin County voters yesterday created a transit district and gave the housing authority a green light for low-rent projects for the elderly as county Measures A and B passed handily.

Measure A, giving the Housing Authority of Marin authority to build 200 low rent units, passed by 47,774 to 18,258. Measure B, creating a transit district, passed by 52,423 to 12,495. (Absentee ballots, not heavy enough to change the outcome, are not included in these figures.)

Donald Stutsman, executive director of the Housing Authority of Marin County, said today that the first of the low rent units will probably start going up in about a year.

The housing commission will meet soon to make a formal application for federal funds, he said. Selection of sites will probably take some time. The first project, about 50 units, will be built in the San Rafael vicinity.

Construction will be financed by federal money. Eligible renters will have to be over 62 years old and have minimal assets and income.

For families of one or two persons, assets would have to be $4,000 or under and incomes of $3,700 a year or under. For families of three or four, income would have to be $3,900 or under, and for five or more, $4,200 or under. Rent would average $45 a month, Stutsman estimated.

First step in setting up a transit district will be the filing of election results with the California secretary of state. The board of supervisors, which will govern the district, must hold an organization meeting within 10 days of the filing.

Here too, one of the first steps will be application for federal funds to finance a study of transit needs. County Administrator Alan Bruce said the board will have to define clearly the aims of the study before making application.

There are two possible federal sources for the study, Bruce said. The board must decide if it wants to try for both of these or apply for only one, he explained.

The study would be aimed at an improved bus system, but might also take up hydrofoils and ferries as a means of relieving bridge traffic.

Stamps Stolen

Someone broke into 1114 Irwin Street, San Rafael, which houses several doctors' offices, stealing about $3 and some stamps last night, San Rafael police reported yesterday.

McDaniel, Tawns On Harbor Unit

Thomas R. Tawns of Stinson Beach and Gene W. McDaniel of Bolinas won the race in yesterday's election for the two seats on the Bolinas Harbor District Commission.

Tawns, the only Stinson Beach candidate, received the greatest number of votes with 261, while McDaniel, incumbent and chairman of the board, got 230.

Candidate David S. Edwards received 161; Edward G. Letter, 156, and Sander L. Sorenson, 117.

Results are complete except for absentee ballots.

How Voting Went In Other Bay Counties

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Santa Clara County voters rejected two proposals for re-arranging supervisorial districts yesterday, giving the problem back to the Board of Supervisors.

The plan that would have retained the present five-member board but have supervisors elected at large instead of by districts, lost 149,884 to 97,661.

The other proposal that would have added two new districts for a total of seven lost 154,990 to 92,627.

Supervisor board chairman, Martin J. Spangler, was re-elected to the Fifth District position, defeating Michael W. Golick 46,636 to 33,924. The Northern Santa Clara district includes Palo Alto, Sunnyvale, Los Altos, and Los Altos Hills.

The supervisor race in the Santa Clara County Second District was uncertain. Incumbent Sam P. Dellamaggiore was leading Robert M. Kaiser 24,689 to 24,123 with an undetermined number of absentee ballots still out.

The Second District includes a large portion of San Jose.

San Jose voters also approved two advisory measures calling for two waterworks companies servicing the city to begin water fluoridation. The measure passed 56,172 to 40,225.

The companies, the San Jose Waterworks Co., a private firm, and the Evergreen Water Co., a firm owned by San Jose, await word from the State Public Utilities Commission on the starting date.

In Sonoma County, Meade Fordyke and Robert E. Rath were elected supervisors by substantial margins in the Third and Fifth Districts respectively.

Both Republican incumbents —Don R. Clausen in the First Congressional district and William T. Bagley in the Seventh Assembly district—received large pluralities.

In Napa County, Democratic assemblyman Samuel R. Geddes and Pearce Young retained their seats against Republican challengers.

Incumbent Napa county supervisors Andrew G. Fagland and Gordon Eby were defeated by Jack L. Ferguson and Dewey K. Anderson respectively.

This Hunter Bags Wildcat

LIVERMORE, Ky. (AP) — Although John R. Stofer didn't bag any squirrels on his hunting trip, he's still the envy of his friends.

Stofer was sitting under a tree watching for squirrels when a large wildcat appeared 10 feet away. He downed it with one shot.

The cat, weighing 17 pounds and measuring 30 inches, was the first killed in Ohio County in years.

For Merry Men —And Pilgrims

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Robin Hood would feel right at home in one little part of the lush Cumberland National Forest. So would Miles Standish.

It's because Robin's longbow and the blunderbuss of the Pilgrims are among the weapons prescribed for hunters' use in the area.

The State Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources and the U. S. Forest Service set aside an 8,000-acre tract in the forest as a primitive weapons area.

The weapons are defined as longbows, crossbows, muzzle-loading rifles and muzzle-loading shotguns.

Soviets Relieved At Johnson's Win

LONDON (UPI)—The world generally welcomed President Lyndon B. Johnson's election victory today.

In the Soviet Union, there was outright relief. Pravda, the Soviet Communist Party newspaper, had called the election a "referendum about peace and war."

Communist China's New China News Agency broadcast no immediate reaction. But yesterday it had described Johnson and Goldwater as "jackals from the same lair."

In South Vietnam, where the United States is helping fight a bitter anti-Communist war, Johnson's victory was applauded for the most part.

West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard was the first European chief of government to cable congratulations. He expressed hope that Johnson would meet Allied European leaders soon "to discuss with them a joint course of the free nations."

French President Charles de Gaulle's government was not enthusiastic about either candidate. He expects friction in any case about the Atlantic Alliance and tariff reductions.

The new British Labor Party government welcomed the result. Prime Minister Harold Wilson is expected to be the first Western leader after the election to meet Johnson.

In the new southeast Asian federation of Malaysia, Prime Minister Tengku Abdul Rahman told the press Johnson "is a very good chap."

Philippines President Diosdado Macapagal cabled Johnson that the American people had expressed "their reaffirmation of your policy of preserving and strengthening peace and freedom anywhere in the world."

In Communist Bulgaria, the official BTA news agency said: "The American people have voted against the oppressive foreign policy offered by Goldwater, against his anti-workers and anti-social domestic policy."

Pope Paul VI cabled his congratulations to President Johnson today.

Given Huge Mandate, LBJ Calls For 'Whole' Nation

and South Carolina — for a total of 47.

There had been nothing like this since 1936 when Democrat Franklin D. Roosevelt carried all the states except Maine and Vermont.

In the popular vote Johnson was running ahead of Roosevelt. With about 93 per cent of the vote tabulated, Johnson's vote was 61.3 per cent of the total compared with 60.8 per cent given Roosevelt in 1936.

The President prepared to meet at his Texas ranch with Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, who will serve as his vice president. Johnson had high words of praise for his "happy warrior" running mate and said in a statement early today that Humphrey had made no mistakes in the long campaign.

Beaming and supremely confident throughout the election day and night of vote-counting, Johnson spoke in a 1:30 a.m. appearance today in Austin's municipal auditorium.

"I know that this is more a victory of party than of person. It is a tribute to the program that was begun by our beloved President John F. Kennedy—a program that he carried on until he was taken from us."

The 56-year-old president, who has served 354 days since the assassination of President Kennedy, said that no words were adequate "to really express the feeling of this occasion."

"Most of all," he said, "I wish to be equal to your confidence and to the hopes of all of the people of America."

"I ask all those who supported me and all those that opposed me to forget our differences, because there are many more things in America that unite us than divide us."

Johnson won his first elective White House term by battering down Republican bastions across the nation. Maine and Vermont fell in his column as did usually Republican Kansas.

Only in the South, where he lost five states, and possibly in Arizona, did his surge falter in the sweep toward the greatest presidential victory of modern times — the largest ever in terms of votes rolled up and margin over his opponent.

It lent Goldwater, the conservative who offered "a choice, not an echo," with the limited consolation of having carried Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina, and perhaps his native Arizona.

The Democrats had won 292 house seats and were leading for 2 others for an indicated total of 294 in the new congress — a gain of 37. The Republicans had captured 141 seats. The makeup of the 88th congress was 257 Democrats and 178 Republicans.

In the senate, the Democrats had taken 27 seats. Coupled with 40 holdovers, this gave them an indicated total of 67—the same number as in the last session. Republicans had won 7 seats for an indicated strength of 32.

In the 25 governorship contests, the Democrats won 17 statehouses. With their 16 holdovers, the indicated total was 33 governors—a net loss of one. Republicans won 8 of their gubernatorial races. With their 9 holdovers, their total was 17.

Swept to victory with Johnson were many a Democrat who might not otherwise have won. Among these was Robert F. Kennedy, the assassinated president's brother, who defeated veteran GOP Sen. Kenneth B. Keating.

But in California, where Sen. Pierre Salinger was seeking a full term, actor George Murphy, his Republican opponent, won.

The election left the Republicans divided and shaken after their decision in San Francisco last July to confront the voters with a conservative bearing no taint of "me-tooism," Goldwater water had offered "a choice, not an echo," and the people had rendered the most one-sided verdict since Alfred M. Landon lost to Roosevelt in 1936.

Johnson, who termed his victory a tribute to the murdered Kennedy, was now free to press forward with his promise to develop "a great society" at home and a stronger U.S. position abroad.

party of the opposition when the opposition is called for.

"There is much to be done in Vietnam, Cuba, the problem of law and order in this country, and a productive economy.

"Communism remains the No. 1 obstacle of peace and I know all America will join with you in an honest solution of these problems."

Goldwater told newsmen and a television audience he thought his role in the party would be to work with leaders in Congress and to raise funds for the party.

Goldwater said his defeat, "to some degree, although not a major degree," was caused by Republicans who would not work for the top of the ticket.

In Lockport, N.Y., Rep. William E. Miller, following the lead of his running-mate, Goldwater, today conceded his bid for the vice presidency in telegrams to President Johnson and vice-president elect Hubert H. Humphrey.

"I join with Barry Goldwater in congratulations in your victory and we in the Republican Party stand ready to help you in the tasks facing America in the next four years," Miller told newsmen.

Miller said he would return to Washington this afternoon to begin cleaning up the congressional office he has held for 14 years. He said he would leave Washington permanently after the first of the year to become a practicing attorney in Buffalo.

LBJ Wins California By A Million Votes

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—President Johnson won California's 40 electoral votes in a smashing victory over Sen. Barry Goldwater yesterday, but Republican George Murphy was elected to the U.S. Senate, upsetting the president's former press aide, Pierre Salinger.

Johnson led in California by more than one million votes.

Murphy, a former Hollywood musical star making his first bid for political office, led Salinger by nearly 200,000.

The record 7 million California voters—a 92 per cent turnout—also approved an initiative measure erasing state and local laws which ban discrimination in housing.

GOP presidential candidate Barry Goldwater, whose hopes of strong support in populous Southern California never materialized, trailed from the first returns.

Johnson put California in the Democratic presidential column for the first time since 1948, when Harry S. Truman carried the state by 18,000 votes.

While Johnson was coasting in with a comfortable margin, his former press secretary, Salinger, became a victim of the split ticket, with hundreds of thousands of Democrats deserting him for the 62-year-old Murphy.

Democrats, boasting their largest registration edge in 14 years, outnumbered California Republicans by 1.5 million.

The victory for Proposition 14 not only nullified the current law but prohibited future legislation against racial discrimination in housing.

The measure passed despite opposition of political leaders, church groups and labor unions. It was placed on the ballot by the California Real Estate Association.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown, one of the most outspoken opponents of the initiative, said, "I am disappointed but I do not regard the election as the end of California's fight against discrimination and segregation in housing."

Johnson's sweep of California included a big edge in Los Angeles County, where Goldwater had counted on breaking even, and in Alameda County, home of Goldwater's California manager, former Sen. William F. Knowland. Johnson won in every geographic section of the state except Orange County in the far south.

Save Stockpiles, Professor Urges

NEW YORK (UPI)—An expert in the economics of mineral development strongly opposes any further action by the federal government to dispose of the nation's strategic stockpile of metals.

Prof. E. W. Pehrson, of Columbia University's School of Engineering and Applied Science, says that with the mineral reserves dwindling in most of the world this country "should not deplete its stockpiles in spite of the considerable pressure that has been brought to have these metals made available to consuming industries."

His opinions were voiced at the VII International Mineral Processing Congress meeting here in observance of the 100th anniversary of mining education at Columbia University.

Democrats Slipping In Governor Lists

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Republican party was making a strong bid today to whittle down by one the large Democratic hold on the nation's governorships.

The Democrats by mid-morning had nailed down 17 gubernatorial posts of the 25 at stake. The GOP took five of the seats and had slim leads in Massachusetts, Wisconsin and Montana where final returns were late in coming in.

What earlier had appeared to be a net gain for the Democrats of two seats began to dissipate. If present trends hold true the Republicans could capture a total of 17 governorships in the 50 states with the Democrats taking 33. The present breakdown is 34-16.

The brightest spot for the Republicans was in Michigan where incumbent George Romney survived the Democratic landslide for President Lyndon B. Johnson. His reelection put him in a top spot for future presidential consideration.

Romney, who refused to endorse Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, turned back the challenge of Democratic Neil Staebler despite Johnson's more than 2-to-1 win over his Republican opponent in the Michigan balloting.

In the three close gubernatorial races, former Wisconsin Lt. Gov. Warren P. Knowles, a Republican, moved into a slight lead over Democratic incumbent John W. Reynolds.

In Massachusetts, former Gov. John A. Volpe overtook Democratic Lt. Gov. Francis X. Bellotti.

In Montana, Republican incumbent Tim M. Babcock held a slight edge over his Democratic challenger, Roland R. Renne.

Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus, Democrat, won an unprecedented sixth term, defeating Republican Winthrop Rockefeller, brother of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York. The outcome of this race was in doubt for hours.

In Illinois, the Republicans lost another future presidential possibility when Charles H. Percy, former "boy wonder" president of Bell and Howell and a political moderate, was beaten by Democratic Gov. Otto Kerner.

But in Washington State, Republican Daniel J. Evans, 38, a hard campaigning Seattle civil engineer, defeated Gov. Albert D. (Rosy) Rosellini, who was seeking a third term.

The Democratic sweep so apparent in the presidential race extended to Goldwater's home state where Democrat Samuel P. (Sam) Goddard, a Harvard-educated Tucson attorney, beat Richard Kleindienst, the pre-convention field director for the Draft Goldwater Committee. Goddard succeeds outgoing GOP Gov. Paul Fannin, who sought Goldwater's Senate seat.

Norwegians are probably the world's champion cheese consumers. They eat nearly 20 pounds a year per person.

Democrats Mark Congress Gains

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Democrats today marked up crucial and unexpected congressional gains that could make all the difference to President Lyndon B. Johnson.

In the House—main battleground on welfare and economic issues — the Johnson landslide swept Democrats to an apparent towering majority of 295 seats against the Republicans' pared-down total of 140.

This represents a possible switch of 76 votes and a net gain for the Democrats of 38 seats in the House.

In the Senate, where administration forces already had it their way, the Democrats held their own and apparently added one vote to their top-heavy 66-34 majority when Sen. Stephen Young of Ohio, after night-long vote counting, finally nosed out his GOP challenger Rep. Robert Taft Jr.

In Nevada, Republican Lt. Gov. Paul Laxalt held a hair's breadth 10-vote lead today in Nevada's see-saw U.S. Senate race with Democratic incumbent Howard Cannon, with only 65 votes not yet reported.

Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania barely edged Democratic challenger Genevieve Blatt.

The House sweep in yesterday's balloting shaped up as the broadest since 1936 when 333 Democrats rode into the office on the capacious coattails of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

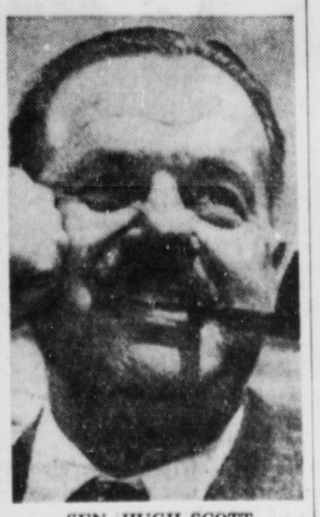

It exceeded by far the most optimistic projections of Democratic strategists who had talked hopefully of a 12 to 20 seat gain if Johnson won big.

The liberals now count on shoving through Congress — though almost surely in a sharply modified form — Johnson's stalled Medicare plan for the aged; his pump-priming plan for depressed mountain areas; his proposed increase in anti-poverty spending.

There were well-known names on both sides of the ledger.

Johnson's whopping victory in New York gave a big assist to former Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy in his bid to unseat liberal Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, who had refused to endorse GOP Presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater.

The president's long coattails also helped Democrat Joseph D. Tydings, son of the late Sen. Millard E. Tydings. He defeated veteran Sen. J. Glenn Beall (R-Md.), who was seeking a third term.

SEN. HUGH SCOTT
A bare edge

In New Mexico, Democrat Joseph M. Montoya, unseated appointed Sen. Edwin L. Mechem (R-N.M.).

Former Oklahoma football coach Bud Wilkinson also was swallowed up in the landslide. He was defeated by Democrat Fred R. Harris.

Among the Republican casualties were Texas' only two GOP House members, Reps. Bruce Alger and Ed F. Foreman.

Alabama incumbents who lost to GOP challengers were George M. Grant, Kenneth A. Roberts and George Huddleston Jr. of the opposed incumbents, only Democratic Rep. Armistead I. Selden Jr. survived. Veteran Rep. Arthur Winstead (D-Miss.) was upset by poultry farmer Prentiss Walker, the state's only GOP congressional nominee.

In Georgia, Republican Howard (Bo) Callaway defeated former Lt. Gov. Garland T. Byrd in a newly reapportioned district.

Among the other House casualties were such conservative stalwarts as Reps. Katherine St. George (R-NY), Ben Jensen (R-Iowa), Willian Van Pelt (R-Wis.), Louis H. Wyman (R-N.H.), Bill Stinson (R-Wash.), and M. G. (Gene) Snyder (R-Ky.).

When you're flying 2600 miles to New York on business, is it worth $15.80 more to fly First Class on TWA?

Your competitor thinks it is.

Since more and more businessmen are flying First Class, your rivals must be among them. They fly First Class for a very sound reason: to keep a keen edge on their business abilities when decisions are important.

The TWA First Class seat gives you extra room and privacy—to work, concentrate or relax. TWA Royal Ambassador First Class service includes delicious, course-served meals. For diversion, only TWA can show you first-run movies* in full color on a wide screen.

Just $15.80 added to the cost of Jet Coach moves you up to First Class on any TWA jet from San Francisco to New York. If your job is as important as your competitor's, it's worth it. For reservations, call TWA at 388-3723, or see your travel agent and specify TWA.

Reed School District Schedules To Change

Some school opening times in the Reed School District will be changed, due to the opening of the Granada School today and the resulting change in bus schedules.

Del Mar School, where classes have run from 8:40 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., now will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 3:15 p.m.

Third graders at Reed School, who formerly attended classes from 9:15 a.m. to 2:45 p.m., now will go from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Fourth, fifth and sixth graders at Reed School will have a time change from 9:15 a.m. - 3:45 p.m. to 9 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Bus schedules in much of the district have been revised so that there may be changes of from five to 20 minutes, district officials said, noting that new bus schedules are posted at the schools and at shopping centers.

Hospital Service Group Files For Incorporation

Incorporation papers for the Hospital Service Foundation of Marin County have been filed in Sacramento with Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan.

The foundation is a non-profit organization designed to assist Marin County patients with their hospital expenses, support medical research, provide scholarships for students in health fields, and perform similar functions, according to Dr. John C. Siemens, one of the foundation trustees.

The incorporation papers list as directors Mrs. Ursula McCarthy of San Rafael; Mrs. Helen Healy of Belvedere and Jack Craemer, of Greenbrae. Dr. Siemens said that other trustees include Dr. Carroll A. Russell of San Rafael and Mrs. Russell Smith of Ross.

He said that the foundaiton will administer funds donated through the Ross Hospital Volunteers, private donations and other sources.

The foundation's trustees will hold an organizational meeting within a few weeks to select officers, Dr. Siemans said.

The Deceased Had A Few Friends?

ALBUQUERQUE (UPI) — An unusual request—for a party after his funeral—was set forth in the will of Glenn M. Larsen, who died in a hospital here.

Larsen stipulated that one per cent of his distributable estate should be used for a party after his funeral. The item was to be considered part of the funeral expense, the will specified.

The estate was valued at approximately $30,000 in personal property and $6,000 in real estate.

Sanitary District Work Is Ordered

The Corte Madera Sanitary District board last night ordered the district's engineers, Brown and Caldwell Co., to start work on plans for the 1965 construction program, expected to cost about $50,000.

Projects proposed include a portion of the Paradise Drive interceptor sewer and replacement of sewer lines in Marina Village.

Railroad To Boost Santa Claus Project

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Pennsylvania Railroad will add 140 high speed mail cars to its fleet to help Santa Claus and Uncle Sam during the Christmas rush.

The extra cars will be rebuilt from standard freight box cars at the company's Altoona, Pa., yards. The cost was estimated at $868,000. Conversion includes installation of new wheels, steam heat lines, train communication and electrical systems.

Hawaiians Re-Elect Senator Hiram Fong

HONOLULU (UPI) — Hawaiians returned Republican Hiram Fong to the Senate yesterday.

Island voters buried Sen. Barry Goldwater under an avalanche, providing President Johnson with the widest victory margin of any state in the union, 78 to 22 per cent.

Cranston Says Primary Wounds Failed To Heal

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — State Controller Alan Cranston, who lost to Pierre Salinger in his bid for the U.S. Senate nomination, said last night "many Democrats never recovered from the primary."

Commenting on Republican George Murphy's showing against Sallinger, Cranston said: "The Democratic primary left some wounds that failed to heal."

"I did my best to heal those wounds," he added.

"When the Democratic Party is united it is able to win. But obviously the Democrats were not united. There was a substantial defection of Democrats and only a minor defection among Republicans."

Cranston said he expected to run for controller again in 1966.

Food Outlets Are Changing

NEW YORK (UPI)—A shrinking number of food stores and a growing number of restaurants are catering to the American consumer's appetite.

Food outlets, traditionally the nation's biggest retail category, are now second to eating and drinking places, according to the annual count of the retail population conducted by the Audits and Surveys Co., a marketing research firm.

There now are 1,853,530 (m) retail outlets of all kinds in the continental United States, virtually the name number as last year. However, food stores dropped two per cent from last year to 339,000 while eating and drinking places climbed to 340,950.

Tea, which today is a popular drink, at one time is believed to have been used primarily as a medicine.

Market Wipes Out Election Advance

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed irregularly lower today after wiping out an early advance on the election news.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5 million shares compared with 4.43 million Monday.

Stocks were strong in the first hour as the blue chips ran up along a broad front. Soon afterwards traders began taking profits and prices were trimmed.

In later afternoon gains of a point or better were held by such stocks as General Motors, Allied Chemical (ex-dividend), IBM and International Harvester.

Steels erased early gains and went lower. Fractional losses were posted for U.S. Steel, Bethlehem ex-dividend and Republic Steel.

Down fractionally were Douglas Aircraft, Sears, Roebeuck, Schering and American Smelting.

Ferro, which raised its quarterly dividend, was up more than 2. Gains of a point or more were held by Allied Stores, Air Control, Bigelow-Sanford, Carpenter Steel, Duplan, Emerson Electric, Upjohn and Standard Oil of California.

J. C. Penney slipped 2 points, Norfolk & Western 3. Pan American Sulphur and Singer Manufacturing were off about a point each.

Westinghouse Electric (ex-dividend) was steady and heavily traded.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were firm to a little higher. U.S. government bonds were steady.

Advances In Plane Design

LOS ANGELES —Lockheed-California Co. has announced major advances in design of its supersonic transport plane to achieve greater economy, payload and profit for airlines and reduce the sonic boom potential.

Lockheed said yesterday its ship can carry up to 250 passengers, cruise at Mach 3 (about three times the speed of sound, or about 2,000 miles per hour) and reach an above-the-weather altitude of 70,000 to 80,000 feet.

The changes were disclosed in a summary report to the Federal Aviation Agency, showing Lockheed's progress in competition with the Boeing Co. for the government's supersonic transport assignment.

Spending For Food

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The average American is expected to spend a record $407 this year on food, according to Commerce Department estimates. This would compare with $401 last year and $355 a decade ago. This year's expenditure would represent about 18.5 per cent of the average per capita disposable income.

G.M. Experimenting With Small Fuel-Cell Engine

By Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — The Country's largest automobile manufacturer, General Motors Corp., is seriously looking into the possibility of making cars without internal combustion engines.

A sizeable research effort to develop a small fuel-cell engine where the only moving parts would be some pumps and valves is in progress at the company's Allison Division in Indianapolis, Ind.

A small experimental fuel cell, using liquid lithium and a fused salt compound of chlorine, already has been operated in a laboratory for about four hours, producing three kilowatts of power.

Although that is a long way from GM's long-range goal of having a fuel cell car "engine" that would run for years and produce 150 kilowatts of electric power, the company's scientists consider it a significant step.

A fuel cell-powered car would be much cheaper to run than one using gasoline. Every 200 miles or so, fuel in the cell would have to be regenerated by simply reversing the flow of electricity through the fuel cell engine. At much less frequent intervals some of the fuel would have to be replenished.

In an interview at a recent meeting here, Dr. Bernard Agruss, who heads GM's fuel cell research, conceded that fuel cell engines still would face serious competition from both internal combustion and turbine engines, if the latter find wide acceptance.

Researchers are nevertheless enthusiastic about the use of liquid metal in fuel cells because this would enable construction of small but powerful motors.

The liquid - lithium - chlorine combination is second only to copper wire in its efficiency in conducting electricity, Dr. Agruss said. As a result of this high conductivity, fuel cells using those materials are 10 to 50 times more efficient power producers than fuel cells using hydrocarbons.

The use of hydrocarbons such as diesel oil is under consideration at the Union Carbide Corp. In a million-dollar-a-year research effort, Union Carbide scientists are investigating the possible development of a fuel cell "motor" to power jeeps and trucks. Hydrocarbon fuel cells are much bulkier than liquid-metal fuel cells.

In the G.M. program, temperatures inside the fuel cell reach 1,500 to 1,800 degrees Fahrenheit and these temperatures are maintained during the cell's operation. The fuel cell's own resistance maintains the high temperature, Dr. Agruss said. He added that while liquid metal technology is fairly well-known, a materials problem arises when liquid metals are handled in combination with fused salts. "Not many materials are able to contain them," said the scientist.

If anyone wanted to have a fuel cell engine in his car now, Dr. Arguss said, such an engine could be built but it would cost "millions of dollars."

Another problem in fuel cell research is finding electrode materials to generate electricity at sufficiently fast rates.

The principle of the fuel cell has been known for at least 150 years but research on a large scale didn't start until the 1950's. A fuel cell is simple in design and is far more efficient than a battery. It usually contains two electrodes and an electrolyte solution. Fuel is fed to the electrodes and the solution acts as a vehicle through which the current carrying electrons moves freely to and from the electrodes.

The electrochemical reaction that takes place at the electrodes produces electrical energy.

Fuel cells are gradually beginning to find applications in specialized vehicles. A fuel cell running on hydrazine and oxygen has successfully powered an experimental one-man submarine. Since fuel cells, unlike batteries require no recharging, the fuel cell doubled the sub's endurance. After 12 hours of operation a fresh supply of hydrazine and oxygen is pumped into the sub's fuel tanks in five minutes. Recharging conventional batteries would have taken eight hours.

The two-man U.S. Gemini spacecraft as well as the three-man Apollo moonship will also use fuel cells instead of conventional batteries. Liquid oxygen and liquid hydrogen will power the space-bound fuel cells, also producing potable water for the crews.

New Ruling: Not Taxable

CHICAGO (AP)—Proceeds from accident insurance policies are not taxable life insurance benefits for federal estate tax purposes, according to Commerce Clearing House, an authority on tax and business law.

The ruling by a federal appeals court reversed a 35-year tax trend. It said the proceeds of two flight insurance policies on a person's life—paid upon his death in a plane crash — were excludable from his gross estate.

The decedent had purchased the accident insurance at an airport just prior to boarding the plane and had named his wife as beneficiary. All aboard the plane were killed when it crashed into the Atlantic.

Previously the tax court said it was part of his estate.

Oil Industry Employs Many Texas Workers

DALLAS (UPI)—The oil industry in Texas employs 216,023 persons, about one out of every 17 workers in the state, statistics compiled by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Assn. show.

The Lone Star State already has produced 26.7 billion 40-gallon barrels of oil and has 18.6 billion barrels of known reserves worth more than $4 billion.

Buying Of Shoes

NEW YORK (UPI) — Nobody ever wears 1,500 shoes that are purchased here weekly. The footwear, consisting of odd lots and overstocked items, are bought at cost prices by Esquire Shoe Care Products for testing of products and for use by demonstrations of instant shoe coloring in department stores all over t hceountry and on television programs.

Policing Polls

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — Acid-proof ballot boxes, extra solid polling booths and ballots that cannot be forged are among the precautions being taken for federal elections scheduled for an unspecified date this year, election officials said.

Record Month For Air Lines

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Western Air Lines profits in August reached a record $1,816,000, or 42 cents a share — the highest month in the company's 38-year history—J. Judson Taylor, vice president and treasurer, reports.

Profits for the eight months ended Aug. 31 also set a record of $9,579,000, or $2.23 a share, compared with $6,369,000, or $1.48 per share, for the like period in 1963.

Rozelle's Lobbying In Washington Over Contract Was Big Start

Jack Hanley

(Editor's Note: This is the second of four articles on the rapid rise of Pete Rozelle from publicity man to commissioner of the National Football League).

Precisely 10 years after his graduation in 1950 from University of San Francisco, where he served as the football team's publicity director during his undergraduate days, Pete Rozelle became the compromise choice of National Football League owners to succeed the late Bert Bell as NFL commissioner.

THE THREE-YEAR contract he received for $50,000 a year called for 10 times the salary he was paid at USF where he continued as press agent following his graduation until joining the Rams in 1952 as the club's publicity director when USF abandoned football.

Rozelle always was a meticulously groomed and natty, but conservative dresser, even in his collegiate days. He always looked like a man who had stepped out of a steam bath, into a soapy shower, into a brisk massage, into a clean shave, into fresh linen and a Brooks Brothers suit.

THERE WAS no noticeable difference in his appearance after his salary suddenly soared into the upper brackets. Even his quiet manner, flavored with a savoir faire far beyond his years, remained the same. In fact, there was no change whatsoever in the young man, including a rugged individualism, as he moved into the commissioner's office where some skeptics thought he would be just window dressing for the NFL.

When Rozelle became commissioner in 1960, NFL clubs still were negotiating their own individual TV contracts. Rozelle showed them a way to get more money out of TV than they ever dreamed possible. In 1961 he negotiated a $9,300,000 two-year TV deal with CBS for all NFL games.

That meant an annual $330,000 TV cut for each club, almost double what the most successful individual clubs had been able to get for themselves in separate deals. But the joy of NFL owners was only temporary because Federal Judge Allan K. Grim nullified the $9,300,000 TV package in the spring of 1961, ruling it violated anti-trust laws.

FOR ROZELLE it was a severe setback in his first important action as NFL commissioner. He was a deeply depressed but not beaten young man the day Judge Grim made his ruling in Philadelphia.

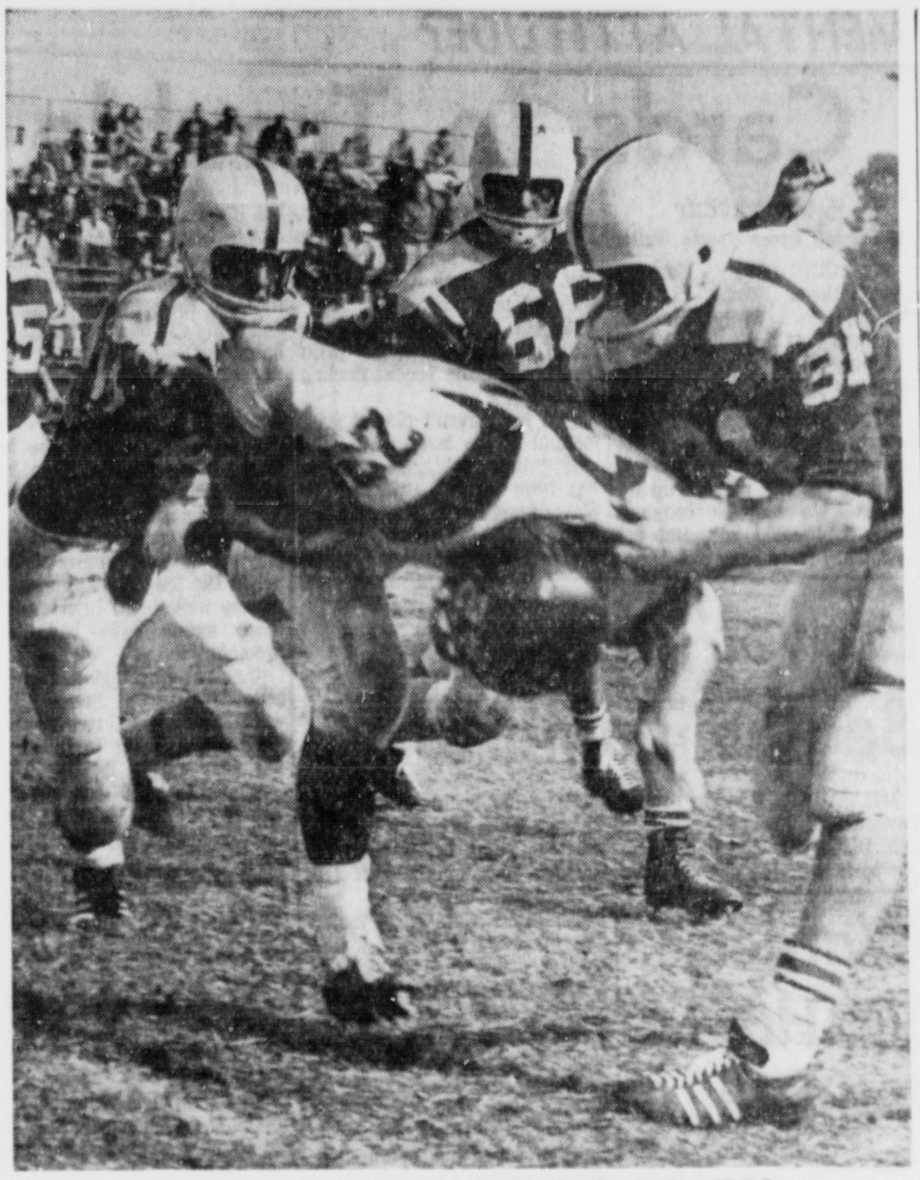

"It just means more work," said Rozelle. "Judge Grim is a fine jurist. He knows the law better than I do. An appeal would take too long and probably wouldn't change the decision. Washington is the answer."

Rozelle did go to Washington and convinced the congressional anti-trust committee that football, like baseball, should be exempted from provisions of the anti-trust law.

"THAT," ROZELLE said, "was an experience of a lifetime. The lobbying, I mean, and the testifying and trying to convince hard-nosed congressmen of the justice of our cause."

Rozelle's success in Washington prompted NFL owners to tear up his three-year contract and give him a new one for five years and $60,000 a year. They realized now that Rozelle wasn't going to be any interim commissioner. And they became convinced of that fact when two years later Rozelle got a fabulous new $28 million two-year TV pack for the NFL.

(Tomorrow: Rozelle deals with a potential scandal.)

37 Horses Killed In Race Track Blaze

Independent-Journal Sports

Wed., Nov. 4, 1964 21

LAUREL, Md. (AP) — About 37 horses valued at more than one-quarter of a million dollars were destroyed Tuesday night as fire swept through a barn at Laurel Race Course, where the Washington, D.C., International will be run next week.

John Chandler, public relations director at the track, said today that a search was still under way for some of the horses which escaped from the burning barns. He said it was impossible to determine the exact number of horses destroyed.

Chandler said all of the entries for the $150,000 International, including American horses Kelso and Gun Bow, were safe.

Fire officials were investigating today, but had no comment on the cause of the blaze.

However, two of the four trainers who lost horses in the fire said it could have been caused by arson.

Grover Delp, of Churchville, Md., who lost 30 of 32 horses he had quartered in the main barn, said either arson or a careless tossed cigarette might have been responsible.

He said he did not see how the blaze could have started from spontaneous combustion.

Trainer James Rowan of Annapolis, who lost two of five horses, agreed with Delp.

About 55 horses were quartered in the main barn where the fire started about 9:20 p.m.

There was minor damage to adjacent barns, which were evacuated, but firemen played streams of water on them to keep them from bursting into flames.

Louis Wolfe, in charge of the stable gate, said he turned in the alarm about 9:35 p.m. when one of the men from the barns came to him and said he "smelled smoke."

"The firemen were here in nothing flat, but by then the barn looked like a matchbox ablaze," he said.

Chandler said a list of the dead horses was being prepared. He also said John Schapiro, president of Laurel, would call a meeting of track and state racing officials as soon as possible to discuss the fire and the results of investigations.

No Expansion Of AFL In Immediate Future—Foss

NEW YORK (AP) — There won't be any expansion in the American Football League until the 1966 season at least, Commissioner Joe Foss said today.

Club owners in the league met here last week but details on expansion were not worked out until today.

Foss' statement follows by two days one in which the AFL increased the player limit from 34 to 36 with two additional players on the injured deferred list. The Increase becomes effective next season. The NFL has a 40-player limit.

"When the American Football League was founded, its goal was parity with the long established National Football League," said Foss in explaining the nonexpansion decision.

"Because we have only eight clubs as opposed to 14 in the NFL, parity has been more quickly obtained and now, with the increase in player limit, we should be the stronger league in 1966. Then we will again consider the question of expansion."

Foss said he had received inquiries from 28 groups in 10 cities regarding a franchise in the AFL, now in its fifth year.

TWIN DOUBLE WINNERS HIT $58,083.20

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (AP)— Three bettors each won $58,083.20 yesterday in the largest twin double payoff in the history of the Garden State race track.

One of the ticket holders, declining to identify himself, cashed his ticket. The other two had not shown late yesterday.

The jackpot was hit on Dave's Joy, $17.20; Mena's Problem, $8.80; Bess Pierre, $50, and Destiny Day, $13.60.

Marin 'Cats 'C' Cagers Win Title

Marin Catholic High School's Class C basketball team won the Marin Athletic League championship yesterday with a 39-30 triumph over second place Terra Linda in the M.C. gym.

Marin finished its season with a 9-1 league mark, compared to Terra Linda's 7-2. The Trojans have one game remaining. Leading the Wildkittens yesterday were Mark Carbone with 16 points and Harry Matsinger with 13.

Matsinger broke the Marin Catholic Class C scoring record with a season's output of 138 points, an average of 13.8 per game.

In other Class C action, Redwood beat San Rafael 46-30 on the winners' court. Bruce Meinberger with 13 points and Bill Green with 12 led the Redwood attack.

INFORMAL POW WOW

Another Baseball Meeting

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Baseball's aches and pains, regarded as the signs of a severe malady by some but only as the symptoms of a mild virus by others, will be diagnosed by major league moguls at informal meetings here starting tonight.

The gathering is so informal that officially it won't be held. But club owners, some general managers and Commissioner Ford Frick will be here.

The sessions follow similar meetings, also unofficial and semi-secret, in Pennsylvania last week.

Officially, the annual winter meetings won't be held until the last week of the month in Houston.

But it is not improbable that the Houston agenda will be hammered out here.

Some of baseball's problems are the retirement next year of Frick, without an heir apparent; the steady climb of pro football both in popularity and attendance; expansion of the two leagues to 12 clubs each; and a good look at a draft of young players along the lines of the pro football draft.

Such other knotty problems as the possible transfer of the Milwaukee Braves franchise to Atlanta and the recent sale of the New York Yankees to the Columbia Broadcasting System also may be mentioned.

There have been talks in baseball offices and dugouts all summer on the possibility of a draft of high school players and to then a subsequent draft of collegiate players to eliminate the financial drain of the present-day bonus system.

Marin Catholic QB Is Prep Of The Week

By MAURICE WEINGER

Marin Catholic quarterback Bill Shine, a one man offensive machine, has been selected by the Independent-Journal sport staff as the Prep of the Week for his fine performance in last Saturday's game against Redwood.

Shine, though his team lost to the Giants, 19-28, neverthelss did almost everything except carry the football chains on the field. He either carried or threw the ball 53 out of the team's 57 times it had the ball.

The performance was further outstanding when one looks back on the Wildcat record for the year. The team had been shutout on four straight occasions prior to last week and had gained only 47 yards on the ground plus 211 yards in the air.

Shine practically doubled the team statistics with his one game outburst. He gained 158 yards in the air and another 104 yards on the ground against a Giant eleven that had the second best pass defense record in the Marin Athletic League.

Marin coach Chuck Vaughan feels the signal caller is "a fine passer who with adequate protection would complete many more passes. He does everything for me . . . passes, punts and runs. What more can a coach ask for."

In talking to the senior QB, however, Shine gives complete credit to his teammates for last week's game. "A quarterback is only as good as his line."

Asked about this week's game against Tamalpais — the last game of the year for Marin— Shine said, "I sure would like a victory. The last time I tasted a league win was as a freshman when we played San Rafael JVs back in 1961."

Shine will also be playing basketball and baseball this season. He's a guard in the cage season and plays the outfield or pitches during the spring.

Right now Shine is undecided between attending USF or Santa Clara. His long range plan is toward law school. With a B-plus average at Marin, he'll have little trouble entering either school.

Rischer Wants Heavyweight Title Fight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—State heavyweight champion Roger Rischer is taking aim at four men who could stand between him and the world title after he squashed the rising hopes of Willie Richardson Monday night.

Tony Alongi, George Chavalo, Doug Jones and Eddie Machen, all title contenders, are obstacles for the 197-pound Rischer, "Those boys have been doing all right," he said, "but they're not going to stand there between me and a crack at the winner of the Clay-Liston fight."

Rischer scored a TKO over Richardson in the 11th round of a scheduled 12-rounder in San Jose. The Oakland boxer had predicted that he would slow Richardson by the sixth and end the fight in the 10th.

Rischer said Richardson "did not show me the proper respect."

Augie DeMilte, Rischer's manager, said yesterday that Roger is ready to fight the contenders at any time.

Smart Money Pays Just That

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — Smart Money, driven by George Phalen, took command just past the halfway mark and then breezed to a 2¾-length victory over Royal Domain in last night's feature $7,000 Invitational Pace before 20,217 at Yonkers Raceway. Time for the mile was 2:01 4/5.

The 5-year-old son of Victory Song, owned by David Handel of New York and trained by William Haughton, returned $6.90, $3.70 and $2.70.

USC Gets Ready For Stanford

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The University of Southern California football team today held "stiff" workouts on both defensive and offensive plays in preparation for their battle Saturday with the Stanford Indians.

49ers Eight-Point Underdogs To Vikes

REDWOOD CITY (UPI) — The Minnesota Vikings, with swift Tommy Mason taking over as a punt return man, are eight point favorites to knock off the San Francisco 49ers again in their rematch this Sunday at Minneapolis.

Coach Norman Van Brocklin of the Vikings assigned Mason to the spot after noting that the team's punt return average stands at a modest 8.1 yards.

Bad weather could be a factor Sunday as Minnesota has been drenched by rains in the past few days. The Vikings' attack collapsed in the mud last Sunday as the Green Bay Packers drove to a 42-13 victory.

San Francisco, playing in Baltimore, took a 37-7 whacking of its own in what coach Jack Christiansen described as "our worst offensive showing."

Kansas City Picked Over Raiders By 6

OAKLAND (UPI) — Quarterback Cotton Davidson is expected to retain his starting berth for the Oakland Raiders when they face Kansas City next Sunday even if he did have six of his passes intercepted last Sunday by the San Diego Chargers.

Coach Al Davis watched the movies yesterday of the Raiders' 31-17 defeat and noted that four of the six thefts at Davidson's expense came while he was getting the big rush from such crashers as Ernie Ladd and Earl Faison.

"It's pretty tough to get a pass off under those conditions," Davis said.

Kansas City, which used the pass to flatten Oakland, 23-9, earlier this year, has been installed a six-point favorite to do it again on the Chiefs' gridiron.

And Davidson, understudied by Tom Flores, faces another heavy rush from a defensive platoon that features E. J. Holub, Smoky Stover and Sherrill Headrick.

Davis said that he expected tackle Ken Rice, flanker Art Powell and center Jim Otto to be ready for the game despite assorted bruises picked up against San Diego.

Rendon Gets Another KO

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Lightheavyweight Lino Rendon today boasted a string of three straight knockouts following his first-round victory over Johnny Featherman last night at the Castaways Hotel.

Rendon, Las Vegas, and Featherman, Phoenix, Ariz., both weighed in at 176 but the hometown slugger played the aggressor from the opening bell. A jarring left hook and right cross combination stopped Featherman at 1:43 of the first round.

UCLA-Air Force Clash Saturday

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The UCLA Bruins today concentrated primarily on defense plays in hopes of stopping a deadly mobile offense of the Air Force when they meet Saturady in the Coliseum.

Coach Bill Barnes said his team looked good yesterday during drills in which the squad executed the combination plays used last week in coming from behind to upset the California Bears, 25-21.

Barnes said the Bruins were in top shape for their contest with the Falcons who have lost three of their last four games.

MENTAL ATTITUDE?

Cards In Trouble

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Early in the National Football League season, Coach Wally Lemm of the St. Louis Cardinals looked at coaching as 100 per cent easier than last year.

"The victories mean more now because we're a contend-, er," he said then. "We used to have to get the players up for games. We had to convince them they could win. But not now. They know they can."

But that was in September. Things have changed. At a weekly press luncheon yesterday. Lemm was a man faced with old problems.

He sat dejectedly, declining food, and talked with grim frankness of the recent decline of his team.

"We just haven't played good football in the last month," he said. "And the biggest problem has been mental attitude. The players just haven't been hitting hard.

"I can't put my finger on it, but it's the bane of any football coach when he can't get his team up mentally for a game."

The Cardinals, after winning three of their first four games and tying the fourth, were clobbered by Baltimore. Since then, they barely beat Washington and lost to Dallas and New York.

The three defeats in the last four games dropped them two games behind Cleveland, leader in the Eastern Division.

"I know we've got good ball players, as good as any personnel in the league," Lemm said. "Sure, we've had injuries, but other teams have had their problems, too.

"Look at Washington. They've been down in the dumps. They were losing and rumors had their coach going to be fired. But they never let up. They continued to go all out and now they've started winning and have a chance to finish pretty good."

The Cardinals return home Sunday against the Pittsburgh Steelers. A defeat could plummet them almost out of contention.

"This week, we've got to know if we've got it. We've got to meet this thing head on. This is a make-or-break week.

"I let the players know how I felt in the clubhouse after we lost to New York last Sunday. Now it's up to them."

Braves' Hearing Begins Tomorrow

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Braves have stated in briefs filed in U.S. District Court that the major portion of the corporation's business has been transacted in Chicago since Oct. 5, while Milwaukee County briefs term the Chicago operation an "off season executive office."

The briefs were filed yesterday in preparation for tomorrow's hearing when Judge Robert E. Tehan is to decide on jurisdiction of the county's legal action to block the baseball club's proposed move to Atlanta, Ga.

The county said it was "almost inconceivable" that a corporation which has operated in Milwaukee for 13 years could transfer its principal place of business to Chicago in four days.

The Braves stated that except for some minor concessions and caretaker operations, the corporation has performed its entire business in Chicago since the Oct. 5 date.

On Oct. 21, in a Chicago meeting, the club's board of directors voted to request permission to move to Atlanta. That same day the county obtained a state circuit court restraining order in an attempt to prevent the move.

The order blocked the request to move which the Braves had planned to make at an Oct. 22 meeting of National League owners in New York City.

The Braves petitioned the Federal Court ot accept jurisdiction of the legal action on Oct. 26 and two days later, the county moved to have the case returned to Circuit Court.

The county noted in its briefs yesterday that the Braves applied to the Illinois Secretary of State's office on Oct. 19 for authority to transact business in that state.

Warriors Vs. Hawks Tonight

Bob Pettit, nearing the 20,000th point of his career, lead the St. Louis Hawks into the S.F. Civic Auditorium tonight for an NBA game with the slow-starting San Francisco Warriors.

The great Hawks gunner goes into the contest with a lifetime total of 19,925 points and will be facing Wilt Chamberlain, who is back in action again after being sidelined by a stomach ailment.

"Wilty" put away 17 points on Halloween night to mark his first appearance of the season for the Warriors but they lost anyway to Baltimore, 102-98, and now have dropped five of their first six games.

They face virtually the same Hawks team which they defeated for the Western Division crown last April in a seven-game grind. Two Hawks rookies are Paul Silas of Creighton and Jeff Mullins, the Duke star who played with the victorious U. S. Olympic cagers.

Guy Rodgers, the Warriors' play-making guard, needs 16 points more to bring his lifetime pro total to 5,000.

Mustachio Wins Feature Race

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP) — Mustachio outdueled First Promoter yesterday in a long stretch drive to score a narrow head victory in the featured Election Day purse at Bay Meadows Race Track.

Jeff's Fury finished third in the field of seven for the six furlong sprint.

Mustachio and First Promoter circled the stretch drive on even terms and raced as a team to the wire, with Mustachio getting the better of the hot contest.

Time for he six panels was 1:12 3-5 over a muddy racing strip. Mustachio, with Miguel Yanez riding, paid $11.20, $5.40 and $3.40. First Promoter paid $4.40 and $3.00 and Jeff's Fury paid $2.60.

High-Flying Buffalo Bills Top AFL Team Statistics

NEW YOR K (AP) — The Buffalo Bills, whose idea of how to play football is grind it out but don't give anything out, are the only undefeated and untied team in pro football. The American Football League's statistics show why.

In the team offense and defense figures released today, the Bills are No. 1 in all but one of the major categories and a very good second in that one.

With big Cookie Gilchrist showing the way, Buffalo has the best AFL running attack, averaging 165.7 yards per game and 4.5 yards per attempt. Add to the 1,326 yards the Bills have gained by rushing, a total of 1,980 yards on 120 completed passes and you get 3,306 yards and an impressive average of 413.2 yards per game.

The Oakland Raiders are first in passing offense with 2,170 yards on 151 completions, averaging 271.2 yards a game. That gives them second in total offense with a 361.6 yards per game.

On defense Buffalo has yielded only 2,134-yards in eight games — 632 by rushing and 1,502 by passing for an over-all average of 266.7 yards per game. They're first all the way. In addition, the Bills have been penalized only 23 times for 233 yards, another No. 1 figure.

Only in a couple of places can the Bills be faulted. They have fumbled 15 times and lost seven of them. Their pass completion percentage is next-to-lowest and their percentage of interceptions is the highest.

Philadelphia Voters Approve New Stadium

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia voters have approved a $25 million bond issue for construction of a sports stadium in south Philadelphia to be used by the Philadelphia Phillies' National League baseball team and the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

Complete but unofficial returns showed 238,023 voting yes for the stadium, while 195,807 voted no.

The Phillies and Eagles had previously agreed to 30-year leases for the proposed 60,000-seat stadium, but insisted on a clause giving them exclusive rights to the new stadium.

Mayor James H.J. Tate has said that since the stadium would be publicly owned, he doubted that such a clause could be part of any lease. He has turned the problem over to the city solicitor for a ruling.

Dark May Join Cubs As Coach

CHICAGO (AP)—Al Dark, fired as manager of the San Francisco Giants, may join the Chicago Cubs next year as a coach, Owner P. K. Wrigley indicated yesterday.

Wrigley, denying an extensive shakeup in the Cubs' operations may be in the making, said:

"Dark has been in touch with us. However, if he should return to the Cubs it would be as coach. We would like to have him but he's still looking for a manager's job elsewhere."

Dark played third base for the Cubs in 1959-1960.

STATISTICS DON'T SHOW THE LEADERS

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Oregon State and UCLA top the Pacific Athletic Conference race for the Rose Bowl, but you'd never know it by looking at the team statistics.

Oregon State leads only in pass defense, with a yield of 89 yards per game. UCLA does not lead in any category.

Southern California is tops in offense (342 yards per game) and defense (238). Washington State has rushed for 226 yards per game and Washington has surrendered only 81 per contest.

California, led by Craig Morton, is the top passing team with 218 per contest.

Bill Casper Wins Thrilling Almaden Golf Tournament

Defeats Brown On Third Hole Of Playoffs

SAN JOSE (UPI) — It took 93 holes to do it, but big Bill Casper, one of the world's greatest golfers, finally disposed of upstart Pete Brown to win the Almaden Open golf championship yesterday.

As golf tournaments go, the $25,000 Almaden isn't much of a challenge on the PGA tour.

"But I played 21 holes of the greatest golf of my life in the playoff to win it," said Casper, "and I had to beat Brown. I hit all 21 greens in regulation figures or better. I can't play any better than that."

Actually, Jerry Steelsmith was involved in the three-way playoff. But Jerry bowed out of the competition early as Brown and Casper started knocking in the birdie putts.

After 18 holes, Brown and Casper each had four-under-par 68. Steelsmith was on the sidelines with a 73.

The real drama started on the 18th hole. Brown and Casper came up to that one all square. Casper hit his tee shot down the middle, but powerful Pete pushed his to the base of a tree.

But Brown sliced a shot around the tree — too strong, clear over the green. His chip back was short and he left himself a 15 foot putt. Meanwhile, Casper was on in two and down in two for his par.

Sunday Pete missed a six-footer on the final hole that would have won the tournament. This time he knocked the ball squarely into the cup.

They halved the first extra hole when their birdie putts rimmed the hole. Then on the second extra, Brown was in trouble. He missed the green and chipped 11 feet past. Meanwhile, Casper, playing like a machine, was on in two, down in two. Once again the pressure was on — and Brown knocked the ball in the hole.

"I thought that when Pete made his big putt on the 18th he'd win the match," said Casper. "And when he knocked in that one on the second extra, I was sure I'd lose it."

But Casper smoked in a seven-iron six feet from the pin on the 21st hole and knocked in the putt to close out the match.

Noted as one of the world's greatest putters, he left the ball short of the cup, dead for the center, 10 times during the day.

The victory was worth $3,300 and brought his earnings for the year to $90,653 — third on the money list behind Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus.

Brown and Steelsmith split second and third money, each getting $1,900.

Irish Picked Again

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (AP) —Getting 69.5 per cent of the votes will win you many an election. But that kind of an average in football picking merely proves you have been in Tokyo for five weeks because of the Olympics.

Last week's gridiron gymnastics found 39 correct selections and 16 incorrect ones for a .709 mean. That brought the season's figures to 258-111 for .695.

Here are this week's vote-getters:

Alabama over Louisiana State—This could be the best team ever produced by Coach Bear Bryant of Alabama, and he has been in the business since World War II. David Ray too versatile.

Notre Dame over Pittsburgh—Everyone is raving about the Notre Dame passing attack of John Huarte to Jack Snow but did you know that the Irish defense this season has limited six foes to a total of five touchdowns?

Ohio State over Penn State—Normally the Buckeyes don't concentrate on non-Big Ten foes, but with an unbeaten season in prospect they'll grind down the sub-par Nittany Lions.

Arkansas over Rice—The Owl offense has come apart and should be further blunted by the unbeaten Arkansas array.

Oregon State over Indiana—The home field gives the West Coast leaders a narrow edge.

Nebraska over Kansas—Despite the heroics of Kansas' Gale Sayers, the defensive-minded Huskers will extend their winning streak to 15.

Syracuse over Army—Floyd Little will run the Cadets ragged in this one.

Michigan over Illinois—Coach Bump Elliott of Michigan, usually beats brother Pete, coach of Illinois, and there is no indication of a change in the script.

Texas over Baylor—Ernie Koy and the strong Texas defense will prove too much.

Princeton over Harvard—The final Big Three round-robin starts for Princeton's great fullback, Cosmo Iacavazzi.

Purdue over Michigan State—The Boilermaker sophomores have become of age.

Georgia Tech over Tennessee—However, Tech must stop thinking about the Alabama game a week away.

FRIDAY NIGHT

Tulsa's Jerry Rhome Wins Back Of Week Honor Again

By BOB HARING
Associated Press Sports Writer

TULSA, Okla. (AP) —A good receiver is a passer's best friend and Jerry Rhome has a lot of good friends.

Rhome, the University of Tulsa's quarterback and Associated Press Back of the Week for the second time this season, has plenty of talented catchers for his passes.

Last Saturday, they grabbed 35 of 43 he put up giving him 488 passing yards and 504 yards in total offense as Tulsa blitzed Oklahoma State 61-14. That gave him three more major collegiate one-game records — most completions, most passing yardage and most total offense yardage.

An earlier Rhome record — seven touchdown passes in one game — led to his first selection as AP's Back of the Week two weeks ago.

Rhome gives plenty of credit to his receivers, but added, "Those blockers are just as good friends."

He's especially high on the "awfully fine blockers" in the backfield, Bob Daugherty and Bill Goods, who double as Tulsa's runners.

Rhome's receivers are mostly smaller guys — led by 5-foot 10 Howard Twilley — but he says they're so good all he has to do is get the ball to them.

He does that so successfully he's had only four interceptions out of 204 passes this year and has thrown more than 70 straight times without losing one.

Of Twilley, who has caught 57 passes for 716 yards and eight touchdowns, Rhome says, "I wouldn't trade him for anybody. He has great timing. I don't believe he's missed four passes all year that he's been close to."

If defenses concentrate on Twilley, Rhome has several other choices. Even Mark Maddox, who isn't a prime target as tight end in Tulsa's pro-style offense, has caught 10 passes for 110 yards and three touchdowns.

Rhome seems certain to set at least one more record Saturday against Memphis State. He needs only two completions to break the career record of 386 — and nobody has ever held Rhome and his friends to just two completions.

But he's not the only Tulsan with a chance at records. Twilley needs only 14 more catches for 292 yards to break the receiving marks of 70 passes for 1,007 yards set last year by Baylor's Larry Elkins.

2 Marinites Included In UOP Fete

George Corson, athletic director at Drake High School, and Carl S. Brown, secretary-manager of Associated Home Builders Inc., in San Rafael, will be among those honored at halftime ceremonies in the game Saturday between University of Santa Clara.

Corson, of San Anselmo, and Brown, of San Rafael, were members of the celebrated 1934 Pacific team. That team will be honored at Saturday's homecoming game in Stockton, and will pay tribute to Chris Kjeldsen, a member of the squad and a Pacific coach for 26 years.

The '34 team is considered among the best in Pacific's grid history. Under the coaching of the famed Amos Alonzo Stagg, the Tigers made the west coast sit up and take notice when they played a giant killing schedule and lost only to California, 7-6, and USC, 6-0. Up to that point, the Stockton eleven was considered small time in football.

Mill Valley Golf Finals Slated

Chet Howett, Pete Tibbetts, Lou Long, George Davenport and Frank Evansco will be competing for the Director's Cup next Sunday at the Mill Valley Golf Club.

Each of the five already has won a trophy for winning in flights one through five. The five golfers will be competing with full handicaps.

Las Gallinas Golf Winners

Winners in the Samuels Tournament held yesterday at the Las Gallinas Women's Golf Club were:

Class A—Mrs. Berridge Marsh, 69-10—59; Mrs. Louis Garat, 72-10—62.

Class B—Mrs. Kenneth Crawford, 73-18—55; Mrs. Kenneth Ross, 80-18—62.

Class C — Mrs. Charles Wagner, 81-20—61; Mrs. Frank Martin, 82-20—62.

1964 Deer Kill For Marin Is Down

The deer kill for Marin County was down slightly from the 1963 kill, according to figures released by the California State Department of Fish and Game.

Some 574 deer were bagged in Marin County this year in the early deer season, compared to 673 in 1963. The archery will for Marin County was the same each year, four.

Julie Andrews Delighted Over Her First Non-Singing Role

NEW YORK (UPI) — Julie Andrews declares she wasn't terribly upset when the stage role she'd made famous in "My Fair Lady" went to Audrey Hepburn in the movie version.

She declares further she wishes people would quit asking her reaction.

"I knew Audrey was up for it," said Miss Andrews of the Eliza Doolittle role. "I didn't feel badly, I wasn't terribly upset.

"I'd already had a crack at the role for three and one-half years on stage."

And not getting the movie bid proved to be "The best ill wind that ever blew," said Miss Andrews.

JULIE ANDREWS

FOR INSTEAD of MFL, she went into Walt Disney's "Mary Poppins," a widely praised hit, did her first non-singing role in "The Americanization of Emily," which one New York critic said gave the actress "a chance to prove herself irresistible in straight romantic comedy," and is starred in the upcoming film version of the Broadway musical "Sound of Music."

(Wonder how Mary Martin, who starred in the stage version, feels about Miss Andrews replacing her?)

Miss Andrews was in Manhattan for the premiere of her second film. As she opened the door into the living room for an interview, she picked up a telegram shoved under it.

She read the wire aloud and broke into laughter. It was signed by Mrs. George P. Skouras and asked Miss Andrews if she would lend her presence to a benefit premiere of MFL in Philadelphia!

MISS ANDREWS said she hasn't seen the movie Eliza yet because she's been on a national tour to tout her own films.

The actress-singer, born at Walton-on-the-Thames about 20 miles south of London, grew up as familiar with backstage as most children are with backyard. Her mother, a talented pianist, accompanied Julie's step-father in a vaudeville act which took them throughout England. Her father's vocal coach also was hers and she still works with the coach when in London.

Miss Andrews made her debut at the London Hippodrome when she was 12.

REVUES, CONCERT TOURS, radio and television followed. Her Broadway debut was the lead in "The Boy Friend," and from it she won the MFL role. Miss Andrews played Eliza two years on Broadway and another year and one-half in London, then returned to New York to do "Camelot" opposite Richard Burton and Robert Goulet.

FIVE YEARS AGO, Miss Andrews married her childhood sweetheart, Tony Walton, an artist and scenic designer, and the couple has a blonde daughter, Emma Kate, going on two.

Miss Andrews is a slim, five feet seven inches, wears her brown hair in a short, boyish cut currently, and confesses she once thought "I ought to do something" about a nose so definitely turned up.

"BUT TONY said nothing doing. Mine was the only nose on stage that didn't fade into the scenery," she laughed.

She said the "film bit is all so new I don't feel like a star, but I enjoy the fact everyone thinks I am.

"I don't live like a movie star," said Miss Andrews. "We hate the constant partying thing, except when we give a real swinger of our own. But I don't think the real stars do all that partying, do you?"

The star traveling with retinue isn't for her either.

SHE SAID the ironing board standing in one corner of the elegant suite was "So I can press the dress I'm wearing to the premiere tonight."

Style Show To Follow Luncheon

Welcome Wagon members will model in a fashion show after a luncheon at noon Tuesday at the Alta Mira Hotel in Sausalito.

Modeling in the show are Mesdames Philip Strick, Jay Solem, Daryl Lawhern, Theron Maland, Melrose Malloy and James Huckins.

Proceeds will benefit the Kindergarten for Mentally Retarded Children in Santa Venetia.

Assisting with the affair are Mesdames Norbert Noble and George Bradford, luncheon cochairmen; Richard Berryman, commentator; E. J. Wasp, models; Sam Smickler, decorations; and Norbert Mages, Charles Russell and William Conrad, tickets.

A get acquainted hour for new residents will precede the luncheon.

DESTINATION UNKNOWN

Club Plans Apron Lunch On Nov. 17

The Corte Madera Women's Club will have an apron luncheon on Nov. 17 at the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

Judges for the event, which will get underway with a social hour at noon, will be Mrs. M. B. Cooper of San Francisco and Mrs. Howard Dahlgren of Vacaville.

Mrs. Frank Wesel is chairman of the event where the admission will be a handmade apron. Prizes will be given for the prettiest, most original and most practical.

Mrs. George Entwistle is reservations chairman.

Sausalito Club Drafts By-Laws For Legislation

The first meeting to form a Legislative Council in Marin was held at the clubhouse of the Sausalito Woman's Club. The aims and purposes of the council will be to study legislation and problems at the county level. The organization will be similar to the San Francisco Woman's Legislative Council founded in 1913. The membership of the local federated woman's clubs will form the nucleus of the organization.

A committee was appointed to draft by-laws which will be presented at the next meeting on Nov. 13, at 10:30 a.m., at the clubhouse of the Sausalito Woman's Club at 120 Central Ave. Those women who are interested in the better understanding and the study of the vital questions of the day are invited to attend the next meeting.

Women To Mark World Community Day In Novato

The Nova Loma Council of United Churchwomen of North Marin will commemorate World Community Day at the Novato Presbyterian Church at 9:30 a.m. Friday.

The council includes women from the Bethel Baptist Church and First Baptist Church of Novato, Novato Community Methodist Church, Novato Presbyterian Church, Loma Verde Community Church, Protestant Chapel at Hamilton Air Force Base and St. Francis Episcopal Church in Novato.

The registration and coffee period will be followed by a business meeting, installation of officers and dedication of gifts, which the women have been making.

The gifts are school bags filled with school supplies for children of Africa and Brazil. The Church World Service Center will distribute the material aid to areas of need in the countries.

The Rev. Donald H. Baldwin of the San Rafael First Methodist Church will speak on "Nations In Community."

Lets Mom Send Talking Letters

Also ideal for the family to give itself for Christmas, or anytime, a new Stereo Sound Center, incorporating stereo phonograph, AM/FM-FM stereo tuner and stereo tape deck. The tape deck will help the student improve his French accent; the thespian to rehearse by himself or hear the greats of the theater; let Mom send talking letters to family and friends away from home; help Dad rehearse speeches, get business ideas down while they are fresh. Transistorized, with an 8-speaker sound system, it comes in a handsome, long and low walnut veneered console.

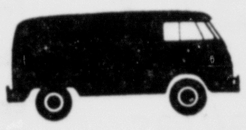

Dorcas Society Plans Bazaar

The Christmas Bazaar given by the Dorcas Society of the Fairfax Community will be held on Nov. 10 in Burgar Hall at the church.

A buffet salad luncheon will begin at noon with cards and a silent auction held later. Mrs. Thomas Teare is general chairman and Mrs. Charles Campbell is luncheon chairman.

University Students Outgrow Furniture

CHICAGO (UPI) — College students are getting too big for their dormitory furniture.

"The fact is that college students are bigger than they used to be—and not just the football and basketball squads, either," says Manfred Steinfeld, head of a manufacturer of dormitory furniture.

"Today everybody in the business of providing furniture for college dormitories has to make the furniture bigger — because the students are," he said. "Kids today are both broader and taller."

Many college rooms are supplied with 7-foot beds, taller bookshelves and wider chairs.

The general population is reaching new heights, too. The U.S. Department of Agriculture recently stated that American men today are 4 to 14 pounds heavier and 2 inches taller than their fathers.

The U.S. Army makes its pants broader in the beam, and longer as well. Theater seats have gradually inched up from 18 inches 35 years ago to 22 today. The Chicago Transit Authority's newest batch of Diesel buses came with bigger seats.

Even a typical 13-year-old boy today is too big to fit into a medieval suit of armor.

Mary Louise Benson Wed In Colorado Ceremony

Ascension Lutheran Church in Littleton, Colo., was the setting for the wedding of Mary Louise Benson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin N. Benson Sr. of Greenbrae, and Dr. James Farwell Munn of Littleton, Colo., at 6 p.m. on Oct. 12.

The Rev. Leslie Ludwig officiated at the ceremony in which the bride wore a blue wool suit. Mrs. Sylvia Robinson of Denver, Colo., was matron of honor and Dr. James Roderick McDonald, also of Denver, served as best man.

Marie Louise attended Dominican Upper School and was graduated from San Jose State College with a bachelor of arts degree in education. She is the sister of Edwin N. Benson Jr. of Greenbrae.

James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey T. Munn of Tucson, Ariz., and the brother of Dr. Henry L. Munn of Northridge. He was graduated from Colorado State University with a degree in veterinary medicine.

Don't Shun Bread

Don't shun bread and cereals in the diet because you think they contain only calories. Cereals provide more than a third of the thiamine, a fourth of the niacin, iron and calories and a fifth of the protein in average U.S. diets, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Clothing Drive Opens On Nov. 14

A group of Marin high school girls will carry on a door-to-door clothing and small appliance drive for Goodwill Industries' emotionally disturbed teen-ager program Nov. 14.

The girls, organized in each school in the county, will collect repairable clothing and small appliances to give on-the-job training to the disturbed youngsters during Christmas vacation.

RHODODENDRONS

A new variety of great beauty that has immense blooms of fluorescent rich deep pink, deep green foliage, round compact growing habit to 5' is now available here. Another has a compact upright truss, up to 11" wide, 14" tall with blooms up to 5" in diameter, color pink spotted crimson red in throat. A new pure deep yellow with no spots or shading is a low spreading grower to 4'. An apricot-salmon variety has a deeper color in throat shading to light pink on edges. ALLEGRO is chrome-yellow and pink, suffused brick red with 4" blooms. A deep crimson red is a heavy bloomer and long lasting, will take full sun in this area. Matador, from the Exbury Gardens is a rich orange-red now starting to bloom and continuing through the winter. Olympic Lady is a new dwarf in white, resembles Bowbells with larger blooms. There are many others. Consultations and advise with on the spot, soil, exposure and orientation available.

Two Cadets From Marin Are Promoted

Two Marin County boys were among 70 cadets at the San Rafael Military Academy promoted to new ranks at the end of the first grading period, it was announced today.

Gerald Cross, son of Mrs. Arthur A. Cross of 5 Tarrant Court, San Rafael, and Grant Tanner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Tanner of 45 Hickory Avenue, Corte Madera, were promoted to sergeant first class.

Cadets achieving the rank of lieutenant were Rodney Goodwin, Mark Jory, Jack Koschalf, Jeffrey Lincoln, John McGowan and Roger Ulrich.

Holding the rank of sergeant first class are Robert Jensen, Stephen Lind, and Michael McGraw.

Defense Board Sees Hamilton Air Base

Approximately 40 members of the Inter-American Defense Board today completed a three-day visit to Hamilton Air Force Base during a five-day tour of military installations in the Bay Area.

During their tour of Hamilton they were given a briefing on the Air Defense Command and the 28th Air Division. They will also tour Fort Ord, Treasure Island and the Presidio of San Francisco.

Col. Whybrew Retires After 24 Years In Army

Lt. Col. Robert E. Whybrew, 510 Tarragon Drive, San Rafael, has retired from the Army after more than 24 years of service.

He was assistant chief of the Engineer Division at Sixth Army headquarters in the Presidio. After World War Two service as an Army Engineers company commander on the Ledo and Burma Roads, he was a staff engineer with the Eniwetock nuclear tests.

Col. Whybrew was honored at a Presidio of San Francisco retreat parade and retirement review on Friday, and was presented an Oak Leaf Cluster to his Army commendation medal, for meritorious service.

The retired officer and his wife, Vicki, have two children, son Mark, and daughter Kim. They will continue to live in San Rafael; Whybrew said he has not yet decided on a civilian occupation.

State Chamber Man To Speak On Coast

The Marin Coast Chamber of Commerce will hold a dinner meeting at the Farm House in Olema Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. to hear V. M. Moir, district manager of the North Coast Council of the California Chamber of Commerce.

Hal Evans will present plans for the new marina at Marshall.

The "blackout" period experienced by alcoholics is not a period of unconsciousness. It is similar to amnesia or loss of memory.

Gerber
MEATS FOR BABIES

Nicest ways in the world to help little bodies grow big and strong. Succulent Gerber Strained and Junior Meats are high in protein, needed for growth and the development of all body structures. Made from cuts carefully selected by Armour, they're processed by an exclusive method to preserve true-meat flavors and insure a wonderfully smooth, lusciously moist texture. Low, low fat content, too.

Two for true quality. The quality of these meats is the result of the combined efforts of two specialists—Gerber, famous for fine baby foods and Armour, famous for fine meats. ARMOUR

All Gerber Baby Foods are prepared by experts who work constantly in the interest of better infant nutrition. We're proud to say: "Babies are our business... our only business!"

When you buy Gerber—you're sure of your money's worth in nourishment

Larkspur

Feeling Boxed-In?

By small rooms—no views—tiny yard areas? We can cure all that with this elegant new home in Larkspur's nicest district. All the rooms are oversized and have gracious touches such as the folding doors of the closets in the 3 bedrms.—the expansive use of glass in both baths—the natural dark wood kitchen with copper tone appliances —the ceiling-high brick fireplace — and the window walls with glass clear up high in the gables. The house has 5 different view directions and the lot is large and level. Give us a call and un-box yourself for only $34,500.

Status Symbol
of space is the new trend. Space to construct your favorite house plan—space for the perfect patio for entertaining—space for a noisy play yard for the kids — and, most of all, vistas of space through redwoods and oaks. We can show you 2 lots in Larkspur's Chevy Chase area, each of which has this type of space—and a great deal of it level! Yet your home would be only 3 minutes from transportation, education and purchasing.

Sergeant Green Aids Europe GIs

FRANKFURT (UPI) — "Desk Sergeant Green" is trying to keep American GIs out of trouble in Europe.

Green is a fictitious, square-jawed mixture of Dick Tracy and Beetle Bailey's first sergeant, who squints at soldiers from posters and the pages of the "Army in Europe" magazine camouflaged as the hero of a cartoon serial.

Soon he also will distribute his free advice over the air—courtesy of AFN (American Forces Network in Europe)—the Army promised.

"Green" is part of the Army's effort to give GIs a chance "to demonstrate their maturity and reliability while stationed in Europe," an Army release said.

"The secondary and more specific object of the program is to assist the soldiers to stay out of trouble."

The Army does not deny that its soldiers, often bored by too much leisure, do occasionally get into trouble. Informed sources said the program also was aimed at reducing incidents that bear a racial overtone.

In a recent issue of "Army in Europe," Sergeant Green relates the "true story" (only the names and places have been changed) of four GIs who cheated a cabbie out of his fare.

They also "knocked him unconscious," Green recalls and tells how they were identified and punished: "the penalty: imprisonment and loss of two-thirds of their pay for five months."

Other posters the Army is sticking on bulletin boards under the "Stay Out of Trouble" program show two bushy-browed GIs toasting a well-proportioned fraulein with foaming beer steins.

Below is the warning in big black letters: "Avoid trouble. 50 per cent of incidents between soldiers and European civilians begin in retail drinking establishments."

An illustrated "Stay Out of Trouble" pamphlet issued to all soldiers who arrive in overseas posts also tells GIs the do's and don'ts of Army life.

One of the illustrations, showing two underworld characters pulling a .45 and a switchblade, respectively, says: "Only cowards carry illegal weapons."

Another cartoon, entitled "You Can't Do This to Me," pictures two grim, obviously Teutonic policemen carrying off a tiny GI by the padding of his jacket.

The small print below explains: "The European police have the same authority over you that your state or local police in the United States exercises."

In the pamphlet, soon to be supplemented by a crime prevention manual for military police and a troop behavior guide for commanders, the Army also advises soldiers to "choose your companions carefully, visit reputable places, do not frequent unsavory cafes," and "do not deal with black marketeers."

Father Takes Child

POMONA (AP) — Police today sought Jack L. Mick, 24, of Denver, Colo., accused of fleeing with his 2-year-old daughter. Mick had contended in court that he was granted custody of his daughter, Denice, by a Denver court but that his ex-wife, Mrs. Katherine R. O'Toole, took her to California. While the mother was testifying Monday, the child began to cry. Mick picked up the child, took her outside the courtroom and disappeared.

Pedestrian Killed

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Susano R. Vasquez, 66, of Sacramento, was killed last night when hit by a car as he was walking on Rio Linda Boulevard. The driver of the car was identified as Allen T. Brenner, 26, of Sacramento.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Varicose Veins Are Another Price Humans Pay For Walking Upright

VAN DELLEN

Varicose veins are another penalty we pay for walking upright; four-legged animals are not bothered. These enlarged, tortuous, dilated blood vessels occur in 10 per cent of our adult population and are more common in women than in men.

The cause is not known but the condition usually is associated with heredity, straining, pregnancy, or obesity. In 43 to 62 per cent of all victims, the condition runs in the family. The inherited weakened or defective veins and valves lead to loss of elasticity and areas of thinning in the walls.

INCREASED pressure from prolonged standing or lifting is more likely to balloon out a weakened than a normal vein. Abdominal pressure secondary to tumor or pregnancy also tends to impede the flow of blood toward the heart; dilation of the leg vein results.

The lower extremities have two groups of veins. The deep vessels run down the center of the leg and are surrounded by muscles and fascia. Those near the surface do not have this support and stretch more easily when distended with blood. These are the veins that become varicosed.

BUT THIS IS only a part of the story. Every vein has valves located at irregular intervals along the passageway. Normally they allow the blood to flow upward when the old ticker contracts but, between beats, they prevent backflow. When the walls of the vein stretch, these valves spread apart. As a result, the blood falls back toward the feet everytime the heart muscle relaxes. It is the combination of dilatation of the veins and incompetent valves that leads to varicosities.

Mild varicose veins are unsightly but seldom cause symptoms. Some persons complain of aching and a sense of heaviness or fatigue in the legs. Cramping, itching, and burning may occur. In neglected cases, the leg becomes swollen, discolored, and ulcerated.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, sel-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

SORE AND STIFF

J. S. writes: Please explain fibromyositis. I know it has to do with muscles.

REPLY

This condition stems from inflammatory changes in fibrous and muscular tissue. Lumbago is an example. The main symptoms are pain, stiffness, and sorness of the involved parts. In some instances, tenderness of the muscles makes movement agonizing. Heat and rest bring relief.

Today's Health Hint—A certain amount of emotional trauma prepares the child for adulthood.

Western Europe Joins Space Work

PARIS (UPI)—Western Europe, with Britain as a full partner and America and Australia as collaborators, is joining the United States in the space business.

The count-down began this spring with the rap of a gavel which brought the European Space Research Organization (ESRO) into being.

More than 400 flights planned for the near future will mark Europe's emergence as the world's third power in space.

But ESRO will not challenge the giants in the space race. Its program is designed to cooperate with—not overlap that of the U.S. National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

Cooperation is the essence of this strictly European body. All its members have space programs of their own and material and information from them will be contributed.

The first ESRO council session March 23 saw nine members in attendance: France, Great Britain, The Netherlands, West Germany, Sweden, Belgium, Switzerland, Spain and Denmark. Italy signed the 1962 founding convention and is due to ratify it. Austria and Norway are expected to join soon.

ESRO's first eight-year plan calls for launching 400 sounding rockets, six small satellites, eight medium-sized satellites, seven space probes and one large orbiting astronomical observatory.

ESRO is not in the rocket-making business. It will use already developed space vehicles—the NASA Scout, the British Skylark and French Centaure rockets. NASA will provide the rockets in exchange for data.

A parallel organization, the European Launcher Development Organization (ELDO), is to build European rockets. ESRO and ELDO will work together, the former to obtain data about space and the latter to provide the firing vehicles.

Headquarters for both organizations are in Paris.

West Germany, Great Britain, France, The Netherlands, Belgium and Italy will work with Australia, which will make its Woomera testing site available for firings.

With its overall 300-million-dollar eight-year budget, ESRO is preparing:

1. A launching range (ESRANGE) near the Arctic Circle Town of Kiruna, Sweden. The range will have the advantage being at a high geomagnetic latitude, making it particularly suitable for certain studies.

2. A Space Technology Center (ESTEC) located at Delft, The Netherlands. With 800 engineers and technicians, the center will study rocket payloads, satellites and space probes and related technology.

3. A data center (ESDAC) at Darmstadt, West Germany, to deal with data processing and analysis of recovered material and with orbit prediction.

4. A research institute (ESRIN) in Italy, to handle research on physical or chemical phenomena in space.

5. Tracking stations from Alaska to Africa are to be used or developed. ESRO plans to build four and make use of those belonging to France to gather data from its satellites.

ESRO will employ between 1,200 and 1,500 scientists, technicians and administrative personnel.

ESRO's French Director General, Prof. Pierre Auger, who also is chief of France's Space Research Center, sees a great future for the new scientific body.

"Our work will place high in the total world space effort," Auger told United Press International.

"We have great ambitions. In eight or nine years we hope to send a rocket through or close to (the tail) of a comet to determine its nature."

The first year will be devoted to development of ESRO-1 and ESRO-2, two small satellites to be launched into earth orbit in 1967 or 1968. Work also is being planned for a large orbiting astronomical observatory.

Twelve sounding rockets were to be launched before this year's end. While awaiting construction of the Kiruna site, ESRO will use Italy's Salto di Quirra base on Sardinia, and the French Mediterranean Isle of Levant—where a once-flourishing nudist colony is being edged off by science and technology's needs.

The sounding rockets will soar into the upper atmosphere to measure solar radiation in X-ray and ultra-violet rays. Studies will be made of the ionosphere—The electric-conducting layer of the earth's atmosphere which bounces radio waves around the globe.

ESRO-1 will study the Aurora Borealis—the brilliant "Northern Lights"—and the polar ionosphere. The second satellite will make a more detailed examination of X-rays and ultra-violet radiation originating in the sun.

ESRO-2 also will take a close look at particles forming the so-called Van Allen belt's radiation around earth. Measurement of this radiation is important for understanding phenomena on the surface of the sun and in interplanetary space.

Ike Goes To Bed Without Talking About Election

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, nursing an injured back, retired for the night without commenting on President Johnson's victory.

The nation's only Republican president since 1932 followed the results of the overwhelming Democratic victory, a spokesman said, but took a sedative for his injury and went to bed without commenting.

The spokesman said Eisenhower fell against a bannister in his cottage on the Augusta National Golf Club property Monday night and hurt his back. He was treated at nearby Fort Gordon Hospital and released.

Banana Beauty Braves Bump

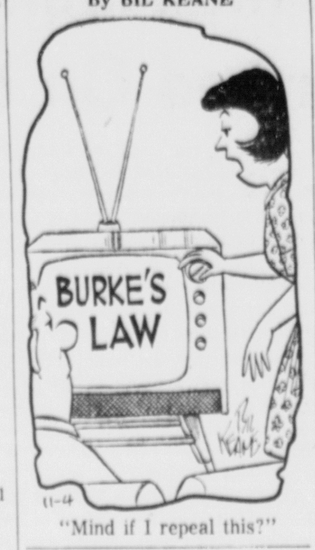

FULTON, Ky. (AP)—The reigning princess of the International Banana Festival really got into the spirit of the celebration this year.

The princess, Carol Glisson of Martin, Tenn., slipped on a banana peel during festival ceremonies.

Women Lose Bids For State Senate

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Two ladies who tried to become the first women to enter the State Senate proved yesterday that they belonged to the weaker sex.

Republican Margarette Brown Meggs of Grass Valley was defeated by Democratic incumbent Paul Lunardi of Roseville. Mrs. Vera L. Schultz, a Democrat from Mill Valley, lost to Republican John F. McCarthy of San Rafael, also an incumbent.

The assembly already has a woman member, Mrs. Pauline Davis of Portola. A Democrat, she won re-election easily.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Little Drama In TV Vote Tallying

By RICK du BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The fine tradition of election night hangovers was dispatched into oblivion last evening in full view of television watchers who saw a new, cooperative and fantastically fast vote-counting process.

To the nostalgic recalled of past elections, there may have been little drama in the superquick tallying of results in the race between President Lyndon B. Johnson and challenger Barry M. Goldwater, and in many other races. But the new vote-counting pool procedure of the two wire services and the three major networks could bring only thanks from most viewers, and newspaper readers, because of its elimination of conflicting figures caused by varying methods and orders of computing. Gone were the attendant theatrics and false drama superficially created by such conflicts. Projections, however, were still matters of individual competition.

Under the pool arrangement, identical figures were posted by the networks and the wire services, so that—praise be!—the viewer who tuned in, say, the early Huntley-Brinkley or Walter Cronkite newscasts, found no cause for bewilderment over different tallies. This was in marked contrast to the June 2 California primary fight between Goldwater and Nelson Rockefeller, when televiewers had their emotions driven in all directions by the varying counts.

You may remember the controversy over the now-significant coverage of the Rockefeller-Goldwater primary. Twenty-two minutes after most of the California polls closed, a nationwide audience heard CBS-TV declare Goldwater the winner on the basis of roughly 2 per cent of the votes. ABC-TV and NBC-TV held off for a while, but finally went along with the verdict. But then the Northern California votes poured in later, and with different tallies being thrown at the public there was considerable drama in wondering whether the network estimates would stand up.

Last night, there was no prolonged period of sweating out the returns—not only because of Johnson's wide margin of victory, but because also of the rapid compilation. And though he had a network promise not to be too cozy with the word "declare," some of the projections by computer were stated in such a fashion that they could be interpreted as little else but declarations. Some of these reports were offered while polls were still open in the West.

At about 8:25 p.m. (EST), viewers saw Dean Burch, chairman of the GOP National Committee, say that the election was far from over, and that it would be decided West of the Mississippi. Here the viewer's interest was aroused. Would there, could there possibly be a repetition of the 1960 race when John F. Kennedy built an early lead in the East and then Richard M. Nixon closed in out West? Could there be a repetition of the Goldwater-Rockefeller California primary with its closing rush of excitement?

Quickly the computers and the compilation put an end to such thoughts.

Two Hamilton Airmen End Service Careers

Two men assigned to Western Communications Region Headquarters of the Air Force Communication Service retired Friday from active duty in ceremonies at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Maj. Rodney B. Slinde of 95 Corte Arriba, Novato, was awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal on retirement. He was chief communications operations inspector in the region inspector general's office. He and his wife, Judy, will make their home in North Hollywood.

SM/Sgt. Richard B. Stubbs of 163 Crescent Drive on the base was assigned to the Command Control Branch in the Directorate of Telecommunications. He and his wife, Mabel, will make their home in Wabash, Ind.

More than six of every 10 new cars sold in the United States during 1963 were equipped with car radios.

Students Find Adults Not Well Informed On Election

Less than two-thirds of the adults interviewed in a pre-election survey by a group of Redwood High School students could identify either of California's United States senators from a list.

Four per cent thought Claire Engle was still senator. Eight per cent believed Don H. Clausen was.

Only 56 per cent realized they were being tricked when they were asked a question about "Proposition 18" on yesterday's ballot. And 44.8 per cent thought that Proposition 14 would do nothing more than repeal the Rumford Act.

The results were compiled yesterday, about a week after the multiple choice questionnaire was given to 390 Marin residents by students in three American government classes at the high school.

Fifteen of the questions tested the knowledge of the adults on current affairs dealing with the election campaign. The other seven questions dealt with opinions on national and state issues.

Men appeared better informed than women on most issues. Both Democrats and Republicans were better informed on those issues which were directly promoted or publicized by their own parties.

Some 48 per cent of those asked said that George Murphy, but not Pierre Salinger, has called for continued use of braceros to pick California crops, while 12 per cent said it was Salinger who wanted braceros, and 9 per cent said both favored a bracero program.

The fact that the Republican platform had a plank favoring school prayers was recalled by 38 per cent, but 36 per cent thought neither party favored prayers in schools.

Thirty-three per cent believed Barry M. Goldwater wished to do away with the graduated income tax.

On opinion questions, 34 per cent said the main issue in the campaign was "prevention of drastic alteration of U.S. foreign and domestic policy," while 21 per cent felt "equal opportunity for all U.S. citizens" was more important, and 18 per cent favored "a more effective containment of international Communist aggression."

The Supreme Court was endorsed, with 62 per cent believing it has been "constructively reinterpreting the constitution in relation to the present conditions of our society." But 3 per cent thought the court was a tool of a foreign conspiracy.

On the use of nuclear weapons, 44 per cent felt they should be used only in response to an all-out war, 30 per cent to prevent U.S. defeat, and 18 per cent never.

Fifteen per cent of the men and 21 per cent of the women felt the United States should never use nuclear weapons. Twenty-seven per cent of the men, compared to 32 per cent of the women, said bombs should be used only to prevent U.S. defeat. On the other hand, 49 per cent of the men and 40 per cent of the women said nuclear arms should be used as a response to all-out war.

Television was endorsed as the "most helpful" in informing the voter by 36 per cent of those questioned. Following television, however, men favored newspapers as a source of information, and women preferred news magazines.

California's long ballot was approved of, with 36 per cent saying all the issues on the ballot are "necessary issues to be decided by the voter," 35 per cent asking that the issues all be left on, but language simplified, and only 21 per cent saying the voter cannot be expected to be informed on so many matters.

The questionnaire was devised largely from questions students asked teachers at the school. Teachers Margaret B. Neubauer, Charles H. Wray and Freeman D. Blake helped draw up the questions.

Strep Infections Lead Disease List

Streptococcic infections accounted for 43 of the 53 cases of communicable disease reported the last week in October, according to Marin County Health Officer Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht.

San Rafael and San Anselmo were hardest hit by strep, with 13 and 10 cases respectively. Records also show five cases of mumps, four of measles and one of serum hepatitis in the county.

Drake Class Of '64 Gives JFK Reminder

The Sir Francis Drake High School graduating class of '64 has presented to the school a portrait bust of John Fitzgerald Kennedy "to remind students of their duty of service to the country."

Librarian Ruth Taylor commented that "this bust is especially appropriate in the library because Kennedy was such a great lover, writer and user of books."

At cruising speed, jet airliner passengers travel more than a mile within the time they have inhaled and exhaled twice.

School Honor Society Names 152 Members

One hundred fifty-two members have been named to the Redwood High School Honor Society.

Membership, based on a B average, was determined by grades earned during spring semester of last year, explained Robert Bachelder, advisor. The student must also have 10 service or activity hours.

Ten of these members have A's in all subjects, seven have all A's excluding physical education, 95 have all A's and B's and 12 more have no grade lower than a B if P.E. is excluded.

The straight-A students are: Donald Anderson, 711 Meadowsweet, Corte Madera; Lucia Blakeslee, 15 Acorn Way, Kentfield; Cristine Gondak, 6 Stanford Court, Larkspur; Doug Grey, 176 Paseo Way, Greenbrae; Carol Hinkley, 2 Villa Court, Kentfield; Linda Holmes, 22 Juno Road, Tiburon; H. Walter Johnson, 160 Bella Vista Drive, Belvedere; Claudia Marker, 39 Tulane Drive, Larkspur; Chris Newhall, 364 Bretano Way, Greenbrae, and Dave Strathairn, 19 Winship Avenue, San Anselmo.

The seven having all A's except in P.E. are: Ann Bastian, Belvedere; Robert Green, Kentfield; Ruth Lowenthal, Greenbrae; Patricia Ann Myers, Kentfield; Laura Schlichtmann, Greenbrae; Sherrill Swan, Greenbrae, and Dave Walter, Kentfield.

The class breakdown went as follows: Seniors, 43 members; juniors, 65, and sophomores, 44. Freshmen are not eligible to join until they have completed one semester of work.

Hamilton Awards 2 Government Jobs

The base procurement office today announced awarding of two contracts at Hamilton Air Force Base.

A $4,121 contract was awarded California General Linen Supply Co., Inc., of San Francisco for rental and laundry services, and a $2,083 contract was given to De Luxe Cleaners of Petaluma for dry cleaning of government owned articles.

Meeting Postponed

Meeting of the Lagunitas School District Board scheduled at 8 p.m. today has been postponed until 8 p.m. Nov. 10, it was announced yesterday by Leslie S. Stone, board president.

THE OLD TIME favorites of apple pie and baked apples are menu delights in thousands of homes every day of the year. The apple is growing in importance with diet and nutrition specialists because vitamins and minerals essential to balanced family meals are plentiful. Add apples to lunch boxes and serve fresh apples on the cheese tray with coffee.

New Harvest Apples Coming To Market

From all over America the new harvest apples are coming to market. They are in your favorite stores and shopping centers arriving daily in fragrant, colorful abundance.

These fall 1964 apples are handsome in all varieties for both eating and cooking. Take some home today to fill the family fruit bowl, and to use in the kitchen — apples in your cooking pep up the family meals.

Besides the fresh-tasting salads you make with apples, the old-time favorites, apple pie and spicy baked apples are menu delights in thousands of homes every day of the year. There are new versions of these famous dishes — here — for you to try today.

Add apples to the lunch boxes. Have apples handy for after-school and bedtime snacks. Serve superb fresh apples on the cheese tray with coffee.

The apple is steadily growing in importance with diet and nutrition specialists because vitamins and minerals essential to balanced family meals are plentiful in this orchard fruit. Fresh raw apples are good for dental health, too. And they are leaders in reducing and weight-watching.

Try these new kitchen-tested recipes—a very new and different apple pie criss-cross on top and spicy inside. And try these better-than-ever baked apples, a superb party and family dish. This new salad in which apples add flavor and freshness is fine for Sunday night supper and many other occasions. Apple cookies—yes, extra-good, chewy, just right with coffee and tea, with ice cream, in lunch box, and all other times.

APPLE PIE

6 to 8 large, tart apples
Pastry for 2-crust 9-inch pie
½ cup granulated sugar
½ cup firmly packed brown sugar
1 tablespoon flour
½ teaspoon nutmeg
Grated peel of 1 lemon
Grated peel of 1 orange
2 tablespoons orange juice
3 tablespoons butter or margarine

Pare and core apples; cut in quarters, then slice thin. Line 9-inch pie pan with pastry. Combine sugars, flour and nutmeg; rub a little of this mixture into pastry. Add fruit peels to remaining sugar mixture. Arrange apples in pan, sprinkling each layer with some of the sugar mixture. Sprinkle with orange juice; dot with butter or margarine. Cut remaining pastry into strips 10 inches long and ½-inch wide. Weave, lattice-fashion, over pie filling. Trim and crimp the edges. Bake at 425° for 40 to 45 minutes, or until apples are tender. Let cool. For a special occasion, brush top with thin confectioner's sugar icing; decorate with chopped candied orange peel and chopped glace cherries. Makes 6 servings.

BAKED APPLES MARSALA

8 large dried apricots
3 tablespoons sugar
¼ cup finely chopped walnuts
4 large baking apples
8 teaspoons Marsala wine
¼ cup firmly packed brown sugar
Dairy sour cream

Soak apricots in warm water until soft. Drain; chop fine. Combine chopped apricots, sugar and walnuts; blend well. Core apples; pare about ⅓ of the way down. Fill apple centers with apricot mixture. Pour 2 teaspoons Marsala wine over apricot filling in each apple. Pour 1 cup water into baking dish; stir in brown sugar; put apples in baking dish. Bake at 350° about 45 minutes or until apples are tender, basting occasionally with liquid in pan. Chill. Serve with dairy sour cream. Makes 4 servings.

APPLE SALAD BOWL

1 large avocado
2 red apples
2 yellow apples
1 pkg. (10-oz.) green lima beans cooked and chilled
1 green pepper cut in rings
1 cup bottled garlic flavored French dressing
Salad greens

Cook, peel and de-vein shrimp; chill. Peel and stone avocado; slice. Slice unpeeled apples. Toss shrimp, avocado, apple slices, drained limas and green pepper in dressing. Serve on crisp salad greens. Makes 8 servings.

Buns Can Serve All Occasions

Fresh baked buns can create a feeling of warmth and hospitality for family and guests alike. This versatile recipe for Old World Cherry Buns serves all occasions—breakfast, lunch or dinner—plus those extra special events when good friends call. Brighten your kitchen reputation with these Old World Cherry Buns . . . made from unbleached flour for better flavor, grain and texture.

OLD WORLD CHERRY BUNS

1 1-lb. can tart red cherries
⅓ cup sugar
2 tablespoons unbleached flour
1 tablespoon butter
Few drops red food coloring
1 package active dry yeast
¼ cup warm water
1 cup milk, scalded
½ cup shortening
⅓ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 egg
4 to 4½ cups sifted unbleached flour

Drain cherries thoroughly. Combine sugar and flour. Add cherries and cook until thick. Add butter and food coloring. Cool and reserve.

Soften yeast in warm water. Add hot milk to shortening, sugar and salt. Stir until shortening is melted; cool to lukewarm. Stir in 1½ cups of the flour. Add softened yeast and egg; beat well. Stir in remaining flour or enough to make a soft dough. Cover and let rest 10 minutes. Knead on lightly floured surface until smooth, about 5 minutes. Place in a greased bowl; cover and let rise in a warm place until double in bulk, about 1 to 1½ hours. Punch down; cover and let rest 10 minutes. Roll dough to slightly less than ½-inch thick. Cut with a 2½-inch cutter. Place 2-inches apart on a lightly greased baking sheet. Cover and let rise until light, about 45 minutes. With fingers, press down center of buns; spoon in cherry filling. Bake at 375° about 15 minutes or until done.

Yield: about 1½ dozen buns.

Turkey Rarebit

With turkey continuing to be such a good buy, it can be enjoyed often in many ways. Arrange cooked slices of turkey on hot buttered toast. Cover with a warm cheese sauce to which halved and seeded Tokay grapes have been added just before serving.

OLD WORLD CHERRY BUNS

Shadow Cake Is Brought Up To Date

American ingenuity has created a new chocolate-flavored product to save cooks time. With this ingredient, no melting of chocolate is necessary. Packaged in 1-ounce envelopes (eight to a carton) the product can be used in many desserts.

We tried it in the following recipe for a layer cake of a medium chocolate color, and used it to make chocolate shadows on the fluffy white frosting.

NEW CHOCOLATE SHADOW CAKE

1 tsp baking soda
1 cup butter or margarine
1 tsp vanilla
2¼ cups firmly packed light brown sugar (1 lb)
3 eggs
3 envelopes (1 oz each) unsweetened chocolate-flavored product
1 cup milk
Fluffy White Frosting

Sift together the flour and baking soda. Cream butter and vanilla; beat in brown sugar 2 tablespoons at a time; this should take about 10 minutes with the electric mixer. Beat in eggs thoroughly, one at a time. Stir in 2 envelopes of the chocolate-flavored product. Alternately add flour mixture and milk, beating until smooth after each addition.

Turn batter into three round 8-inch layer cake pans that have been lined on the bottom with waxed paper. Bake in a moderarte (350°) oven for 30 to 35 minutes, or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Turn out on wire racks; remove paper; cool.

Put cakes together and cover top and sides with Fluffy White Frosting. Hold the remaining envelope of the chocolate-flavored product under very hot water to soften so it will flow. Open envelope as directed and drizzle the contents around top edge of cake, letting some of it run down the sides.

Mushroom Stuffing Perfect For Chicken

¼ cup butter or margarine
2 small onions, chopped (½ cup)
1 cup chopped celery and leaves
1½ cups sliced mushroom stems
2 cups herb-seasoned packaged dry bread stuffing
¼ cup boiling water
¼ teaspoon pepper

In a medium saucepan melt the butter and lightly brown the onion, celery and mushroom stems in it. Stir in the bread stuffing, boiling water and pepper. Use to stuff the body cavity of a roasting chicken (about 5 pounds ready-to-cook weight). Roast stuffed chicken by favorite method.

Vote For Peach Spongettes

There's nothing we like better than to be able to recommend to you a really interesting and delicious variation of a tried-and-true recipe.

That's why we were particularly happy when all our tasters voted for Peach Spongettes. This dessert is the offspring of the lemon-flavored cake-pudding that has been a favorite over the years.

But Peach Spongettes are just a little different from their famous ancestor. First, their texture; instead of being a two-layer affair (part cake-pudding, part sauce) they hold the same delicate texture throughout. Second, their flavor: this is delectable and almost mysterious, achieved through the recipe's special combination of canned cling peaches, brown and white sugar and fresh lemon. Of course the eggs and butter included help, too.

This is a fine dessert to serve to the family or to company. To our own family, we offered the peach slices used for the garnish plain and ungilded; to guests we offered the peach slices marinated in orange-flavored liqueur. But whether the garnish is plain or gilded, this is a lovely dessert.

PEACH SPONGETTES

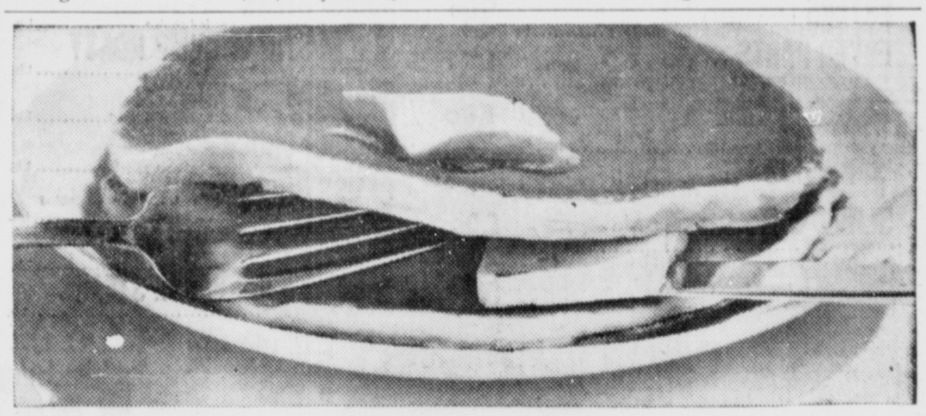

1 can (1 lb 13 oz) cling peach slices
3 eggs, separated.
¼ cup milk
⅔ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
½ cup sifted flour
2 tbsp butter, melted
1 tsp grated lemon rind
3 to 4 tsp lemon juice
½ tsp salt
⅓ cup granulated sugar

Drain peaches, reserving ½ cup of the syrup. Mash enough of the peaches through a fine-mesh strainer or in an electric blender to make 1 cup puree; reserve remaining peaches for a garnish.

In a mixing bowl beat the egg yolks until thick and lemon-colored; gently beat in the milk, brown sugar and flour; stir in melted butter, peach puree, the ½ cup reserved peach syrup, lemon rind and lemon juice.

With the clean beater, beat egg whites with salt until foamy; gradually beat in the granulated sugar; continue to beat, if necessary, until stiff straight peaks form when beater is slowly withdrawn. Fold in peach mixture. Turn into 8 six-ounce custard cups. Place cups in a baking pan; fill pan with enough hot water to have it come up about 1 inch. Bake in a moderate (350°) oven for 40 to 45 minutes or until tops are lightly browned.

Cool and serve in custard cups, or chill and invert on dessert plates. Garnish with reserved peaches and, if desired, with whipped cream. Makes 8 servings. (AP)

Reds Are Maintaining Control In Zanzibar

DAR ES SALAAM (WPS) — New Communist maneuvers to maintain their control of Zanzibar have become evident on the island in the past few weeks.

While on the one hand Zanzibar's President Abeid Karume shows signs of becoming more liberal and cooperative with the mainland government of the United Republic of Tanganyika and Zanzibar, the left-wingers in Zanzibar's revolutionary government are plunging frantically into socialist programs from which they hope the island can never be extricated.

In the first two weeks of October, for example, they have done the following:

1. Nationalized the Clove Growers Assn.—a growers' cooperative which markets the island's principal crop. The effect of this is that the revolutionary government now controls the livelihood of the vast majority of Zanzibaris.

2. Announced that 35,000 acres of fertile land in the island's interior, containing many clove and coconut plantations, will be converted to rice production through collective farms.

3. Banned the picking of all fruit on the island, except one type of bitter mango. This inexplicable move will be a hard blow to Zanzibaris whose smallholdings bear many paw-paw, mango and banana trees and for whom fruit has been part of their staple diet since a far-sighted Sultan decreed that all useless trees should be uprooted and replaced with fruit or clove trees.

4. Announced the creation of an internal and external state trading corporation to replace the Zanzibar Chamber of Commerce.

To further consolidate its hold on the people, the revolutionary council has also announced its intention to pull down the homes of 45,000 people in the Ngambo area of Zanzibar to make way for huge blocks of flats which are to be erected under the direction of technicians from Communist East Germany.

The houses are already coming down, but the flats are going up at an agonizingly slow rate.

In an August blare of publicity, East Germany promised to build Zanzibar 1.4 million dollars worth of flats, to be completed in eight weeks. These, it said, would be models for a further 5.6 million dollars to be built by Zanbibar.

By mid-October the concrete walls of the first two blocks of flats had been raised only about six feet. All the building materials, including sand which Zanzibar has in abundance, have been shipped from Eastern Germany, together with building machinery, builders and technicians. The East Germans blame the slow progress on the refusal of Zanzibari laborers to work for the 42 cents per day wage offered.

Some quarters believe the delays are being engineered to enable the Revolutionary Council to delay the downgrading of the East German Zanzibar Embassy to a Consulate — its rightful status since the declaration of a United Republic and the existence of a West German Embassy here in the Tanganyikan capital of Dar es Salaam.

Today, Zanzibar is an island of fear. Even before exchanging pleasantries, people look over their shoulders to see who is listening. The few non-Communist visitors who are allowed in are escorted everywhere. Their movements are restricted and they are told whom they may and may not visit. Typical is the experience of a recent British visitor who was refused permission to visit the office of the Acting British High Commissioner.

The Revolutionary Council does not recognize the entry permits to the island issued by the mainland government of the United Republic.

Observers here believe it is President Nyerere's policy to move gently, in order to bring about the gradual fusion of the island and the mainland. But the Revolutionary Council of Zanzibar, except for one or two of its members, has different ideas.

To the Communists, Zanzibar is still a springboard to the mainland. In some respects the tail is already wagging the dog, and they are determined that any fusion is going to be timed by them and on their terms.

Increasing Unrest In Tibet Stirs Peking To Countermoves

By TREVOR DRIEBERG

NEW DELHI (WPS) — Facts about Tibet have always been hard to come by, the more so since Red China clamped down on communications with Tibet after the Chinese occupation in 1959 which led to the flight of the Dalai Lama to India.

But by piecing together key bits of information that trickle across the Himalayas via refugees who slip past the Chinese military patrols on Tibet's borders with Nepal, India, Sikkim and Bhutan, political observers here have been able to assemble a coherent picture. It indicates a rising tide of Tibetan dissatisfaction with their "liberators" from feudal lamaistic rule.

A significant trend noted in the country in the past few months is the increasing unrest among Tibetans living in towns.

Growing resentment is reported among the so-called "flower of Tibetan youth"—those whom Peking had handpicked for indoctrination and training in party propaganda in Communist China so that on their return to their motherland they would help in making the Chinese presence acceptable to their countrymen.

These young men and women between the ages of 22 and 25, who have now been graduated from schools in Peking, Lanchow, Sinan or Chindu, were intended to form the hard core of the Tibetan Communist Party. They were to be the "vanguard" of Tibetans "freed from the shackles of serfdom and feudalistic oppression."

But instead these young people seem to be spearheading the discontent now prevalent over a wide area of Tibet. Anti-Chinese slogans and pamphlets are reported to be appearing regularly in the important towns, and they have been traced to these Tibetans whom the angry Chinese are now branding "revisionists" and "deviationists."

Remindful of the revolt in 1959, when the Chinese Communists overthrew the autonomous government of Tibet, Peking has recently launched a campaign to reduce the political fever among educated Tibetans, which seems to be heading toward another revolt.

The Chinese Communist occupiers have relaxed their strict food rationing policy and are permitting Tibetans the luxury of eating meat and fresh vegetables—if they can afford the high prices charged for them at food shops run by the Chinese authorities.

To encourage Tibetan exiles to return to their country, the occupation forces have distributed thousands of blank permits for re-entry in the areas bordering India and Nepal. The exiles have been promised complete immunity from punishment for their "misdeeds" againts the Chinese, also restoration of their land and valuables which were confiscated.

But despite these tempting offers, few Tibetans have returned.

In another two-way propaganda move, Chinese Communists in Tibet are now blaming the Soviet Union for past mistreatment of Tibetans by Chinese occupation forces.

An important Chinese commander in Tibet said in a recent speech: "We admit that there have been in the past many mistakes on the part of our officers. The reason was that because of our good relations with the Soviet Union our policy was chiefly based on the Soviet system of administration, which uses public self-accusation, confiscation of private property, imprisonment and the death penalty for offenses.

"These wrong methods used by us, following the example of the Soviets, have compelled many Tibetans to leave their land and seek refuge in other countries. We have now realized our mistake, and we are sending our old officials to China for re-education. From now on we shall free ourselves from the bad influence of Soviet policy and follow in all matters our own good Chinese Communist ways."

But indicative of the Chinese lack of faith that these tranquilizing techniques will work is the fact that Peking is carrying out a vigorous policy of colonizing Tibet with people from the Chinese mainland. They are said to have sent half a million Hans (Chinese) to settle in central, southern and western Tibet as part of a 5-year plan to resettle in these regions some 2.5 million Hans from China's crowded coastal provinces.

When this is achieved, the Chinese Hans will outnumber the native Tibetans by two to one.

School Begins Composition Workshops

Terra Linda High School has introduced a "composition workshop" program into its English curriculum for students who fail to meet writing standards for their grade level.

Lauriston Tardy, chairman of the English Department, said the program "is to provide another opportunity for students who have failed to meet writing standards expected of average students in high school, but who do have the potential to learn."

Mrs. Eva Goetschius, who teaches all five of the workshop groups, said the emphasis is on expository writing, and the correction of faulty writing habits.

Enrollment is limited to 15 per group and preference is given to those "who take their problem seriously and have a sincere desire to learn," Mrs. Goetschius said.

Stanford Study Topic For Show

The Stanford Research Institute study of Marin County's economy will be the topic of Radio KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" at 8 a.m. tomorrow.

Guests will be County Administrator Alan Bruce; Carroll A. Snyker, executive director of the Marin County Development Assn., and two economists from the institute, Dr. Ernest Harvey and Eric Duckstad.

Listeners may call in questions during the hour-long program, which will be taped for re-play at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Jewish Center Will Sponsor 3 'Fun Trips'

A series of Saturday afternoon "fun trips" for youngsters will again be sponsored by the Marin Jewish Community Center in San Rafael, according to youth worker Meg Mitchell.

Three outings are designed for children from kindergarten through sixth grade.

On Saturday, the children will see the San Francisco Children's Theater Assn. production of "Toad of Toad Hall," and visit the Japanese Tea Garden in Golden Gate Park.

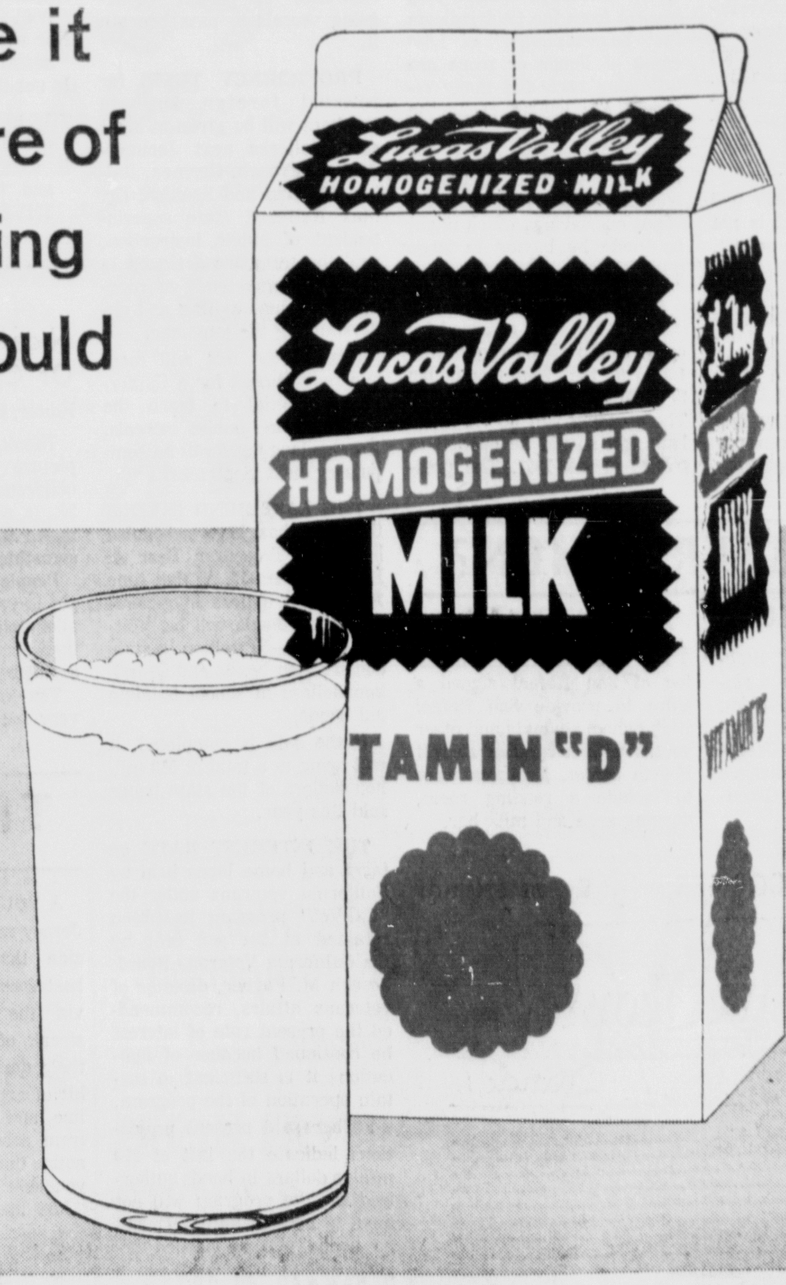

On Nov. 14, McClure's Beach tide pools and rocks will be explored, with a fish and game expert explaining the children's discoveries. On Nov. 21, the children will tour Hamilton Air Force Base.

A chartered bus will pick up participating children in various Marin County communities.

Dominican Girls Win Art In Opera Contest'

Awards have been presented to four Dominican Lower School students for their entries in the "Art in Opera contest" sponsored by the San Francisco Opera Guild.

First prize was awarded to Nancy Thelen and an honorable mention to Teresa DiGangi, sixth graders. First and second prize ribbons were awarded to Germaine Cluff and Janis Podesta, eighth graders.

Vote Important To Both Demos, Moderate GOP

After every big election battle comes the customary call for "burying the hatchet" and "closing ranks" so the entire nation can unite behind the leader to get on with the job at hand.

The call for unity is especially important this year because of the bitter rift created among the warring factions, particularly in the Republican Party.

The thumping victory by President Lyndon B. Johnson can be interpreted to mean that the people of the nation, in general, prefer the policies of Kennedy and Johnson over those of Sen. Barry Goldwater. The vote indicated support of the historic Civil Rights Bill and the spirit of the anti-poverty program championed by President Kennedy and pushed to fruition by President Johnson.

We trust that the Democratic Administration, in affirming that national interest can be greater than the sum of all local interests, will also act with due respect to legitimate local interests.

In foreign affairs, the Administration has been given a vote of confidence in its program of meeting the communist threat through firmness and restraint, not by saber-rattling and certainly not by threatening nuclear war at each and every provocation.

The American people still hold out hopes that co-existence with communist powers is possible; that the choice is not necessarily between total victory and complete surrender.

For the Republican Party, the voice of the people may prove to be a shot in the arm for the more moderate Republicanism as represented by men like Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

It was a rejection of the extreme right wing groups that were attempting to take over the GOP on the coat tails of Senator Goldwater.

It may be that a die-hard group of faithful Goldwaterites will be grooming the Arizona conservative for another effort in 1968.

But even that group will probably realize they must shift a little more toward moderation if they are to make any headway during the next four years. In that respect, the Democratic victory was a good thing for moderate Republicanism.

No matter who the GOP standard bearer will be four years hence, he will undoubtedly represent a view more moderate than the one expressed by Senator Goldwater in his famous speech on extremism and moderation in the flush of victory last July in San Francisco.

We hope that the Republican Party will be able to mend its fences and unite behind a leader acceptable to all factions.

It was said the people would be given "A choice, not an echo." In the resounding Democratic victory, the people's choice was unmistakable. We hope there will be no long and bitter echoes.

Broadcasters Again Try Pitch For State Fair Publicity Money

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

THE STATE FAIR again is being asked to make a lump sum payment of its entire radio and television advertising budget for next year — $20,000 — to the California Broadcasters Assn. The CBA, in return, would ask its members to support the state fair editorially and with public service announcements.

A similar bid by CBA was rejected last year and is not included in next year's budget. But the CBA wrote Gov. Edmund G. Brown to renew the proposal, saying it needed the money to help finance statewide public service campaigns.

THE NEW CREDIT LAW in liquor sales—requiring wholesalers to charge 1 per cent per month on balances unpaid by retailers after 42 days—is resulting in smaller quantity buying by the retailers. James O. Reimel, state director of alcoholic beverage control, said reports from the field indicate that huge "dumps" of 1,000 cases of liquor or more are becoming rare and many retailers are buying in 25-case lots.

The reason, of course, is that the payment of interest on unpaid balances just about wipes out savings which might be made by buying in large quantities.

A 27 - MILLION - DOLLAR contract has been awarded for construction of the superstructure of the 70-million-dollar San Mateo - Hayward Bridge. The crossing will be 7.4 miles long and should be opened to traffic in mid-1967. The present lift-type bridge will be removed when the four- and six-lane bridge is complete. It will have a 135-foot minimum clearance to permit ocean-going vessels to pass beneath it.

PROFICIENCY TESTS for potential foreign language teachers will be given at eight state colleges next January-April in French, German, Italian, Russian and Spanish. Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction, said the tests are designed to measure competency in reading, speaking, writing and understanding the language.

Passing the test will meet one requirement for a California credential to teach the language in public schools. Foreign languages will be compulsory next September.

THE LAST BOND SALE of the year has been scheduled by State Treasurer Bert A. Betts for Dec. 15. At that time 100 million dollars in general obligation bonds will be offered for sale—50 million in state construction bonds and 50 million dollars in school building aid bonds.

If the sale is completed, it will bring to a total of 580 million dollars of the state bonds sold this year.

THE INTEREST RATE on farm and home loans held by California veterans under the "Cal-Vet" program has been retained at 3¾ per cent by the California Veterans Board. Joseph M. Farber, director of veterans affairs, recommended the present rate of interest be continued because of indications it is sufficient to sustain operation of the program.

Farber said present projections indicate the last of 250 million dollars in bonds authorized for the program will not have to be sold until 1971 and no bonds will be needed beyond that point.

CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS pay rates for natural gas, electric energy and individual line telephone service that are among the lowest in the nation, the California Public Utilities Commission reported. Combined monthly charges for the three services in San Francisco are second lowest in major cities surveyed, while Los Angeles ranked third and San Diego 13th.

Reader Pleased With Parson

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Re: your Editorial in your estimable paper, 10/19/64, entitled, "The Death of a Friend, please accept my heartfelt sympathy."

His virtues mentioned would be bouquets of beauty to enhance any religion.

This word takes on an extreme diversified aspect, some even have inspired brickbat-throwers to act....

Readers of the I-J are blessed every day by the religious philosophy of "The Country Parson." ... Someone suggested, we bestow the apellation sky-pilot on him....

On above mentioned date "The Country Parson" said: "The most heated religious arguments usually are had by folks who know the least about it."

The best part of religion is not Arguments that get so hot; so hot...
Nor what is found in a Pharisaical Chest
Is not the best.

THE BEST RELIGION? Please get it down from The Shelf!
It says: LOVE THE LORD and THY NEIGHBOR as THYSELF.

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Thank you for the wonderful picture and coverage of the childrens' demonstration Oct. 24. It was very heart warming to see these children doing something so positive.

People today, and young people in particular, often feeling alienated from society and therefore respond with anti-social behavior.

The kids who marched feel very much a part of the society and if the school bonds and state aid pass they will feel rightfully proud that they were a meaningful factor in an activity so important to society as a democratic election for something as significant as a school bond election.

Trades Fair Article Praised

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The men of the Inmate Vocational Trades Council at San Quentin have asked me to thank you for the articles published in your newspaper regarding our first Trades Fair held on Thursday, October 1, 1964.

The purpose of the fair was to alert the public to the positive side of incarceration—the portion of prison life in which the great majority of inmates are involved.

We understand, of course, that violence in prison is news. However, we feel it is of paramount importance that we find effective instruments which will show the "other side of the coin." In publishing events such as our Inmate-inspired Trades Fair, your newspaper is giving a fairer portrayal of the man behind these walls.

Frankly, it is very disheartening to us when we read news of violence in our unique city of nearly 5,000 men. We know that a little more indelible ink has been added to the concept of the stereotype "convict." This common concept of any man who has been convicted of a felony is just not true. It is only true that he has committed a crime for which he is now incarcerated. We make no excuses for that. It is the truth. But is is equally true that: most inmates are actively participating in their own rehabilitation; most inmates want to lead normal lives and become useful, constructive citizens; and most inmates abhor violence in prison and the resulting notoriety. We can do little about such "news." What we can do is offer such things as our Trades Fair, and hope it will find a way into the public mind.

May I give you some idea of the frustration we feel. The day of our first Trades Fair had arrived. A day for the purpose of which hundreds of inmates had been working in a co-operative alliance with the administration of San Quentin. During the time that these hundreds of "convicts" were sweating, unloading trucks and setting up booths so that the public might be afforded the opportunity of seeing us as skilled tradesmen, an isolated incident occurred in another part of the institution. One inmate stabbed another. The resultant news coverage, from this single incident, was more than hundreds of inmates had been able to generate during months of hopeful labor! We are not criticizing newspapers for printing news. Rather we are trying our best to show that there is also another perspective—a more accurate perspective.

In printing news of men in prison involved in an allied effort to better themselves, the Independent-Journal is living up to the high principles of true journalism by keeping the public more accurately informed.

Hidden Motives To Bracero Cutoff?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Is there a hidden influence behind the elimination of the bracero programs?

Yes. Mexico's borders must be sealed before it can become another Cuba. Stopping the travel of agricultural laborers between the U. S. and Mexico is the first step in that direction.

Impossible? So was Cuba until after we became used to it.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A YOUNG MOTHER in New Jersey read in a fashion magazine that smart Manhattan hostesses had taken to putting, via the peroxide bottle, a streak of white hair through their dark tresses. She did a bit of experimentig along that line, and her young son, home from school, was the first to notice the change. "Gee, mom, you look great," he enthused. "Just like a skunk!"

PASTOR MARTIN Niemoller, recalling his disastrous dealings with the Nazis, reflects in his memoirs . . . "First the Nazis came for the Communists, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a Communist. Then they came for the Jews, and I didn't speak up because I was a Protestant. Then they came for me—and by that time no one was left to speak up!"

WHEN HE ISN'T managing the unmanageable Mets, Casey Stengel is the vice president of a flourishing bank in California. Here's how old Case describes his duties there: "There ain't nothin' to it. You go into the fancy meeting room and you just sit there and never open your yap. As long as you don't say nuthin' they don't know whether you're smart or dumb. When the question of a loan comes up, if it's a friend of yours, you vote to give it to him and if he ain't a friend, you don't!"

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Election Bolsters Return Of Second Party To Deep South

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The century-old one-party control of the South will never be the same after this election:

TWO THINGS ARE happening:

1. The emergent Republican Party, aggressive and broadly based, is in most places resisting white-supremacist pressures. It is far more moderate on racial matters than most of the present Democratic candidates. It will be conservative—as the South is conservative—but there is increasing evidence that it is not going to be dominated by the Thurmonds and the Wallaces in the long run; it is not going to be the fortress for any last-ditch extremist battle to thwart the tide of equal rights.

2. The newly-emergent leadership of the Democratic Party in the South is moving in a liberal direction. This is vividly illustrated here in Tennessee. Today the Democratic Party in this state is embarked on a liberal course, including acceptance of the civil rights revolution of the past four years. Congressman Ross Bass, now a Tennessee senatorial nominee, was one of the few Southerners to vote for the civil rights law, leads the entire Democratic ticket in the polls.

THIS SAME DOUBLE trend is occurring in other parts of the South. A new political realignment seems clearly in the making. The Republican Party is beginning to put down its roots into Southern political soil. Its appeal is conservative in economic affairs. Only on the fringes are the Southern Republican candidates seeking to capitalize on extremist racial sentiment.

On the assumption that more and more Southerners are desirous of helping to resolve the nation's racial problems and that Negro citizens in the South will soon become a powerful political force—often a balance of power in elections—a new breed of Southern Democratic candidates is coming into view. Their stance is pro-equal rights and they will be found nearer the political center of the Democratic Party.

Sen. Barry Goldwater has both helped and hurt the cause of Southern Republicanism. He has sharpened the conservative-liberal issue more than any previous GOP presidential nominee. He is drawing many Southerners away from their Democratic moorings on the issue of conservatism alone. But the die-hard advocates of racial discrimination have also flocked to Goldwater, even though the senator has a good record of fighting against racial discrimination in public places in his own state. This means that, temporarily at least, the Republican Party is overlaid with a heavy coat of anti-equal rights support.

BUT EVEN SUCH a Democratic liberal and staunch equal-rights supporter as the irrepressible Harry Golden sees the white-supremacist overlay of the Republican Party as only temporary. In the current issue of his "Carolina Israelite" he puts it this way:

"Apart from the Goldwater movement there is the emergence of a two-party system in many Southern cities. . . . The Republicans seem a little too anxious sometimes to reach for the Democratic inheritance of white supremacy. But this I sincerely believe is temporary." He concludes that in the end the Republican Party "will not tolerate identification with white supremacy."

The time is coming—and, I think, it is not far off—when neither party can win elections in most Southern states by promising racial solidarity. This means that most of the candidates of both parties will be appealing to Negro voters on valid issues and not pretending to the white citizens that, if they are elected, the equal-rights revolution will go away. The trend is toward a vigorous, conservative Republican Party, and a more liberal Democratic Party in most Southern states.

THIS IS GOOD—good for the South, good for both parties, good for the nation. The two-party system will give the South better government and a stronger voice in national affairs. Then a Southern presidential nominee will be a natural event, not an accident.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Do U.S. Diplomats Back Right Horse?

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — For a tortuous foreign policy, none is more perplexing than the double standard now being pursued by the Johnson administration in the dictator-plagued Caribbean.

ON ONE HAND, stern measures are being forcefully invoked to prevent Cuban refugees from warring against Fidel Castro's Communist dictatorship. The full weight of the U. S. government is being exerted to this end—the State Department, the Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard and other agencies.

At the same time, the Central Intelligence Agency is covertly supplying money and arms to favored Haitian exiles seeking to rid their long-suffering land of its latest blood-drenched dictator, "Papa Doc" Duvalier, self-proclaimed "lifetime president."

Leader of this preferred group is Louis Dejoie, one-time Haitian senator.

Moving freely between the U. S. and the Dominican Republic, his main base of operations, Dejoie is in close touch with CIA authorities — who in turn are acting under the direction of important State Department officials.

Thus, the department not only is fully cognizant of this undercover activity, but has a direct hand in it.

OTHER HAITIAN exiles, also fighting "Papa Doc," are wary of Dejoie and leading elements supporting him. They charge his ranks prominently include Communists and other left-wingers whose real aim is to replace Duvalier with a Castro-type Red regime.

Leader of this critical faction is Dr. Roger Rigaud, also based in the Dominican Republic.

A one-time Haitian businessman and strongly pro-U. S., Rigaud is distrustful of the State Department and CIA and is getting no help from them.

Influential Dominican authorities are making little secret that they favor Dr. Rigaud, and would like to get rid of Dejoie and his motley assortment of strongly suspected left-wing followers.

Dominican President Donald Reid Cabral is credited as feeling very much that way.

But the Dominican's hands are tied because of State Department and CIA support of Dejoie. The Dominican regime is heavily dependent on the U. S., and in no position to oppose the Johnson administration.

A graphic illustration of this was the recommendation of the Dominican National Investigation (Justice) Department that Dejoie and his group be ousted. The ruling civilian triumvirate, headed by Cabral, were very eager to enforce this proposal.

BUT THE CRACKDOWN was blocked by the State Department. Through diplomatic and other channels, the department enabled Dejoie to remain in the Dominican Republic and to continue using it as a base of operations.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By ELLEN BRY

Tiburon Is All-Satisfying, With Nag, Elephant, Eagle And Beagle

This is a series of animal stories, beginning with a horse tail.

THERE IS A HORSE called Blackie which stands day after day in almost the same spot in a pasture next to Tiburon Boulevard in Tiburon.

Blackie used to go to rodeos and once had an offer to go on the silver screen, apparently because of his grace, histrionic ability and for whatever reasons a horse is wanted in Hollywood.

But it's maybe 25 years since Blackie was last at a rodeo.

"Poor fella — he's plenty lively, though," says Anthony L. Connell, who lives on a beached boat on the shores of Richardson Bay next to the pasture.

"Boy, that fella can run yet. He threw me down—I got a black eye."

Blackie came west from Kansas with Connell's brother, John, and another horse, which made up a roping and cutting team on the rodeo circuit.

As far as Connell can figure, Blackie is mighty old, though he can't remember the exact dates. Blackie came to the pasture about 40 years ago when he was 12 years old, Connell says.

"He has a birthday party all the time," Connell says. "He has all the feed he wants."

THERE IS AN EAGLE at the Belvedere - Tiburon Post Office.

He was carved in Japan from California Redwood, Mrs. Robert Bruce Porter of Corte Madera says. The father of her late husband bought the eagle at an auction.

It had wandered from the first American embassy in Japan, where it glared protectively, Mrs. Porter explains. It was donated to the Post Office, where it has a benevolently glaring look.

Just down the street a ways is elephant rock, where children try to elbow their way past the regular bunch of adult fishermen on the rock, which is supposed to be only for under-16 anglers.

But those sweet little children can take care of themselves.

"We been fishin'," one boy said. "Caught two. We gave 'em away."

"We coulda got a coke," said his friend.

"Yeah," said the first kid. "You can sell 'em four for a dollar. That's a good deal for people; they get about 10 pounds of fish."

IN TERMS OF elephants and donkeys, Republicans and Democrats and such, the kids also have a brisk trade going. Youngsters who can con the Tiburon Johnson or Goldwater headquarters out of buttons, bumper stickers or other paraphernalia can turn a slight profit at local schools by selling them to less lucid but perhaps more vociferous political backers.

Then there's William. The kids call him Willllyuuuum, with long-syllabled love.

He's a low-slung, heavy-set beagle with a problem. William has a perpetual itch just at the base of his back above his tail, where he cannot reach it.

HANDS ARE MOST helpful, but they have a tendency to go away at the moment when the itch is being most pleasantly scratched. William prefers scratching himself on the underside of cars, which also tends to lubricate his problem, or under the bench on the dock off Tiburon's Main Street.

He spends his life with a soulfully sad expression on his face and a twitching backside looking for something which is just the right height off the ground for him to scratch himself.

ART BUCHWALD

They're All Jolly Good Fellows, After The Last Ballot's Tallied

WASHINGTON—When Barry Goldwater spoke in Greensburg, Pa., last Thursday, he said, "I have served in the United States Senate for the last 12 years and I have had some of the most hair-pulling debates I ever want to have with Hubert Humphrey, but I don't think two people in this country are closer together as friends. And with Lyndon Johnson I have argued, fought and debated on the floor, in his office and my office, but we can still call each other friends. It is only when we allow disagreement to overrun and over-rule good judgment that we forget our basic goodness and decency in this country."

THIS STATEMENT came as a surprise to many people who said this was one of the roughest, dirtiest campaigns in American history. If we are to believe Mr. Goldwater, this is what could probably happen a few weeks after the election.

Senator Goldwater enters President Johnson's White House office. The men throw their arms around each other.

"Gosh, it's good to see you, Lyndon. It's been a long time."

"Damn right, it has, Barry, and we can't let this happen again."

Mr. Goldwater sits down. "Well, how's the old faker and phony?"

President Johnson chortles, "That was a bit rough, you trigger-happy maverick."

Mr. Goldwater slaps his sides. "You sure got mileage out of that one. I swear everyone in the country thought I was going to push the button as soon as I got in."

"I CAN'T SAY you helped me much when you said I was soft on communism," Mr. Johnson says, wagging his finger.

"Heck, Lyndon, I figured I'd run it up the flagpole and see who saluted. And by the way, what was all this stuff during the campaign about me being against Social Security?"

Mr. Johnson roars with laughter. "I knew that would get under your skin. You never did have much sense about the old folks' vote."

Mr. Goldwater says, "Well, you might have thought that was funny, but I didn't see you laughing when I brought up Bobby Baker, Billie Sol Estes and Matt McCloskey."

"Heck, Barry, you didn't have any choice. I never minded that stuff at all. But I had to pretend I was upset."

Barry breaks into guffaws. "Lyndon, you are a sneaky one. You and that curious crew you got around you."

"Oh, yeah, I wanted to mention that. What was all that hogwash you were talking about concerning moral decay in America?"

"I THOUGHT I'D give you a little scare, Lyndon. I had the country thinking there for a while that we were all going to hell in a basket."

Mr. Johnson hands Mr. Goldwater a bourbon. "It sure was fun."

Mr. Goldwater sips his drink and looks at his friend warmly. "I'm going to miss it, Lyndon."

The president replies, "So am I, Barry. We've had a lot of laughs these last eight weeks."

Mr. Goldwater replies, "I guess I don't know when I've enjoyed myself more."

As they're talking, Hubert Humphrey walks into the office.

He sees Mr. Goldwater and rushes over to him, pumping his hand.

Mr. Goldwater grins and says, "Horatio, you no-good radical Socialist ADA dupe, how's your wife?"

"Just great, you right wing extremist son of a John Bircher. How's Peggy?"

"She's fine. Gosh, it's wonderful for the three of us to be together again."

BOTH LYNDON AND Hubert look at their friend fondly and raise their glasses. "Here's to you, Barry," Mr. Johnson says. "They don't make many like you any more."

Today is Wednesday, Nov. 4, the 309th day of 1964 with 57 to follow.

The moon is new. The morning stars are Jupiter, Venus and Mars. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

Humorist Will Rogers was born on this day in 1879.

On this day in history:

In 1842, 33-year-old Abraham Lincoln married Mary Todd in Springfield, Ill.

In 1918, the Austrian and Hungarian armies accepted World War I truce terms dictated by the Allies.

In 1931, the League of Nations cited Japan for willful aggression in Manchuria.

In 1952, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was elected president, ending 20 years of Democratic administration.

A thought for the day — American Author Will Durant said: "The health of nations is more important than the wealth of nations."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Lightface type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

A Long-Suffering Wife Reveals Dress Secret

"I have come to the conclusion that my husband's bridge game is just right," a lady writes in.

"If he played any worse, I'd have to give up the game. If he played any better he'd consider himself too good to play with me any more. Here's a hand that will give you some idea of what home bridge is like.

Opening lead — ♡ Q

"West, our next-door neighbor, led the queen of hearts. My own darling husband won with the king of hearts and led the eight of clubs to dummy's queen. East, the next-door wife, discarded the deuce of diamonds, and my husband growled something that we all pretended not to hear.

RETURNS CLUB

"My husband returned a club to his king and then led the 10 of clubs, glaring ferociously at the other man. If West played the low club, my husband would be limited to three club tricks and would go down.

"My husband should have guarded against this by leading the 10 of clubs to dummy's queen. Then he could take the king of clubs and lead the eight through West.

"Even if West played low, declarer could overtake with dummy's nine and then run the rest of dummy's suit.

DEFENSIVE BLUNDER

"I was getting ready to discuss the hand when West unexpectedly covered the 10 of clubs with the jack. 'Not through the Iron Duke,' he said brightly, and he looked to his wife for approval.

"Naturally I asked the other woman if she wanted coffee and cake right away, and I started to describe a dress I had seen that afternoon.

"She said she really needed some coffee, like a gallon, and joined in my dress discussion while my husband smugly ran the long clubs.

VERY INTERESTING

"He wound up with 11 tricks and then had the gall to complain that he might have taken 12 if we women would just stop talking about dresses in the middle of a bridge hand.

"If a few men read this letter, maybe they'll discover why their wives talk about dresses and hats in the middle of a bridge hand."

Very interesting. We husbands usually talk about baseball, but wild horses couldn't make us tell why.

DAILY QUESTION

You have opened with 1 NT, partner has responded two clubs, and it is once more up to you (opponents passing at each turn).

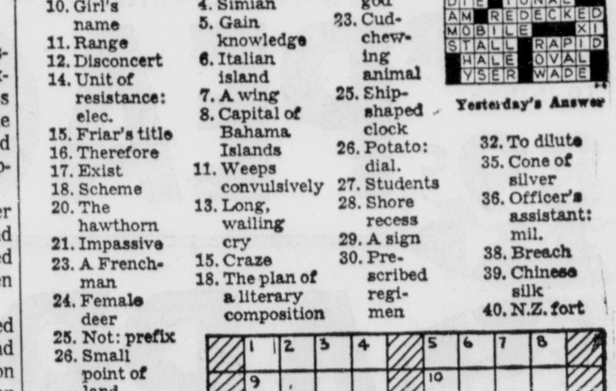

You hold:
♠ Q J 5 3
♥ A K 7
♦ A 8 4
♣ K 10 8

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two spades.

Partner's response asks if you have a major suit. Since you have four spades you answer partner's question by bidding the suit.

Dear Customers

This week we at Lee Bros. will celebrate our twenty-third birthday. My brother Bob and I started out in a small family grocery store; from this we developed an organization of people whose retail sales will be in excess of one hundred million dollars this year. We are a service group dedicated to serve you better than any other retail company. Bob and I have asked our department buyers to present to you the finest sale of values in our entire career. I have checked each item personally and can certify to you that this is without question the finest sale that our company has ever presented to you.
